HAMILTON HOLDS UNION

Knowing Signals, the Clinton Men Are Able to Break Up the Garnet's Plays—

0-0 Score Is the Result.

The Garnet and the Buff and Blue met in their annual football game Saturday and, despite the fact that the Union team was clearly the aggressor and played the better ball at all times, the score was 0-0. Union secured the ball across Hamilton's goal line and twice they were on the one-yard line, but each time they were unable to score. After the first period, Hamilton knew exactly what play was coming and managed to stop a great part of them. As Captain Brown said at chapel meeting Monday, "When we did get through, it was their fault and not ours." Under the circumstances Union played excellent ball. Fairbairn and Sarvey were the stars for Union, while Harper did stellar work for the visitors.

Union kicked off to Hamilton and the Hamilton man was downed in his tracks. The Union line held twice and then Hamilton punted. Fairbairn carried the ball back for ten yards and then Union made first down on scrimmages. For a few minutes the ball see-sawed back and forth on Hamilton's twenty-yard line, never once being within sight of the Union goal. Then the Garnet team began to force back their adversaries and the quarter ended with Union in possession of the ball on Hamilton's ten-yard line and all the students wild for a touchdown.

During the intermission, however, the Buff and Blue players had figured out all the Union plays, as they had used the same system of signals last season and were familiar with them. When Union came back in the second period they were unable to gain through the line and found several of their trick plays blocked or broken up. The ball went to the visitors on downs and they punted out of danger. During the remainder of the half, the ball was constantly in the Hamilton territory, but Union was not able to carry it across.

Early in the third period, Union made a forward pass which McDermott fumbled. Vedder, however, fell on the ball on Hamilton's three-yard line. Union's first down. On a straight buck, Brown advanced the ball a foot. Harper stood behind the goal line calling out the Union plays to his teammates, as fast as Fairbairn gave the signals. On an end run, Brown was thrown for a loss and it was Union's ball, third down on the ten-yard line. Hamilton got the ball on an intercepted forward pass. Reilley took Sarvey's place at left half back. Hamilton attempted to punt, but it was blocked and Reilley got the ball on the fifteen yard line. Two downs made no material gain through the line and Hamilton got the ball on a forward pass to McDermott. They at once punted out of danger.

During the entire fourth period, the ball wavered near the Hamilton thirty-yard line, Union being unable to make any consistent gains. Finally the Hamilton backs fumbled one of Brown's punts and the ball rolled across the goal line. Riley and Branson fell on the ball for what looked like a touchdown. After a great deal of discussion the referee gave the ball to Hamilton on their seven-yard line. Hamilton then carried the ball out of danger and time was called with the ball on the twenty-yard line.

During the third period Brown made an onside kick that was one of the prettiest ever seen here. Riley was on the spot and gathered it in. The officials were for a time undecided whether or not to give Union the ball, the gain or both or neither. Finally after twenty minutes of discussion, they compromised by giving Union the ball but not allowing the gain. It was during this period also that Brown tried for a field goal, but the ball went to one side of the posts.

REVIEW OF FOOTBALL SEASON

IS A PROOF OF EFFICIENCY.

Several Things Demonstrated by Results of the Season.

The football season of 1910 has been an unusually interesting and successful one from every standpoint except that of comparative scores. The result of the season has demonstrated several things. First, that the final score of a game does not necessarily indicate the better team.

Of the four games lost, only in the Williams game was the Garnet eleven outclassed. In the contests with Rochester, Wesleyan, and Hobart, the Union team showed marked superiority in nearly every department of the game, yet were unable to obtain the necessary points for a victory although twice crossing the Rochester line, only to be brought back by the officials; and twice being inside Hobart's one-yard line when the timekeeper's whistle undoubtedly prevented the scoring of a touchdown.

Coaching System Efficient.

In the second place, the season has proved the efficiency of the Brown system of coaching as exemplified by A. E. Regnier, Brown's All-American end of 1909. The fundamental idea of the Brown system is light and snappy work, conserving the nervous energy of the players, avoiding injuries and overtraining, and it is particularly adapted to the small college where there is usually a lack of football material.

