MEDICAL COMMENCEMENT.

Twenty-eight Men Graduated—First Class to Graduate Under the Four-Year Course.

The commencement exercises of the Albany Medical College were held Wednesday afternoon, May 1, at Albany, in Odd Fellows Hall which was crowded to the door. This was the seventieth commencement in the history of the college. The graduating class consisted of twenty-eight young men and was the first to pass over the four-year course inaugurated a few years ago by the Albany Medical College. On the stage were seated President Raymond of Union University, Dr. Albert Vander Veer, dean of the college, Registrar Willis G. Tucker, and the members of the faculty and trustees of the college. The members of the graduating class occupied the seats of the first row, directly in front of the stage. They wore caps and gowns. After the overture by Holding's orchestra Rev. William Force Whittaker, D.D., offered prayer.

The essay was by Dr. Clayton Kendall Haskell, 2d, of Albany, and was on "The State and Its Relation to the Consumptive." President Raymond then conferred the degree of doctor of medicine on the twenty-eight young men, first giving them a practical talk. He pointed out to them the necessity of their having a good character and a sense of obligation, feeling that they must give the very best they have to the public as its servants.

Those who received the degrees are: Charles James Brown, Albany; Arthur Joseph Bedell, Watervliet; George Samuel Burns, Warsaw; John Wilson Burns, Albany Rural cemetery; Robert Beatty Castree, Westfield; Joseph Ambrose Cox, Albany; Thomas Edward Deveny, Watervliet; John Henry Dingman, Stockport; Edward Gerald Griffin, Rensselaer; John Michael Griffin, Albany; Edward Joseph Hannon, Watervliet; Clayton Kendall Haskell, 2d, Albany; John Francis Heffernan, Albany; Arthur Fenwick Holding, Albany; Thomas Francis Judge, Troy; James Everett Kelley, Dean's Corners; Joseph Waldron Moore, Cohoes; John Bertman Neary, Watervliet; Daniel Duane Parish, Salem; Nishan Alexander Pashayan, Albany; William Brink Rosecrans, Nassau; Clarence Leander Sicard, Amsterdam; George Alpheus Smith, Lansingburgh; Michael Joseph Thornton, A.B., Albany; Jacob Wachsmann, Brooklyn; Max Wachsmann, Brooklyn; Leland Orlo White, Fort Plain; Charles Lansing Witbeck, Cohoes.

The address to the graduating class which was delivered by Rev. Wallace N. Buttrick, D. D., was both eloquent and interesting. He said it was not always the honor men nor those who carried off the prizes that won fame in their profession, for oftentimes the brilliant men were those who could not apply their knowledge to practical use. He said genius counted for naught save when it was combined with hard work. If a student had a genius for hard work then he was really endowed and should be successful. In fact success will come to all who work hard and diligently.

The valedictory was by Dr. Arthur J. Bedell, of Watervliet. Professor Samuel B. Ward then read the reports on the appointments and prizes. Drs. MacDonald, Curtis and Van Rensselaer, who conducted the competitive examination for house physicians and surgeons at the Albany hospital, reported that the following had passed the examination in the order named and would constitute the house staff after June 1: First, Dr. M. J. Thornton; second, Dr. J. M. Griffin; third, Dr. E. Gerald Griffin, of Bath-on-the-Hudson; fourth, Dr. Arthur F. Holding. Dr. Willis G. MacDonald this year instituted a new prize of $25 for the work performed at his surgical conference. The prize was awarded to Dr. A. F. Holding.

The other prizes were awarded as follows :

For the best bedside examination, a clinical microscope, given by Mrs. Gertrude W. Vanderpoel in memory of her husband, the late S. Oakley Vanderpoel, M. D., awarded to A. F. Holding. For the best report of the surgical clinics held during the session, $75 in gold, given by Professors Vander Veer and MacDonald, awarded to A. F. Holding. For the best report of the eye and ear clinics, an ophthalmoscope, given by Professor Merrill, awarded to C. J. Baum.

For the best examination in physiology, at the expiration of the first study year in that branch, the Townsend physiological prize, endowed by the late Professor F. Townsend, Jr., M. D., awarded to M. E. Hoyt.

For the best final examination in obstetrics, a case of instruments, given by Professor Boyd, awarded to J. M. Griffin.

For the best senior final examination a case of surgical instruments, given by Dr. T. W. Nellis, awarded to M. J. Thornton.

For the best final examination, first year student, a general operating case, given by Horace R. Powell of Poughkeepsie, awarded to J. Howard Branan.

For the best final examination, first year student, Gross' complete aseptic pocket case of instruments, given by A. B. Husted & Co., awarded to M. E. Hoyt.

