CITY LIBRARY ON PASTURE FRONT.

$15,000 Contribution of General Electric Company Makes Selection of Site Possible.

The committee of the Free Public Library Association, consisting of Willis T. Hanson, A. L. Rohrer and Alonzo P. Strong, appointed to choose a site for the new building, met last Saturday afternoon and decided on the college pasture site, just east of a possible extension of Quackenbos street. The price to be paid is $12,000.

The difficulty of obtaining a suitable site on State street and a feeling that it would be better to have the building removed from the business section are the reasons for choosing this site. The development of the college grounds makes the site not so far removed from the centre of the city as would first appear. The proximity of the new High School building is a decided point in its favor and moreover that locality seems destined to become the intellectual centre of Schenectady.

The price for the site will be paid out of the $15,000 check sent by the General Electric Company to the committee last Thursday. The building to be erected will cost $50,000, a gift of Andrew Carnegie. The Common Council will appropriate $5,000 annually for the support of the library.

It is believed that there will be an open competition for plans for the new building. The new building will probably be of classical style or of the style of the Italian renaissance. It will be a relatively short time now before Schenectady will have a free library equal to that of any city of its size in the United States.

Cornell and Lehigh have inter-fraternity baseball games.

THE HONORARY CHANCELLOR.

Chief Justice Alton B. Parker of the Court of Appeals to Honor Union.

President Raymond makes the pleasing announcement that Chief Judge Parker of the Court of Appeals will deliver the honorary chancellor's address at the approaching commencement exercises. Judge Parker has always taken considerable interest in the welfare of the college. But two months ago he acted as one of the judges for the Allison-Foote prize debate.

Union's honorary chancellor has always been some distinguished personage. Last year it was the Hon. Whitelaw Reid of the "Tribune"; in '99, Dr. Hamilton W. Mabie of the "Outlook," and in '98 Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke.

RE-UNION OF '81.

Class Will Celebrate Twentieth Anniversary of Graduation in June.

The class of '81 will have an enthusiastic re-union on Alumni day, June 11th. A committee consisting of Frederick W. Cameron of Albany, Horatio G. Glen of Schenectady, Samuel P. McClellan of Troy, and Dr. Wm. M. White of Amsterdam, is engaged in an effort to locate all the graduates and secure their attendance commencement week.

The committee has so far outlined a simple and inexpensive plan which still permits of such expansion as the class desires. Headquarters will be established on the hill and at the Edison Hotel. An experience meeting of the full class will be held at which each member will be expected to describe his varying fortunes during the past twenty years. Letters will be read from those unable to be present. In the afternoon H. G. Glen will entertain the class at dinner at the Mohawk Club. Several other plans for entertainment are under consideration. It has been thought best not to publish an expensive class book but an address book with brief sketches of the various members of the class will be ready for distribution at the re-union. The material is in hand to expand this into a larger volume if desired.

A large number of favorable responses have been so far received to the committee's invitation. A few of the members have not been located as yet and the readers of the Concor- diensis are requested to aid the committee in its search. Information concerning the following men will be received with thanks. All letters should be addressed to Dr. William M. White, Amsterdam, N. Y.

FACULTY ATHLETIC RULES.

Regulations at Present Imposed Upon Members of Athletic Teams at Union.

The faculty has printed for the use of the students a complete set of the faculty regulations in regard to membership on the several athletic teams. They are as follows:

1. The managers of all athletic teams are required to submit to the Faculty for approval the names of all candidates for any college team.
2. No student shall be permitted to enter into any competition on both the football and baseball teams in the same college year, unless he sustains an average grade of seven in his class-room work, and incurs no conditions during the fall and winter terms.
3. No manager shall be permitted to compete on the team he manages. In competition on other teams Rule 2 shall apply, the manager being considered as a player.
4. No student shall be permitted to compete on any college team who has,
 - (a.) More than two conditions, including entrance conditions, conditions in Essays and Orations, and conditions in Chapel;
 - (b.) Any college condition of two terms' standing, or in process of removal in class under the college rule;
 - (c.) Any entrance condition unsatisfied after the first condition examination of Sophomore year.
5. No irregular student shall be a member of any college team.
6. Second teams shall, as regards games with non-Union teams, be under the same rules as those governing college or university teams.

