Daniel F. Imrie, Union, '06, and former editor of the Concordiensis, has come forth from the wilds of Lake George and has joined the Senior Class.

Professorships in the Albany Medical College have been assigned to the following men:

Arthur G. Root, M.D., Professor of Diseases of Nose and Throat.

Andrew MacFarlane, Professor of Medical Jurisprudence and Physical Diagnosis.

Leo H. Neuman, M.D., Professor of Gastro-Enteric Diseases.

COLLEGE MEETING

Last Monday's college meeting was opened by the singing of the Terrace Song. Vice President Hoffman took charge of the meeting, and the regular business started when Captain McNab gave an account of the Middlebury-Union football game at Middlebury the preceding Saturday. Captain McNab graphically but briefly described the difficulties of playing on Middlebury's slippery gridiron, as unfavorable for both sides, but, owing to Middlebury's familiarity with the conditions, being slightly to their advantage.

Meade, '09, then brought up the proposition of changing the Sophomore Soiree to a Junior Prom, advocating as his reason that the main feature of Junior week should be a function given under the auspices of that class. He proposed a resolution to that effect. Upon request from the Seniors, Stewart, '10, speaking for the Sophomores, asked that the matter be laid upon the table for a week till the Sophomore class could discuss it in meeting. The resolution was thereupon tabled.

Kline, '08, closed the meeting with a little talk on the conditions that the students of the Albany Departments have to face in promoting college spirit. He proposed that the Union College Department make special efforts to get the students from Albany to take an active interest in the football games this fall, and infuse some of the Union spirit into their blood.

SENIOR CLASS MEETING

A Senior class meeting was called on Thursday afternoon for the purpose of electing two men into the Terrace Council, as was delegated by the Class of 1907. Immediately upon the calling of the meeting a vote was taken for the members to be elected into the Council, and the highest number of votes cast were for Captain McNab of the football team and Captain-elect Hildreth of the baseball team.

Hildreth, in reporting for the Moore Memorial Committee, said that definite word had not yet been received from the manufacturer of bronze tablets, but that he was daily expecting a reply to his inquiries on the subject. If the matter can be pushed through in time it is the intention of the committee to have appropriate unveiling exercises next month, upon the anniversary of Moore's death two years ago on the N.Y.U. football field.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Vesper service, Sunday, 5 o'clock.

Dr. Fred Winslow Adams will speak on the subject Friendship. Dr. Adams is one of the most popular ministers in the city. He has given several Sunday afternoon talks at Silliman Hall which have been greatly appreciated.

Tuesday evening meeting, 7 o'clock.

H. W. Bell, '08, will give the second talk of the series on The Price of Being Poor. Dean Ripton's Bible class follows at 7:30.

COLLEGE BRIEFS

Official notice of Union's readmission to the New York State Intercollegiate League was received by Dr. MacComber on Wednesday. Union is eligible, if she desires to compete for the football pennant of the league this fall.

Bayless, '09, who has been confined to the house with pneumonia for over a month, is expected back very shortly.

The new smoke stack has been put into position over the heating plant and will be put into commission soon.

It is rumored that the Schenectady High School authorities are trying to secure the President's house as an annex to the High School, until other quarters can be built to accommodate the overflow of students.

The College Board of Governors met Wednesday at Albany, transacting merely routine business. As yet there are no immediate prospects of a permanent president for Union.

A new set of bleachers was put into position on the Library side of the campus Thursday, thereby doubling the seating capacity on that side.

GET A MEGAPHONE FOR THE GAMES. AND YELL.

Davies, '08, and McCormick, '09, spent part of the week at Minneapolis as the delegates of the Union Chapter to the national convention of Delta Upsilon held at Minnesota University.

"Pud" Harvey, captain of last year's baseball team, spent a few days in town during the week.

"Johnny" Flowers, last year's captain of the track team, has re-entered college, after an absence of three weeks.

Among the 'Varsity players that were laid out by temporary injuries during the week were Tompkins, Nellis and McNab.