The Alumni Association of the Albany Medical College held its annual meeting Wednesday morning, May 1, and was largely attended, many physicians coming from afar to be present at the meeting and the banquet which was held in the evening. Dr. Thomas D. Crothers, '65, of Hartford, Conn., president of the association, made a speech advocating the establishment in Albany of a college for the advanced study of medicine.

Dr. Crothers addressed the graduating class, giving them some excellent advice. The graduates were then elected members of the Alumni Association. Professor Cyrus S. Merrill made the address of welcome.

The prize of $100 in gold, given by Dr. Clarkson C. Schuyler of Plattsburg, for the best essay written by a graduate of the college, was awarded to Dr. H. Judson Lipes, who wrote on "The Influence of the Discovery of Bacteria on the Practice of Medicine Exclusive of Surgery."

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Clarkson C. Schuyler, '75, of Plattsburg; vice-presidents, I. F. Buckbee, '41, Fonda; Daniel C. Cook, '49, New York city; Nelson Everest, '81, Gloversville; Robert B. Lamb, '91, Dannemora; corresponding secretary, Andrew MacFarlane, '87, Albany; treasurer, Robert Babcock, '84, Albany; historian, Harry S. Pearse, '92, Albany. Four members of the executive committee to serve three years, John F. Reilly, '83, Rensselaer; Leo H. Neuman, '92, Albany; Harry L. K. Shaw, '96, Albany; Eugene E. Hinman, '99, Albany.

The following were appointed members of the committee on nominations: Drs. W. G. Tucker, '70; D. C. Case, '70; H. J. Lipes, '97; W. J. Nellis, '79; J. H. Mitchell, '81.

Every student at Yale is to be taxed annually for the support of the crew, track team, golf and tennis associations.

The Yale Debating Union, in order to further interest in its work, will adopt the plan of dividing its members into two parties, in the manner of the United States Senate. The Senate's procedure is to be followed. Harvard has tried this plan with great success.

MEETING OF THE TENNIS ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Tennis Association was held recently, the object of which was to consider the spring's work and to put the association on a firm basis. A constitution read by Prof. Eddy was adopted. The articles provide for dues of $1.00 per year and regulate the fees required of outsiders to play in any tournament. Rules are laid down for the use of courts by club members.

Officers were elected as follows: President of the association, Fraser Metzger, '02; Secretary-Treasurer, D. E. Griffith, '02; chairman of tournament committee, A. S. Raymond, '02; chairman of court committee, Prof. Eddy.

Two tournaments are provided for, one in the spring and one in the fall. Another court is to be put in shape as soon as possible. The officers are to be elected during the winter term to hold office for one year. The 1901 spring tournament will begin May 13.

The Annapolis crew has engaged Ten Eyck, the world's champion oarsman, as its head coach.

THIRD VICTORY FOR UNION.

Game Characterized by Loose Playing.

The campus was the scene of another game of the series of the N. Y. S. T. C. A. U. on May 3. Hobart was pitted against the Union aggregation. The game throughout was characterized by loose and careless playing on both sides. Owing to law school examinations, Witbeck, Delaney and Terry were unable to play. Mahar pitched for the first three innings and did good work, considering his first trial in the box. He shut out the visitors from scoring in the second inning. Parker and Mallery pitched the fourth and fifth innings respectively. Then Mahar went in for the sixth. Hobart had Foley and Foster in the box in the first inning. Rogers took their place for the rest of the game. The winning of this game gives Union two games won to her credit in the competition for the baseball pennant.

Chas. Burrows, Printer, 414 State Street, Schenectady, N. Y.

WHY should not Union University men have some distinguishing badge or pin? This is a need which has long been felt by all those who look forward to better University feeling, for the creating of a sentiment of loyalty to the University as one's Alma Mater and not to the particular school or department at which a student is an attendant, or of which he is a graduate. Each one of the Albany departments has a different device in the shape of a distinctive badge. Would not the adoption of a uniform University pin or emblem of some sort do more to foster cordial relations between the several departments than so many banquets or smokers? Other universities have such a button or pin, with their university initial on a background of their particular university color. Why should not some definite action be taken by Union men with the above object in view?

ANYONE who can handle a racket should join the Tennis Association immediately. The organization has been put on a strong basis and the management is doing all in its power to promote a higher order of tennis than has existed at Union for the past few years. Five courts are to be put in condition for playing so there is no excuse on account of lack of room, and the assessment is certainly within the reach of everyone.

THE classes of '71 and '76 will hold re-unions this year in celebration of the thirtieth and twenty-fifth anniversaries of their respective graduations. This paper has endeavored to secure as complete a list as possible of the doings of the members since their graduation. The fraternities have furnished the larger part of the information. Copies of this issue will be sent to every member of these classes who is living and whose address is known.