Attention is called to the college rule regarding students marked N. Ex. in any subject. Failure to remove such deficiency by the next following condition examination changes the N. Ex. to N. S., that is to a regular condition, dating from the time of the original term examination.

CONCORDIENSIS, - $2.00 per Year, in Advance
Single Copies, - - - - 10 Cents

Address all communications to THE CONCORDIENSIS, Box 218, Schenectady, N. Y.

Chas. Burrows, Printer, 414 State Street, Schenectady, N. Y.

JOHN DENNETTE GUTHRIE, 1902, will be acting editor-in-chief of the Concordiensis for the next two weeks. Freshmen candidates will receive special assignments if they report to him.

THE 'Varsity will meet Rochester on the campus Saturday afternoon, provided the elements are willing. Every undergraduate should be present to encourage the nine in the opening game of the season.

DR. RAYMOND is to be complimented for securing Judge Parker as the honorary chancellor for 1901. The college and senior class are to be congratulated for the scholarly address that is certain to be given them. Another link will be forged in the chain of distinguished men who have acted in this capacity.

THE Concordiensis presents in this issue the individual histories of the members of Union's class which will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary on Alumni Day, June 11th. These histories, while not complete, are fairly accurate. The main information used in compiling them has been drawn from the fraternities, and from the alumni address list prepared by the secretary of the South College Dormitory Improvement committee. A copy of this issue will be sent to every living member of '51 in the hope that it may inspire a large attendance at the reunion. The Concordiensis feels that it is not necessary to assure '51 men a hearty welcome on the campus.

PAN-AMERICAN SPORTS.

A feature of the Pan-American Exposition games will be the Marathon road race. It will take place on July 4th. The run will be twenty-five miles in length: "One mile to be completed within the Stadium on the track, twenty-three in the country across roads, and the last mile to be completed on the track within the Stadium." Cups and trophies will constitute the prizes.

The games will include: World's championships, national handicap meeting, cross-country championships, gymnastic championships, the all-round championships together with water sports.

"Amateur games of all kinds will be particularly encouraged as representing the most desirable of athletic competitions. College sports will be an especial feature. The Pan-American Intercollegiate Track and Field meeting promises to be more national in character than any similar event ever held."

The games will open May 31 and continue throughout October. Football games will be played between representative college teams.

Pennsylvania's seventh annual relay races on Saturday promises to be one of the greatest race meets of the country.

AMERICAN SCHOOL OF CLASSICAL STUDIES IN ROME.

Splendid Opportunity Offered Americans Wishing to Pursue Classical Studies.

The resident staff of instructors in the American School of Classical Studies in Rome for the year 1901-1902 will consist of the Director, Professor Richard Norton, who has already had four years of service in the School, and of Professor Frank Frost Abbott, of the University of Chicago. The regular courses of instruction to be given are as follows:

By the Director,—

Ancient Archaeology and Art;

The Topography and Monuments of Ancient Rome:

By Professor Abbott,—

Latin Epigraphy;

Latin Palaeography.

The larger part of these lectures will be given in the field, or in the museums, in the presence of the objects discussed. There will be four exercises each week, from the opening of the School on October 15th to the time of the usual spring recess for archaeological excursions, about the middle of March, with a short recess during the Christmas season. Lectures will be resumed after the return of the students from Pompeii, about the middle of May, and will continue till the end of the School year, on the last day of June.

Besides these courses of lectures by the resident American instructors, briefer courses will be given at intervals during the year by specialists in several other departments of archaeology, as follows:

On Pompeii, and the collections from Pompeii and Herculaneum in the Royal Museum in Naples; probably by Professor Dr. Mau, of the German Archaeological Institute:

On the Catacombs of Rome and the Campagna; probably by Sig. Cav. Orazio Marucchi, Curator of the Egyptian Museum in the Vatican;

On Roman Numismatics; probably by Sig.

Cav. Camillo Serafini, Director of the Numismatic Cabinet of the Vatican.