At Sophomore class meeting it was found that the members were about evenly divided on the question of changing the Sophomore soiree to a Junior Prom. When the question comes up for vote in chapel meeting Monday there will without doubt be some interesting discussion on the matter.

The Garnet Board reports daily progress. Literary matter is flowing in in large streams, so that Editor Meade of the department does not know how to handle the rush.—And then he woke up.

Freshman class colors were decided upon as brown and garnet. This decision is only tentative until samples can be secured, but it will probably be made final.

Practically all of the pictures of the various classes have been taken for the Garnet—the Freshmen included.

Great are the preparations that are being made to settle the doubtful result of the cane rush by a football game on the twenty-fifth—or later. The Freshman team is the more fully organized and has elected a captain, Baker. The Sophomores are occasionally represented by three or four men on the practice field.

The Idol received a baptism of paint on Wednesday evening. A Sophomore provided the main entertainment of the evening by falling into the ditch in front of the Freshman God.

The Pyramid Club smoker held on Thursday evening was a great success. A number of old alumni were present, and many toasts were given. McClenahan, Lewis and Bryan from the Albany Law School attended the function.

ALUMNI NOTES

✓ 1840—A new low priced edition of Lewis H. Morgan's famous work, "Ancient Society," or "Researches in the Line of Human Progress," has been recently issued by Charles H. Kerr and Co. of Chicago.

✓ 1841—Augustus W. Cowles, D.D., LL.D., President Emeritus of Elmira, New York, Female College, has been granted a pension from the Carnegie Fund for retiring College Presidents.

✓ 1845—Charel Bartlett Warring, founder of the Poughkeepsie Military Institute, and one of the oldest educators in this state, died at his home in Poughkeepsie at the age of eighty-two, on July fourth last. He was born at Charlton, N. Y., graduating from Union in 1845 with an A.B. degree, and receiving the degree of Ph.D. from New York University four years later.

Dr. Warring taught Latin, Greek and mathematics in the Collegiate School of Poughkeepsie, later becoming principal, a position which he held until 1863, when he resigned to organize the Military School. Dr. Warring was a member of the Victoria Institute of London, and of the American Academy of Sciences. He was the author of "Mosaic Account of Creation" and "The Miracle of Today" as well as other works.

✓ 1860—The Hon. Warner Miller was the donor, and his son, Burr C. Miller, the sculptor of the statue of General Nicholas Herkimer, which was unveiled at Herkimer, N. Y., on April 6, 1907, the one hundredth anniversary of the incorporation of Herkimer as a village.

✓ 1870—John F. Genung returned to his duties as professor of English at Amherst this term, after an extended tour of the Holy Land.

✓ 1870—The American Midland Railway Company with $60,000,000 capital stock, and headquarters at Guthrie, Okla., has been chartered for the purpose of building a mammoth north and south line from Langdon, N. D., through the Oakotas southward through Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Indian Territory and Texas to Galveston, a distance of 2,100 miles. Two branch lines are provided, one from Winnsboro, Tex., to Shreveport, La., the other from Coal Gate, I. T., to Poteau, I. T. Edwin Van Antwerp is chief engineer of this gigantic scheme, and has been in the field for months making the surveys.

✓ 1883—John W. Adams is Judge of the Circuit Court for the County of Kalamazoo, Mich.

✓ 1884—Frederick Zadok Rooker, Roman Catholic bishop of Jaro, Iloilo, P. I., died early in September from paralysis of the brain. Bishop Rooker had been in the Philippines four years, and was the first American bishop of the diocese. He was a native of New York state and was educated at the schools of Albany and at Union College. His father and uncle, both of whom were connected with the New York Tribune, destined him for journalism, but the young man decided to enter the priesthood and left college for Rome without waiting to take a degree. He was later made an alumnus of the institution. At Rome he entered the American College in 1883. Within two years he received a Ph.D. degree, and in 1889 he was made Doctor of Theology by the Propaganda. He was also chosen vice rector of the American College.