Mr. Regnier has proved himself a master of every phase of the game, has won the confidence and esteem of students, faculty, and alumni, and has turned out the best drilled and most aggressive team that Union has had in years. In the game with Stevens the team played like a well-oiled machine, and not once did the Hoboken team come within Union's thirty-yard line.

The result of the Hamilton game which closed the football season was a great disappointment to Union. The Garnet team was first choice from comparative scores and was expected to win. Although Union completely outplayed Hamilton, keeping the ball almost constantly in the latter's territory, the necessary touchdown was not forthcoming and an 0-0 score was the final result. Only once did the Buff and Blue team threaten the home team's goal line, while on the other hand Brown's drop kick in the second period failed of scoring by a narrow margin. Union had the ball on Hamilton's three-yard line only to lose it on a fumbled forward pass, and again in the last period Riley and McDermott together downed the ball back of the visitors' goal line, only to have it brought back because the ball had been kicked along the ground in attempting to recover a fumbled punt.

Finally, the season has shown that while the new rules have apparently eliminated much of the danger of fatal accidents, there is still sufficient hazard to satisfy the most strenuous. The game is easier on the players from the standpoint of physical exhaustion. The spectators can more easily follow the progress of the ball, but until some method is adopted for informing the spectators of the reasons for the numerous penalties imposed, dissatisfaction with the work of the officials will continue. The rules are too many in number, and are so difficult of interpretation that even the experts will argue at length over disputed points.

Material for the team has been slightly more plentiful than usual and under Coach Regnier's skillful handling an organization has been developed which was far superior to the average of Union's teams. The line men have been particularly strong both on offense and defense and have consistently withstood the onslaughts of the opponents. The backs have been fast and aggressive, and have been strong on end runs and skin tackle plays. In the kicking game Captain Brown has more than held his own against all opponents.

The chief weakness of the team has been in handling forward passes and in choice of plays at critical parts of the game. S. A. M.

BASKETBALL PROSPECTUS.

Now that the football season is over, basketball takes its place in the limelight of collegiate life. Every afternoon for the past week there has been a squad of about twenty new men trying out for the team under the direction of Captain Micks and Coach Kuolt. Practice is now being held in the college gymnasium, as the question of securing the armory for practice and home games has not been settled yet, although a final decision is expected in a few days.

The prospects are fair for a good team this year to meet the stiff schedule arranged for it by Manager Atkin, who has succeeded in securing games with teams from institutions larger than we have played in recent years.

Among the varsity basketball players who will be with us this year are: Brumm, Fairbairn, Coward, Hequembourg and Micks.

BRIEFS.

Many of the men on the Music Clubs will miss their Thanksgiving dinner at home this year, owing to their concert schedule which will keep them on the road from Tuesday till Saturday next.

Henry Kimberly will be the guest of his roommate, Don Hutchens, at Pulaski, for the Thanksgiving recess.

CONCERNING HOCKEY.

The prospects for a hockey team are, as usual, rather slim. There seems, however, to be an abundance of material in college to make a fast team, if a suitable rink can be secured. Several freshmen were on fast prep. school teams last year and have intimate their desire to "start something" in the hockey line this winter. Challenges have been received from several colleges, but the guarantees that they demand prohibit intercollegiate contests until the sport is on a firmer footing than at present.

The City League, however, offers an opportunity for some good games and the only thing needed is a handy rink. Last year the men were compelled to journey to the Boat Club rink across the river, and as a result the available material in college was not brought out as it would have been had the ice been nearer. If a corner of the campus could be flooded, or some rink nearby found, there is no reason why Union should not be represented by a worthy hockey team.

AN ANNOUNCE- MENT.

With the first issue after the Thanksgiving vacation the Concordiensis will start a series of articles that should be of interest not only to the alumni but to all of the students as well. In the chapel are the portraits of twelve persons who were deeply interested in Union College and are closely connected with her history. Without doubt nearly every student at some time during his college course, letting his mind wander from the chapel service, has dreamily gazed upon the portraits that adorn the balcony and wondered what the history of the persons represented might be.