ONE phase of college life that is greatly neglected at Union and to which especial attention should be directed is the Young Men's Christian Association. This work is universally recognized as a very important factor in the college life of to-day. With the beautiful new building, the gift of a loyal alumnus, soon to be opened on the campus, this work cannot fail to arouse interest among the student body as never before. And in this connection mention might be made of the annual Northfield conference. The one to be held this year promises to be more successful than any held before, about six hundred students representing more than one hundred colleges of the United States and Canada have already registered. To anyone who has ever been at Northfield nothing need be said of the advantages to be obtained from a brief stay there but for those who have never had that pleasure and who are thinking at all of going it would be well for them to see the special committee in regard to this. Union for many years sent delegations and it is especially important this year that she have as large a number as possible present.

SENIOR CLASS SONG.

"We've gathered here to sing farewell
To Union's gray old walls,
But memories forever sweet
Our love for her recalls.
Of those who've left her classic gates,
Or those in years to come,
Her tablets can record no class
More true than Nineteen One."

Refrain.

"Union, Union, nineteen-one;
Union, Union, nineteen-one;
Union, Union, nineteen-one;
We sing a song of thee."

"We've smoked upon thy terrace fair,
As told in songs of yore;
We've wandered through thy sun flecked woods
And none can love thee more.
The whispering pines have heard us laugh,
The brook has heard us sigh;
With hopes and fears, with smiles and tears,
We softly sing good bye."

Refrain.

"And when the snows of after years
Have settled on our brow,
Tho' many will have sunk to sleep
Whose voice sings merry now,
May all who hold old Union dear—
Of those who still remain,
Come gather 'neath the great elm tree
To sing this old refrain."

Refrain.

—John H. Cook, 1901.

$25,000 Our Grand $25,000Ornithological Contest.

Something entirely new and interesting. Read what you are to do. You may get 1,000 dols. Our contest is to see who can make the largest list of names (or kinds) of birds from the following list of letters:

W D O O C C K Q U L I A P R T A R I D G
E S P N I E L V E B R D I M W A D O H T L

We will recognize as a bird anything belonging to the feathered tribe, whether it be a Hen, Crow, Singer or any other kind. You can use any letter as many times to make a name as it appears in the list of letters above; for instance, Woodcock, Plover, Snow Bird, etc. To any person who can make a list of 25 or more different names of birds, we will give absolutely FREE a beautiful prize, value 1,000 dols. or less.

BIG PRIZES AWARDED DAILY.

When you have made out your list fill out the line on the bottom of this advt. and send to us with a Stamped Addressed Envelope, stamp of your country will do; then if you are awarded a prize you can, if you desire, get the prize by becoming a subscriber to The Woman's World. We shall award a prize to every person who sends the name of 25 Birds, and our gifts will be as follows: For the best list, received each day, a Gold Watch; for the second best solution each day, a beautiful imported Tea Set; for the seven next best solutions each day, a Konrah Sakih Diamond and Ruby Ring; for the next best solution, a Gold Piece; and for all other correct solutions, Prizes of Good Value. These prizes will be forwarded daily; you will not have to wait a long time in uncertainty before you know the result. There is no element of lottery in our plan. It makes no difference whether we get your solution late or early in the day. All you need is to mail this advt. to us, and on the day it reaches us, if your list is the best, you shall have the Gold Watch, or if second best, the beautiful Tea Set, and so on. We guarantee that we will award you a prize. There is absolutely no opportunity for deception on our part—we cannot afford it. We want to get 1,000,000 well satisfied subscribers, and for that reason we don't want you to send any money until you know exactly what prize you have gained by answering the puzzles. As soon after 4 p. m. each day as possible, the examiners will judge the lists to the best of their ability, and will designate the prizes. We will write to you at once notifying you what prize has been awarded to you; then if you are satisfied, you can send your subscription to The Woman's World and your prize will go by return of mail carriage paid. To a person of narrow ideas it seems impossible that we should be able to make such a gigantic offer, but we have the money, brains and reputation. We know exactly what we are doing, and if we can legitimately gain a million subscribers by this grand idea we know that this million of well pleased subscribers can be induced to recommend The Woman's World to all friends, thereby building up our circulation still further. We are willing to spend 25,000 dols. in this contest in building up a big subscription list, and when this money is spent we reserve the right to publish a notification that the contest has been discontinued. Don't delay until it is too late. The contest will continue until July 1st, 1901.

We give a Bonus Prize of 250 dols., independent of all others, to the person who sends in the list gotten up in the best and handsomest manner. Our committee will decide and award prizes daily, but the special 250 dols. prizes will be awarded in September, 1901. Any bird's name found in the dictionaries accepted.

are particularly invited to call at our store and see the best line of nobby up-to-date Clothing ever shown up in this section. Big line of Rogers, Peet & Co's make just opened up—just as good as the best custom made clothing—and a mighty sight better than a lot of stuff panned off on a gullible public as custom-made, that we should be ashamed to offer to a man of ordinary intelligence. Come in and see our kind.