In 1894, near the close of the year, he was sent from Rome to the Apostolic Delegation at Washington, D. C., and the following year he became its secretary. He held this appointment until 1903, when he was made Bishop of Jaro. As secretary of the legation, he was the only English speaking member, and his responsibilities on this account alone were unusual. He was made Chamberlain to the Pope in 1901, an honorary position bestowed in recognition of his service. His See in the Philippines was one of the most important in the Islands, and some of the most prominent educational institutions were conducted within his jurisdiction.

In 1895 his Alma Mater honored him with the degree of D.D. Dr. Rooker was a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity.

✓ 1897—Benjamin Albert Burtiss of Schenectady, and Miss Mary Hill Reynolds, of North Adams, Mass., were united in marriage at the Trinity Episcopal Church of North Adams on Monday afternoon, July 22, 1907. Mr. and Mrs. Burtiss reside at 3 Stratford Road, Schenectady.

✓ 1896—Andrew T. G. Wemple is running for re-election as Police Justice of the City of Schenectady, on the Democratic ticket.

✓ —Alexander T. Blessing is running for City Judge of Schenectady on the Democratic ticket.

✓ —Marvin H. Strong is running for City Judge of Schenectady on the Republican ticket. Mr. Strong graduated from Harvard Law School in 1899.

✓ 1897—School Commissioner Wingate has been asked by the State Department of Education to act as instructor at a number of teachers' institutes this fall in many parts of the state. Part of his work will be among the rural teachers, the State Department having divided the Institute work into two divisions, rural and high school. Among the places to which he will probably be called are Saugerties, Margaretville and Windham, and among the subjects upon which he will speak are "The Rural School and Surroundings" and "Suggestions on Geography."

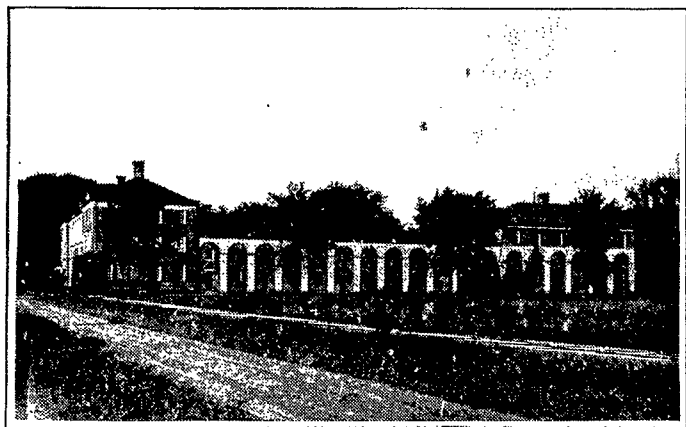

1899—William F. H. Breeze has accepted the principalship of the Lowville Academy and Superintendency of the public school system of that village.

✓ 1902—James Quinlan Gulnac, of Norris Arm, N. F., was married to Miss Mary Rathbone Patton, of Rensselaer, at the Second Presbyterian Church of Albany on Thursday evening, October 10. Dr. Raymond conducted the wedding ceremony. The bride is a sister of Frederick Curtiss Patton, '05. Mr. and Mrs. Gulnac will reside in Newfoundland.

✓ 1903—Henry A. Pearce is pastor of the Congregational Church of Savannah, N. Y.

—Lewis F. Schroeder is in business at Helena, Montana.

✓ 1907—Earl Ewan Harvey was married on Tuesday afternoon, June 25th, to Miss Jane Comstock, in the First Presbyterian Church of Schenectady. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey are residing at Seneca Falls, N. Y., where Mr. Harvey holds a position with the Seneca Falls Pump Company.

"Home, Sweet Home."

"'Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home."

Probably very few of the undergraduates of Union College are aware that the poet who wrote this charming little poem so familiar to us all, spent some of the happiest days of his youth in Schenectady as a student in the same college which we all hope sometime to call our Alma Mater. And undoubtedly still fewer know that just a century has elapsed since he was here.