For the enlightenment of such persons this series of articles is being planned. Beginning with the picture of Dr. Jackson on the left hand side looking from the pulpit, the pictures will be taken up in order. The majority of the articles will be written by members of the faculty or some other person who is in possession of information that should make an interesting story. The Concordiensis is also able to obtain cuts of the most prominent persons represented which will appear with the article.

This will be practically a new department for the Concordiensis but one which should make the paper of added interest and value. Every student and alumnus is, or should be, interested in the welfare of his college, and is doing everything within his power to insure her future success. A knowledge of what other men prominent in Union's history have been able to accomplish should be an example and an incentive to those who are now loyally striving for the same end.

BASKETBALL. With the close of the football season, the interest in athletics is now centered mainly in basket ball. The football team has been the best that has represented the college for several years, and there is every reason to believe that if we again obtain the armory in which to practice and play the games, the basketball team will be the fastest in the history of that sport at Union College.

We have as coach this year, Mr. Kuolt, formerly captain of the Hamilton team. Mr. Kuolt thoroughly understands intercollegiate basketball, and while in college was one of the best players in the state. This should prove an important factor in turning out a winning team as in previous years the coach has been a person who has had no experience in intercollegiate basketball.

There has never been more or better material in college. There has never been better support among the students as was evidenced by the readiness with which the students responded to the appeal for financial help. The prospects are bright from every standpoint, and the basketball management has every right to look forward to the coming season with hopes raised high. Of course, we can hardly expect to win every game of the season as we are to take the court against some of the strongest college teams, but we can expect that our team will hold its own against teams from any colleges of Union's size.

THE PRESS CLUB CALENDAR FOR 1911 AN ATTRACTIVE ONE

To Contain Many New Views.

The Press Club is producing a calendar for 1911 which is, without a doubt, the finest ever seen on the campus. It is to consist of thirteen pages and a loose picture. Each month has a separate sheet which contains, besides a very handy calendar, views of interest around the campus and is printed in garnet and black. These views are with two exceptions entirely new, having been taken especially for the occasion.

They include: The 1910 Memorial Gate replacing the Blue Gate, President Richmond's house, Silliman Hall, South College, North College, North Colonnade, Lover's Lane, Library Lane, the Idol and the Class Day Exercises under the Nott Elm in Jackson's Gardens. The background is the engraving of a piece of birch bark with a portion of the center peeled back to show the picture. The entire is enclosed in an artistic cover. Included is a fine photograph of President Richmond which may be framed or used for some similar purpose.

On Sale by December

The entire calendar is very attractive and will make a suitable present to all those interested in Union. The price is $1.00, including the picture of "Prexy." The calendar will go on sale the first week in December. Those wishing their calendars as soon as possible should place orders either with G. A. Woodard, Phi Gamma Delta House, or H. C. Ewens, Alphi Delta Phi House. It is hoped that the sale will be extensive not only in order to help the Press Club but also to help the college by having such a calendar around the country.

THE IDOL EXPOSED.

One of the Concordy reporters has finally lifted the mystic veil which has enshrouded Union's new publication, "The Idol," for so long a time. By much gumshoeing and the taking of oaths of secrecy we have secured meagre information concerning this infant periodical.

The first issue of the paper will make its appearance after Thanksgiving, and if it is well received at the hands of the students, The Idol will be published at least four times a year. Each number will deal in a humorous style with college events and current topics, and will be further enlivened by cuts from pictures drawn by the Optic's own art editor. The Idol will supply the need of a humorous paper in college and expects to receive the co-operation of the students when it makes its debut.

All that we have told you is true, but we have not yet exposed the affair in its entirety. Further information will be cheerfully given by Harry Keckeley at the Sigma Phi fraternity, or T. G. Dunn.

THE 1912 GARNET

To Be a Banner Production.

The complete elections for the Garnet Board for 1912 are now completed. C. L. Hequembourg is Editor-in-Chief; W. A. Hardenbergh, Business Manager; Edward P. Lawsing, Secretary; John Edward Hall Randerson, Literary Editor; Martin Untermeyer, Art Editor; G. A. Woodard, Assistant Art Editor; R. B. Sawyer, Assistant Business Manager; Lawrence S. Churchill, Athletic Editor; Paul Fasoli, P. C. McQuaid, R. P. Patterson.