In addition to these courses, the School usually has throughout the winter a lecture each week on some topic of current archaeological interest by one or another European scholar of prominence, and a continuance of this custom may be counted upon, though no program can be announced in advance.

The plan of the School is not to burden the student with so many lectures as to interfere with what is of supreme importance in a region like that of Rome, the objective study of existing monuments and other remains of antiquity. To assist in this study a considerable amount of time is also left free for excursions to places of archaeological interest in the neighborhood of Rome, and in other parts of Italy; and in the spring the students are encouraged to spend a number of weeks in visiting Greece and other archaeological sites outside of Italy. The annual course of lectures in Pompeii and vicinity, and in the Naples Museum, by Professor Mau, has proved one of the most important and valued adjuncts to the work of the School.

The fee for tuition in the School is $25 a year. This fee is remitted in the case of graduates of any of the institutions that cooperate in the support of the School, among which is Union College.

Two Fellowships in Classical Archaeology, of $600 each, and one in Christian Archaeology, of $500, are awarded annually, chiefly on the basis of competitive examination. The examinations for Fellowships for the year 1901-02 have already been held: the examinations for Fellowships for the year 1902-03 will be held March 18-20, 1902.

Bachelors of Arts, or other persons of marked qualifications, may be admitted as members of the School on submitting to the Director (Via Gaeta 2, Rome), or to the Chairman of the Managing Committee, Prof. Elmer Truesdell Merrill of Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., satisfactory evidence that their attainments are such as to enable them to make good use of the opportunities that the School offers. Special preparation for the work of the School may well be carried on in the line indicated by the list of books recommended for the study of candidates for Fellowships in vol. IV., Supplement, p. 149 of the American Journal of Archaeology, a copy of which number will be sent to any person interested on application to the Acting Chairman, or to DR. CLARENCE H. YOUNG, 312 West 88th Street, New York City.

SIDNEY G. ASHMORE,
Member of Managing Committee.

PRIZE ORATORICAL CONTESTS.

Trials for the Junior and Sophomore Stage Tuesday Evening.

The trials for the appointment of four men each on the Junior and Sophomore stage were held in the chapel Tuesday evening. The faculty committee which made the appointments was composed of Professors Hoffman, Ashmore and Jones. The speakers and their subjects were as follows: From 1902 were Adams on "Negro Disenfranchisement"; J. E. Finnegan on "The Progress of Civilization in the United States"; W. H. Gillespie on "A Truly Successful Life"; N. G. Hannay on "The Spirit of Progress"; D. C. Hawkes on "Individual Opinion"; H. M. Parsons on "Bismarck—His Life and Work," and from 1903, R. C. Donnan on "Popular Favor"; J. G. Fenster on "Duty and Destiny of the United States"; L. T. Hunt on "Spirit of the Times"; G. Parker on "The South and its Treatment of the Negro."

The appointments were made immediately at the close of the speaking and were of the Juniors: Adams, Gillespie, Hannay and Hawkes. The four Sophomores were appointed.

Cornell and Syracuse have broken off all athletic relations. Cornell is not satisfied with the athletic regulations of Syracuse or of the amateur status of her athletes. Syracuse denies every accusation.

THE DEVIL'S OWN FRATERNITY.

Law School Men Hold Monthly Banquet.

The monthly dinner of the above named fraternity was held at the Ten Eyck on Saturday, April 20th. Dinner was served at 8 P. M. in the private dining room off the Mezzanine gallery, covers being laid for ten. In addition to the members of the club the following gentlemen were present as guests: Messrs. R. J. Hawkins, G. B. McCartie and J. R. Brady of the Junior Class.

During the course of the evening the following toasts were proposed and responded to: "The Dean, Faculty and Members of the Albany Law School," the president, Mr. Rothary. "The Guests of the Evening," Messrs. Melvin T. Bender and J. R. Brady. "The Devil's Own Fraternity," Messrs. G. B. McCartie and Knapp. "The New Members," Messrs. E. Conway and E. Hutchens.

Subsequently the club was entertained by an excellently arranged program of music, etc. At the earlier business meeting arrangements were made for the concluding dinner of the year at which representatives from the various university departments will be present. A committee was also appointed to arrange for a theatre party to be given in the near future.