John Howard Payne, to be sure, never entered Old Union's Blue Gate, nor walked under its stately elms, nor sat upon the time-honored Terrace; for in 1907 Union was still in its first home, the old "Academy" at the corner of Union and North College Streets.

His expenses while at college were met by a Mr. Seaman, a philanthropic gentleman who had become interested in Payne at an early age. Charles Brockden Brown, the celebrated American novelist, was also active in his behalf and accompanied him to Schenectady. He was introduced by another friend to President Nott, who always showed him the greatest kindness, although the President was often greatly worried over Payne's escapades, which would almost fill a book.

While here at college Payne edited "The Pastime," the first Union College student periodical. The college fellows were great patrons of his paper and gave it their hearty support, which, along with Payne's literary ability, ensured great success to his undertaking. He was very popular at college, perhaps more so with the student body than with the faculty. He was an officer in one of the literary societies and was master of ceremonies at dramatic performances, which were frequently given in the Chapel.

After only two terms of college life he had to leave Union and all the dear associations connected with it in order to support his father, who had become bankrupt after his wife's death. This young Payne tried to do by his dramatic ability, for there flowed in his blood an inborn love for the actor's profession. He won a wide reputation as an actor and playwright, but his was a checkered career. He met with severe reversals of fortune. It was while he was living impoverished in a dismal attic in Paris that he composed the sweet little song, "Home, Sweet Home," a poem which alone will preserve the name of John Howard Payne from oblivion.

Later fortune favored him again and he was appointed United States consul to Tunis, Africa. Here he died in 1852, away from his homeland and without a home. In this Fate seemed to be unkind to him, for he who had yearned for a "Home, Sweet Home," never, after his boyhood days, had a place which he could, in the true meaning of the word, call home.

CUR IMPROVEMENTS

Our Board of Trustees has taken a step in the proper direction in providing for the improvement of the college grounds and buildings more definitely than has been done before. The various changes to be noted this fall are all in the line of progress.

But it seems to us, without trying to localize the blame, that we are still existing in a condition that is somewhat removed from Utopian. This might be assigned to many causes, but whatever they are, there seems to be no reason why they should continue to exist.

We all appreciate the attempt to beautify the various class rooms, and will pass without comment the temporary aberration undergone by certain decorations, believing the trouble to lay with the decorator rather than with the committee that placed the order. Still we cannot admire the beautiful colors of the green, blue, brown and carmine burlap as we would like because of the ill-fitting accompaniment of windows that have not known the sight of water as a cleaning agent for months, to say the least.

We look to view the beauties of our campus from the outside, but in looking in from Union Street or Union Avenue, our gaze finds difficulty in surmounting the barrier of unkempt-looking weeds that provides a boarder for the campus, and we become somewhat disengaged of our thoughts on the higher culture when we wonder whether the fence by Prexy's house fell down in toto, or if a few remnants of it were left as reminders of its by-gone beauty.

Then there is the Terrace Wall in a state of senile decay in many places, and a few other little trifles of disorder to be noted here and there. None of these things are of great moment, but added together they make a poor impression upon the casual visitor, and to the world in general outside of the college. It seems as if some Power could be unearthed with the authority to clean windows, trim out weeds, put in electric lights for the dark places on the campus, and brace up the old Terrace Wall with a few, well-placed stones.

Furthermore we think that it is for the best interests of the college that the Power get busy and tends to a few of these little things, if it does not detract the Power's attention in too great a degree from the Important Affairs of the world.

SCRAPS

We are sorry that we are not able to agree with the ideas advanced by A Student in our Correspondents' Column this week. It rather looks as if A Student had not been here for very many moons, or he would have noticed times when upperclassmen were very anxious to see a scrap. This year the upperclassmen have been very mild in their desire for excitement, and have not missed much in not seeing the two classes get together in conflict oftener than has been the case.