It is the intention of the editors to get the book out early in April or even sooner. As an aid in this matter they ask that the juniors have their pictures taken as soon as possible. Every effort is being made to get out a book that will be superior to any yet completed. The plans so far call for a morocco leather binding and gilded edges. Other improvements are being taken up and considered by the editors.

THE COLLEGE WIDOW. (Contributed.)

Charles and Mary to Albany went,
To Harmanus Hall were they bent;
Their histrionic ability there they lent,
To the "College Widow."

On the stage they played a game
Of football, which was far from tame;
Mary against Charlie strove with might and main.

In the "College Widow."

Mary started out quite strong,
Charlie tackled far and long,
But missed and only coughed a lung.

In the "College Widow."

A coughing fit in him arose
Which shook his manly football clothes.
The angry crowd Charlie drove
From the "College Widow."

TODDY WITH US AGAIN.

Toddy is again on the hill. Just what dogmatic individual was able to so bewilder the curley canine that it strayed and stayed away from the classical atmosphere of the south corner of North College it is difficult to say. Who could harbor such villainous thoughts as would prompt one to induce even a dog to leave its native clime of luxury and culture to take up a temporary abode among the whirling motors, manned by begrimed beings, in shop 56 of the General Electric Company? But such was the case. Toddy was gone some days every hour of which was one of anxiety to his owner.

A clue as to where the little fellow might be found was finally obtained. Toddy's protector, without a moment's hesitation, broke camp and proceeded two parasangs, a half day's march unto the very gates of the great works. To temple fifty-six he went and there, in the possession of a descendant of the Latin race philosophically resigned to endure the ignominious conditions until succor should arrive, was Toddy.

Gladly indeed the little fellow greeted his former master; but not so the degenerated Latin. Nothing but a reward would tempt the dognaper to part with his recently acquired property. The necessary minas were forthcoming and once again Toddy is a resident on College Hill. Not until the little dog had spent some time within the old gray walls did Toddy breathe easily, for it took hours to entirely exhale the vile atmosphere charged with electrical atoms and to again acclimate his lungs to the classical atmosphere that permeates the inmost recesses of his home.

OPTORIAL.

Permit us to devote another optorial to Union's new fun paper, The Idol, which, contrary to our partial prediction, is to be a reality. Since our last issue we have had nearly the entire reportorial staff of THE OPTIC running down the few slight clues that have been found in connection with the mysterious publication. Our work has not been in vain, for at the present moment THE OPTIC is in possession of every detail of the new paper. The originator and "perpetrator" of the venture is a prominent member of the class of 1911. It seems scarcely square, however, to expose the new publication board and to give inside information concerning The Idol, all of which have been successfully withheld until THE OPTIC pierced the heavy cloak of obscurity by its x-ray vision. THE OPTIC extends to you, Oh Idol, a hand of welcome. May our jokographers vie with one another in friendly jest for the betterment of the respective publications.

Alumni News.

EDITED BY GRADUATE COUNCIL

SCHENECTADY A NATURAL CENTER.

Mr. Thomas H. Fearey, '63, was on the campus last Monday following up the work of his committee in the Council. He is planning a trip to all our inactive alumni associations to see if by a personal touch he can not rouse them to new life. Mr. Fearey has always taken an active interest in the college and has done his share to make it successful. In talking over the past he recalled the campaign carried on to secure a gift from the Rockefeller Foundation.

The Rockefeller Foundation will not give to colleges who can not show a special service they can render to their vicinity. The fact that Union is the center of a district sixty miles square in which there are 800,000 people living, proved a big help in securing so generous a gift as was made to us.

Conditions are right for a greater future than our past has proved. It chiefly rests with us graduates whether Union secures new fame or not.

1866. Charles W. Johnson is chief engineer for the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha R. R. J. Henry Lea was on the campus Tuesday. Since 1885 he has been engaged in Genealogical studies.