The fraternity is in a most flourishing condition, its membership limit having already been reached, and it is to be congratulated upon supplying a long felt lack in the social life of the school by bringing together at its public meetings, for pleasurable intercourse, members of the Law department and representatives of the other branches of the University's activities.

THE WEST POINT TRIP.

The game with West Point last Saturday had to be given up on account of rain. When the nine left for down the river the weather seemed favorable, but heavy showers set in shortly after its arrival. Manager Kline reports a small loss. A rain guarantee had been secured.

SCHENECTADY SHOULD DO IT.

Editorial from Schenectady "Daily Union."

For more than a century Union College has had its home in the city of Schenectady, contributing directly to the intelligence, prosperity and fair fame of the city. When a few years ago a proposition was submitted to the legislature, looking toward the removal of the college to a neighboring city, it aroused the spontaneous, vigorous and successful opposition of our citizens, showing their appreciation of what the presence of the college meant to Schenectady. Beyond this protest, however, little or nothing has ever been done to show that the city cared for the college.

There is no building on the campus, no endowed professorship, not even an endowed scholarship, to bear witness to the practical interest of any citizen or citizens of Schenectady in the institution which was for many years the chief glory of our city. It may be questioned whether a parallel to this can be found in all the history of American institutions. Surely the time has come to remove this reproach. No city in the state is today more prosperous than Schenectady. It ought to be possible to raise at once, and with little effort, a sum of money to meet some one or more of the most pressing needs of the college. There is no reason why Union College should not, under present conditions, move rapidly forward. It only requires that a start should be made and who are so interested in effecting this as our own citizens?

One of the most evident needs of the college today is better dormitory facilities. Until these are provided, students who might otherwise come to Union will turn to other institutions. A new dormitory building would prove a great attraction. It would cost, let us say, $50,000. If this amount seems beyond our ability, then let our citizens take up the proposition recently made to renovate and remodel the South College dormitory. This will call for not more than $15,000. That sum is easily within our reach. Why cannot a committee be organized to carry the project forward? We believe that the class of '99 originated it, and began to urge it with youthful enthusiasm. While the members of that class are now scattered, we do not doubt that they would be glad to co-operate in every possible way with a local committee undertaking to carry forward this work. Something should be done and done at once.

The Union invites suggestions and offers its services freely to any undertaking that promises to help the college.

INTERCOLLEGIATE.

None of the colleges will follow the new baseball rules for 1901 adopted by the National League. The New York State Professional League has adopted the new rules with certain modifications.

Columbia will soon have a cooperative store under the general supervision of the faculty. The establishment will sell books, stationery, etc., for the benefit of the students at a discount of from 10 to 25 per cent from the catalogue prices. Cornell has a similar establishment.

The students of Rutgers College have by vote abolished the cane rush. A suggestion that it be kept up with picked teams was also voted down. The committee of undergraduates suggested the adoption of the rope rush, the teeth of war and the cane spree, but the question of a substitute was left over until next term.

A number of recent college graduates residing in Albany met last Friday evening and decided to form a university club. The project has been under consideration for some time and last Friday evening it was fairly started. A temporary organization was effected and an executive committee appointed to look after the details of permanent organization.

SCHENECTADY GAME POSTPONED.

Rain prevented the game scheduled with the Schenectady State League nine at the Driving Park Wednesday afternoon. It was postponed and will probably be cancelled.

CAMPUS NOTES.

Senior caps and gowns have arrived.

Examinations for the removal of conditions will be held May 4.

The students cordially welcome Rider, '03, back to undergraduate life.

The contractors have begun to lay the foundation of the Chi Psi house.

Hiram C. Todd, '97, was on the hill last week visiting Delta Phi friends.

Prof. Perkins spoke on the "Evolution of Morals" at the People's Forum last Sunday.

Otis F. Lewis led the Y. M. C. A. meeting Tuesday evening. The subject was "Christian Obedience."

Lester W. Bloch, 1902, attended a district convention of Beta Theta Pi at St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y., April 18 and 19.