We cannot help agreeing with Mr. MacComber on this point. It seems that the best way to express interclass rivalry is to play some legitimate contest for supremacy, and it really seems as if the entire upper class representation, in spite of A Student's pessimistic view, is of the same opinion.

OUR PRINTER

Next week will be the last time the Concordiensis will make its appearance from the press of the Schenectady Gazette. The reason for this is very simple, when the inside facts are known—the Gazette is going to go out of the job printing business, to make room for the better publication of the daily paper. Just what the outcome of this will be is problematic as yet. Our Manager is out hunting for new publishers, and hopes to make satisfactory arrangements somewhere so that publication will not be suspended.

We sever connections with the job department of the Gazette with regret. From our experience we know that it will be hard to get anyone to handle the paper with one-half the accuracy and promptness that has marked our experience with that paper. But we'll try to give you just as good a paper anyway.

CORRESPONDENTS' COLUMN.

(No Anonymous Communications Considered).

To the Editor of The Concordiensis:

Dear Sir:—Several times this term there has been danger of a Sophomore-Freshman scrap, as the classes were leaving chapel. This is contrary to the agreement which the classes made last year to the effect that there should be no inter-class demonstrations in the chapel.

It is a significant fact that the upperclassmen have been very anxious to see the underclassmen scrap, and they have been trying to persuade the Frosh to start a chapel rush. This is contrary to good college spirit as it was evinced last spring. It behooves the upperclassmen to keep up the proper kind of spirit and to promote good feeling between Faculty and Students at Old Union.

A STUDENT.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT

Union, 0; Middlebury, 0.

Union's second tie game of the season was played at Middlebury, Vt., on Saturday, Oct. 12.

The game was played on a field which included a baseball diamond made of clay—the rest of the field was also clay, with blades of grass sprinkled here and there for purely decorative purposes. Rain had fallen on the field nearly every day for two weeks. We do not ask you to imagine how muddy the field was; it was beyond any poetic flight of fancy.

Middlebury kicked off at 3:05 P.M. Riggs carried the ball back to our 20 yard line. A fake punt was tried, but Union lost 10 yards on it. Riggs punted 40 yards. Middlebury brought the ball back to Union's 25 yard line and then tried the forward pass, which failed. Middlebury was penalized 15 yards. McNab received the punt, but was downed in his tracks on our 10 yard line. Riggs punted 45 yards and Fisher made a free catch. Wright tackled him and Middlebury was given ten yards.

Fisher failed on a free try from placement and Riggs punted from our 25 yard line. Fisher brought the ball well back into Union's territory, where it was lost again. Union punted and Middlebury made another free try for goal from placement, but was again unsuccessful. The play of this half was all inside of Union's 45 yard line except in the last five minutes. Union carried the ball to the center of the field and then punted. Fisher missed the catch and a Union man fell on the ball.

End runs worked well on the right of the line and the ball was carried to Middlebury's 20 yard line, where it was lost on a fumble. Middlebury punted out of danger and time was called with the ball in the center of the field.

The Second Half.

There was more punting in the second half, the Middlebury backs returning the punts much better than the Union men, with the result that Middlebury soon had a chance for another free try from placement. This time the ball missed the goal only by about a foot.

In this half both Union and Middlebury put in substitutes and the play was livened up for a time, but as it is hard to kick against the pricks, so is it hard to wear cleated shoes in clay mud. Thus the spirit soon died down again.

Union had a good chance to score in this half and perhaps would have done so on a dry field.

The game ended with the ball on Middlebury's 40 yard line.

Riggs punted well, each punt averaging 5 yards better than Fisher's, but the Middlebury backs returned the ball farther each time because Union's ends were not down under the punts. Peck, Knight and Lefferts (line men), very often tackled the man who was running back the punt.

Lefferts, Peck, and Nellis played the best game for Union. Fisher, Carter, Winslow and Lovejoy were the stars for Middlebury.