1875. C. C. Bowman of Pittstown, Pa., has been elected to Congress on the Republican ticket.

1877. Dean J. Norton Colcock, C. E., LL. D., is the head of the department of mathematics and engineering in the University of South Carolina.

1881. Frank C. Avery is senior member of the firm of Avery & Schlesinger, lawyers, at 20 Broad Street, New York. James W. Lester is Colonel of the Second Regiment of N. Y. N. G. During the war with Spain he served as Major in his regiment.

1884. James H. Stoller, Professor of Biology at Union, has been appointed by the U. S. Geological Survey to prepare the geological map of the Schenectady quadrangle.

1890. John I. Bennett, Professor of Greek at Union, had charge of Dr. Ashmore's Latin classes during the latter's illness.

1897. A. H. Birch has recently resigned his position as treasurer of the Winthrop Press to become treasurer of the Retail Advertisers Service Co. of New York. A. T. Blessing was elected District Attorney of Schenectady County.

1898. Orrin G. Cocks is engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in New York. His work has to do with the reaching of young college men who come to the city. Mr. Cocks is also a member of the Union College Christian Association advisory board.

1899. Harold J. Hinman was re-elected to the Assembly.

1902. W. Hooper Adams is pastor of the Presbyterian Churches at Worthington and Dublin, Ohio.

1910. The following are in the Test Department of the G. E.: W. J. Becker, J. H. Charest, A. R. Dennis, H. H. Grover, S. D. Kelley, A. E. Kriegsman, W. E. Paul, R. P. Sears, Raymond Seem, A. H. Sherman, N. W. Slutter, Paul de Toledo and P. J. Whitmore.

1869. Thomas Griswold Hillhouse died in New York City on May 24th, 1910. Mr. Hillhouse had practiced law in New York for many years.

1876. Craig A. Marsh died at Plainfield, N. J., November 12th. Mr. Marsh had been Corporation Council for Plainfield during twenty-eight years and, at one time, President of the New Jersey Bar Association. In recognition of his services to Plainfield, the mayor issued a proclamation closing all city offices during the funeral.

1895. Clarke W. Crannell, one of Unions most loyal alumni, died after an operation for mastoiditis in New York, November 13th. While in College Mr. Crannell took an active interest in newspaper work and was editor of the Concordiensis during his senior year. For fifteen years he was on the Evening Mail staff and during eleven years their legislative representative at Albany. Recently he was persuaded to become secretary to the District Attorney, C. S. Whitman, who found his abilities of the greatest service. As a prime mover in the Payne Memorial gate project, he will be greatly missed by the college.

WANTED.

Information concerning present whereabouts of the following members of the Class of 1881: Ira M. Garrison, John M. Harvey, Charles H. Johnson, William T. Miller, Charles B. Pierson, Barney Quinn, Horace R. Shead and Charles F. Weigandt, Jr.

S. P. McCLELLAN,
Acting Secretary,
72 Second St., Troy, N. Y.

AUBURN.

Auburn will always be associated in the minds of Union men as the home of W. H. Seward. We may rightly feel that the college will be remembered in that city with great kindness. Maybe few of us realize that Auburn has become a real city and thus presents a field from which we can most naturally draw students. This is the case with many other places and the alumni, by inquiring, will often find past events which serve as a means of presenting Union to the boys of their locality. Another case of this sort is found in Buffalo, where the largest High School in the city is named after a past mayor, Joseph G. Masten, who graduated from Union in the class of 1828.

Our past has given us much to be proud of and to help us in the future. It remains for us to use this history and if we do, many of the good wishes we hold for the college will materialize. It is time that the alumni waked to the work that is theirs to do. Organize alumni associations; keep in touch with the college; present our opportunities in education to the boys you know; in the words of Dr. Hale, "Lend a hand."

Just such a work is being done in Auburn. Mr. David M. Dunning has invited Dr. Richmond to visit him on the 23rd and speak to the students of the High School. A luncheon will also be given to which will be invited the school officials. In this and other ways Union is kept before the public and where we are truly known, our supporters are many.

MUSICAL CLUBS TO TAKE

TRIP DURING THANKSGIVING.