Rev. E. J. Lee, the general secretary of the Students Church Missionary Society, spoke to Episcopal students in the Y. M. C. A. rooms Thursday evening.

Prof. Hoffman spoke on "State Aid to Education" at the People's Forum last Sunday, and Dr. Stoller on "The Two Fundamental Laws of Life" before the Labor Lyceum.

The golf links in the pasture are well patronized by student lovers of the sport. The pasture affords an opportunity to get in some preliminary work before the opening of the Schenectady Golf Club's links.

Walter E. Kruesi, 1903, was the delegate from the Beta chapter at the 23d annual convention of Pi-Phi held in New York city last week. Paul J. Kreusi, 1900, was elected grand treasurer of this preparatory school fraternity.

The running track is now in first class shape. Two of the tennis courts have been leveled and rolled down. A little playing will give them the necessary hardness. Here is a splendid opportunity to develop skill in a most popular American sport.

F. H. Drees, '04, and R. F. Howe, '03, will leave for Buffalo the latter part of this month where they will be identified with the "Venice in America" attraction at the Pan-American exposition. This feature stands foremost from an artistic and architectural point of view, and lovers of fine art are promised an exceptionally rare treat at this concession.

$25,000 Our Grand $25,000Ornithological Contest.

Something entirely new and interesting. Read what you are to do. You may get 1,000 dols. Our contest is to see who can make the largest list of names (or kinds) of birds from the following list of letters:

W D O O C C K Q U L I A P R T A R I D G
E S P N I E L V E B R D I M W A D O H T L

We will recognize as a bird anything belonging to the feathered tribe, whether it be a Hen, Crow, Singer or any other kind. You can use any letter as many times to make a name as it appears in the list of letters above; for instance, Woodcock, Plover, Snow Bird, etc. To any person who can make a list of 25 or more different names of birds, we will give absolutely FREE a beautiful prize, value 1,000 dols. or less.

BIG PRIZES AWARDED DAILY.

When you have made out your list fill out the line on the bottom of this advt. and send to us with a Stamped Addressed Envelope, stamp of your country will do; then if you are awarded a prize you can, if you desire, get the prize by becoming a subscriber to The Woman's World. We shall award a prize to every person who sends the name of 25 Birds, and our gifts will be as follows: For the best list, received each day, a Gold Watch; for the second best solution each day, a beautiful imported Tea Set; for the seven next best solutions each day, a Konrah Sakih Diamond and Ruby Ring; for the next best solution, a Gold Piece; and for all other correct solutions, Prizes of Good Value. These prizes will be forwarded daily; you will not have to wait a long time in uncertainty before you know the result. There is no element of lottery in our plan. It makes no difference whether we get your solution late or early in the day. All you need is to mail this advt. to us, and on the day it reaches us, if your list is the best, you shall have the Gold Watch, or if second best, the beautiful Tea Set, and so on. We guarantee that we will award you a prize. There is absolutely no opportunity for deception on our part—we cannot afford it. We want to get 1,000,000 well satisfied subscribers, and for that reason we don't want you to send any money until you know exactly what prize you have gained by answering the puzzles. As soon after 4 p. m. each day as possible, the examiners will judge the lists to the best of their ability, and will designate the prizes. We will write to you at once notifying you what prize has been awarded to you; then if you are satisfied, you can send your subscription to The Woman's World and your prize will go by return of mail carriage paid. To a person of narrow ideas it seems impossible that we should be able to make such a gigantic offer, but we have the money, brains and reputation. We know exactly what we are doing, and if we can legitimately gain a million subscribers by this grand idea we know that this million of well pleased subscribers can be induced to recommend The Woman's World to all friends, thereby building up our circulation still further. We are willing to spend 25,000 dols. in this contest in building up a big subscription list, and when this money is spent we reserve the right to publish a notification that the contest has been discontinued. Don't delay until it is too late. The contest will continue until July 1st, 1901.

We give a Bonus Prize of 250 dols., independent of all others, to the person who sends in the list gotten up in the best and handsomest manner. Our committee will decide and award prizes daily, but the special 250 dols. prizes will be awarded in September, 1901. Any bird's name found in the dictionaries accepted.