Today Rutgers will meet Union on the campus. The game will be a hard one from comparative scores, as Rutgers has scored on Swarthmore and Lehigh. The score of the Swarthmore game was 29-5, and the same Swarthmore team held Pennsylvania to 16-8 on Pennsy's own field.

Fall Track Work

Track work this fall has not commanded the same degree of attention this year from the students that it did last year. The reinstallation of football is the primary cause of this, but still, every day there is a good crowd of men out on the track practicing their events for the fall meets, which will start soon.

The greatest difficulty has been to get the men from the three upper classes to respond to the call for track workers. A number of new candidates entirely eclipses the attendance of last year's point winners. From the Freshman class there are no particular shining stars, yet, on the whole, they promise to develop into a well-rounded team.

Of last year's track team, Dunn, who made such a record for himself, is not back this season. There has been a persistent rumor that he was attending Syracuse University this fall. This is, however, not the case. Dr. MacComber has recently had a letter from Dunn, saying that circumstances forced him to remain out of college for a year, but that his heart was with the fellows back in Old Union. He will return next fall as a member of the Class of 1911.

For this fall the following schedule of meets has been arranged by Dr. MacComber and Captain Parsons of the track team:

Thursday, Oct. 31, 4:15 P.M.—Novice meet, open to all Freshmen and to upper classmen who have not been awarded the "U" or a.U.a. in track athletics. Events: 50 yard dash, 440 yard run, 880 yard run, 1 mile run, running high jump.

Class relay race, 2 laps, teams of 4, open to all classes.

Badges will be given to the 1st, 2nd and 3rd places except in relay race. Badges will be given to the winning team in relay race.

Friday, Nov. 8, 4:15 P.M.—Class meet No. 1. Events: 100 yard dash, 440 yard run, 1 mile run, 100 yard low hurdles (over 4 hurdles), running high jump, 12 pound shot put, relay race, 2 laps, 1910 vs. 1911, teams of 4.

Points to count 5, 3, 2, 1. Badges will be given to winners of 1st, 2nd and 3rd places, except in relay race. A banner will be given to the class winning the relay race.

Friday, Nov. 15, 4:15 P.M.—Class meet No. 2. Events: 220 yard dash, 880 yard run, 2 mile run, 12 pound hammer, pole vault, running broad jump, class relay race, 4 laps, teams of 4. Points to count as in class meet No. 1. Badges will be given in all events. A banner will be given to the class winning the most points in the two meets.

Class numerals will be awarded to anyone who shall win three or more points in the class meets.

RTGERS LINEUP

The Rutgers lineup for the game today will be:

Rutgers was defeated on Wednesday by Lehigh, by a score of 16-6, Lehigh's first touchdown being purely accidental. Rutgers worked a clever fake kick for a forward pass and a good gain.

POETRY

Little drops of mortar,
Little grains of sand,
Don't keep C. B.'s new steam pipes
From leaking to heat the band.

Little slabs of burlap,
Little daubs of paint,
Make the prof's new class rooms
Look like what they ain't.

But when the burlap tumbles
And leaves the old walls bar',
Then the prof's old class rooms
Look like what they are.

Two Jokes.

(Garnet Please Copy.)

1. A dignified Member of the class of 1910, who takes peculiar delight in flaunting in the eyes of the populace a fob emblazoned with the inscription "UNION, 1910," had his pride severely humbled last summer.

It happened that the aforesaid dignified (?) Member of the class of 1910 received an appointment to a state position. In his "gang" were a number of unnaturalized voters from sunny "It." The dignified Member wore his fob in its usual conspicuous place, without apparently filling the sons of the soil with any great degree of awe. One day, however, he was approached by one of the red shirted dirt slingers, whose face was agleam with the knowledge of a weighty problem solved at last, as he said:

"I knowa. You de bossa de worka man Union, number 1910—si?"

The Member thereupon salted down the fob till he returned to Union this fall—and he's not the boss, either.