Union College will be an unmusical place during the Thanksgiving vacation. The Musical Clubs, starting Tuesday morning, will take one of the longest trips ever taken by a Union College Club. The program includes concerts at Binghamton, Elmira, Sayre and Buffalo, and will cover the entire recess from Tuesday morning until Sunday. On Tuesday evening the club will give its first concert at Binghamton. Wednesday evening a performance will be given at Elmira and this will be followed by one at Sayre, Pa., Thursday night. Here, too, the club will enjoy their Thanksgiving dinner and the other comforts of the season. Friday evening the club will give the final concert of the week at Buffalo. This will be followed by a banquet and a dinner at the University Club. About thirty-five men will make the trip.

A concert was given at Cohoes last Wednesday evening. There was a large audience present who expressed themselves as well pleased with the entertainment.

In addition to the Thanksgiving trip, the clubs expect to give concerts at both Saratoga and Glens Falls sometime in January. February 17 has been chosen as the date for the public appearance of the clubs in Schenectady.

THE FRESHMAN "PEE-RADE."

Saturday afternoon, before the football game with Hamilton, was held the first annual freshman "pee-rade," an addition to Union's list of undergraduate stunts. The "pee-rade" was to have been held on University Day but unfavorable weather made it impossible to carry out the original plans. Hereafter, however, this is the day upon which the event will be scheduled.

The "pee-rade" Saturday consisted of more than fifty costumed first year men nearly all of whom represented some play, prominent politician or other person in the public eye. A partial list of the characters is: Jack Johnson, his wife and Barney Oldfield, Walter Wellman, "Spike," "Stol," the gold dust twins; Mrs. Adriance and the custom official, The Midnight Sons, The Girl in Taxi, Dr. Cook and his friend Peary, The Girl from Rectors, and Roosevelt. Many of the freshmen got up individual stunts, such as a football eleven in 1920. The event on the whole was a success. It was expected that more of the members of the three upper classes would be in line with the freshmen and the band, but it is thought that this part of the stunt was not made sufficiently clear to the student-body. As this year, the "pee-rade" will be in the future under the control of the junior class.

Following the march through the city streets photographs of the individuals stunts and a group picture were taken. The individual pictures are now on sale at the college office. Owing to the haste in taking the photographs some of the important participators were accidentally overlooked by the official photographers. If any of the students have good pictures of any of the following stunts that will make up into postcard pictures the committee for the "pee-rade" ask for the loan of them so that a complete series of photographs may be kept. The groups especially desired are: Jack Johnson, Jack's wife, Barney Oldfield, Roosevelt, Her's, His'n, The Midnight Sons, and any others that are not included in the list now on sale at the college office.

If such films are obtainable will the owners kindly notify O. A. Faust or H. A. Schermerhorn.

CAMPUS CHAT.

H. Merrill Johnson, '14, will spend his Thanksgiving vacation with J. Dalton James, '14, of Albany.

E. Fink, '11, has recovered sufficiently from his recent operation to take up his work again.

Most of the fellows expect to go home next week for the Thanksgiving vacation.

The Freshman class in Physiology received a great shock Wednesday when Dr. Mac made the sad announcement that there would be no class next week.

S. M. Cavert, '10, is to spend Thanksgiving Day with Trumbull at Hartford.

Overheard in Micky Ann's Rhetoric: "Who wrote Franklin's Autobiography?"

Winters, '12, declares that he will elect Dr. Stoller through the rest of his course if he has to drop Greek and Latin to do so.

CIVIL ENGINEERING CLUB

ADOPTS A CONSTITUTION

Sophomores Admitted to Membership.

At the last meeting of the Civil Engineering Club, held November 1, the following officers were elected: President, Harold Baker; vice-president, Louis Bennett; secretary, William Hardenburgh; treasurer, Neil Hyde. It was decided to adopt the constitution of the civil engineering club of the University of Illinois so far as it is found practical to the uses of the Union club. A committee consisting of McCullough, Bennett and Duchscherer was appointed to report on the new constitution.

It was also decided to admit to membership sophomores who are taking either electrical or civil engineering courses.