2. The Senior slumbered. The Professor proceeded with the recitation. He asked the slumbering Senior a question, and here is the conversation:

Prof.—Now, Mr. —, tell us, is mind present in animals?

Senior (stirring slightly in his sleep)—I—a—

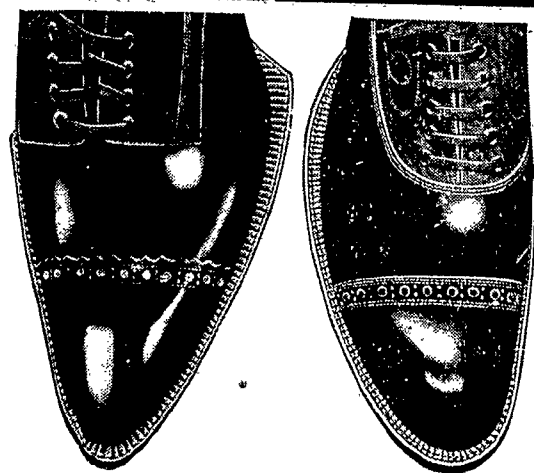

P.—In other words, the question is, "Do animals think?"

S.—(Waking up)—Yes, that's the question.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK OF OCT. 11-18

(As gleaned from the Diary of John Evelyn, Jr., an earnest Stude at Union College).

Saturday, Oct. 12—The football team gives a demonstration of its swimming abilities at Middlebury. The Studes discuss dead Glory over the bier.

Sunday, Oct. 13—After attending Devine service all prepare for the week's siege.

Monday, Oct. 14—Dr. Barnes notes remarkable team work exhibited by the Freshman German Class.

Tuesday, Oct. 15—Heinie paralyzes the Hill with a dissertation on "The Price of—Poverty."

Wednesday, Oct. 16—Underclassmen wake from their state of coma and the Idol is re-decorated.

Thursday, Oct. 17—Class photographer announces that the above noted performance must be repeated, as no official pictures were taken. Heated class meeting.

Friday, Oct. 18—Freshman class meeting. Colors for jersey—green, yellow and garnet, adopted. Choir renders "What Will the Harvest Be." Sophomore team practices football. Wilbur and Stewart show improvement.

Saturday morning, Oct. 19—Earnest studes are on the anxious seat at even money. Hoffy's decorations, after an infusion of Peruna consent to be restuck.

COLLEGE SHIELDS VERY POPULAR

At all the larger colleges the college shield has become very prominent. In most all the fraternity houses you will see prominently displayed the representative emblem, while a visit to the students' quarters the centre of decoration is usually the University emblem or their favorite fraternity. These shields are of the higher grade order; the emblems are etched on heavy copper plate, then mounted on a solid piece of oak finished in mission style. For one to thoroughly appreciate their beauty it would be necessary to see them. They are carried in stock at the Gleason Book Co., on State, near Centre St., and retail for five dollars.

If nature hasn't built you as well as you'd like, suppose you let begin where she left off. Fashioned to make bad figures good, and good figures better. Made the way you'd have 'em if you chose the cloths and the cut, and the patterns. Just as good as the tailor's best, and much more convenient, because you escape measurements, try-ons, delays and the gambling chance that the garment will come out right. Not only for young men, but for men who are willing to look younger.

The College Man's Favorite Store

"Varsity" chaps hereabout are ducedly partial to Holtzmann's douter-know—they like the little "quips" and turns (if we may be allowed the expression) in Tailorcraft that makes their ready-for-wear gorments for fresh, middler, soph and seniors so typically collegian. Boys, we just want to say that your favorite store is ready to make you look every inch the college man. You know quite well that college cut clothes are the characteristic of the College spirit. No young man can be said to be thoroughly inoculated with the indefinable exuberance who is lax in this particular. The rah! rah! rah! cannot be evoked with the same gusto in an ill-fitting suit, so get ready to "holler" in a Holtzmann's Perfection fit college tog. Hats—Haberdashery.
