$200,000.

Generous Sum for Old Union

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Union College held in New York Wednesday at the offices of Mr. George H. Seward, it was decided without hesitation to accept the offer of Mr. Andrew Carnegie to present the College with $100,000 for a general engineering building provided the alumni could secure another $100,000, which the Board of Trustees intend to hold as an endowment fund. With such a fund the Trustees will be enabled materially to raise the standard of the college. Dr. Raymond, Hon. N. V. V. Franchot, chairman of the finance committee, Mr. George F. Seward and Treasurer Frank Bailey were chosen to secure the needed amount. A meeting of this committee will be held in New York during the ensuing week to decide upon its future activities. Further details will then be given out.

Instruction to Freshmen

The Tiger, published at Colorado college, has a chapter of instructions to the freshmen. The following is the most important part thereof:

Wherefore, O freshman, give ear unto the law, neither depart therefrom, lest peradventure the hosts of the Philistines, which is to say the sophomores, shall come upon thee like a thief in the night and smite thee hip and thigh, and defeat thee with great slaughter, for the sophs are a brave and warlike people.

Be meek and lowly of heart, slow to butt in, and plenteous of horse sense, neither be of a forward tongue and inclined to much babbling, lest one of the wise and holy men of Colorado college, which is to say a senior, shall send his mighty man of valor, which is to say a soph, upon thee for to chastise thee, and he shall smite thee upon the fifth rib, for the soph loveth not the gentle freshman, and whereas thy father chastised thee with whips, the mighty soph will whale thee long and lustily with a board, for he delighteth not in freshmen. A bit for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a long board for the freshman's back.

Gee thee out to all football games, neither neglect to lend that blatant raucous voice to cheer the Tigers; hike not at all to the canons with a young maiden for she will weary of thy childish prattle. Come, therefore to the games, and let thy horn be exalted like the horn of a unicorn, lest the heart of the chief rooter waxeth wroth and he take counsel with a lusty soph for to do thee hurt.

Be not wise in thine own conceit, neither seek to bluff the wily Prof., for it doth appear that he is dead on to thy babbling and will quickly give thee a zero.

Study to show thyself a good and faithful grind, neither hold good marks of slight import, for the dean knoweth the ways of the wise guy, but the bluffer and babbler shall flunk.

Pharmacy Notes

A meeting of the senior class in pharmacy was called Monday evening, at which it was decided that the school would not take part in the Carnival parade this year, the consensus of opinion being that Albany pavements, as a whole, are somewhat too rough for the tender feet of the pharmacy students.

Doubtless when the Carnival committee is informed of our decision it will take prompt measures to have the streets carpeted and strewn with flowers, but our decision, like the "Law of the Medes and Persians," is unalterable.

Westward

Through the silence of the even

When the world is from me falling,
Come the voices of the Westward

From the shrouded distance calling,
"Hither, hither to thy home!"

And my soul of souls makes answer,
"Thither, thither will I come!"

O ye voices of the Westward

I have felt your inspiration,
Heard your clarion cry compelling,

Solemn, eager invitation,
Your imperious commands;

And I cannot choose but follow
Toward your secret-laden lands.

Though I know that on the even

Of the farthest morrow's morrow
You will summon still to Westward

With all tones of joy and sorrow,
Crying "Hither to thy home!"

"Here are love and life and labor;
"Westward ever!" Lo, I come.

"The Man From Maine"

When Asa first heard of golf, he turned to his friend and crony, Squire Doolittle and remarked: "We never heard of goff, did we, squire?" The squire agreed with his friend. Then turning to Jim Bailey, Asa asked: "Was he any relation to old John B. Gough, the temperance lecturer, that I once heered up to Treemont Temple in Posting?" "No, no relation," Jim replied. "The golf I refer to, is a Scotch game." "Well John B. was game too, I reckon," laughed Asa, in which Jim and the squire joined.

Some time later in New York Asa wandered unaccompanied across 34th Street, to Broadway, where he was soon accosted by a slick-looking stranger, who addressed him as follows:

"Ah, how do you do, Mr. Adams. Come to town once in a while, I see. I'm selling country real estate now; don't care where it is located. Have you got any for sale over in Hohokus?"

"No, my friend, I ain't got no land for sale, I ain't Adam, and I don't live in Hokus-Pokus," Asa replied grimly and with emphasis.

"Well, well!" replied the stranger, "what a remarkable resemblance! I never saw anything quite so extraordinary. You must be a relative, another branch of the Adam's family?"

"Not this eve, stranger," said Asa.

"I really beg your pardon, but I am sure I have met you somewhere, and got the name and location mixed. Let me see, your name is ——"

"Pinkham," said Asa.

"Certainly, certainly, now I remember. I met you down in —— let me see —— don't tell me now —— it was down in —— er —— er —— how mortifying."

"Lynn," suggested Asa slyly.

"Ah, that's just where it was. Now it all comes back to me, and the first name is ——"

"Lydia," said Asa with a laugh that attracted even the attention of a policeman on the opposite side.

THE TRINITY GAME

Saturday's game contained a surprise for us. Not the victory itself, for we expected that. The surprise was the game and its attendant incidents. The team had gone out to Hartford, expecting, to put it mildly, trouble. All fall we had been hearing reports of proceedings at Trinity, which, if true, were a disgrace to a college. Between unfair officials and rough players, the opposing teams had had hard times. So it was that the team went prepared for the worst.

It is far from us to cast any doubt upon the word of the other colleges implicated. We know that they did have trouble. But it gives us pleasure to record here that the opposite was the case Saturday. The treatment was fair in every way, the officials were honest and competent and, above all, the game was clean. Some of the players said that it was the cleanest game that they had ever played in. The few penalties imposed are proof of this; one on Union for holding and two on Trinity for off-side play.

We are not probing into the events before our game; we are not entitled to speak of them, in fact. But we desire to say this one thing: Union has no complaint to make for Trinity played a gentlemanly game, a game of which any college might well be proud and which many can afford to imitate.

THE TRACK MEET

Monday's track meet had an unusual result in that it was won by the Seniors. As this is the first time that this has happened in we don't know how long, it is worthy of mention. When it is considered that there are three or four Seniors who are on the 'varsity track team but who were not competing, it is not wrong to consider that the victory might have been still more decisive.

But in this victory there is a future element of danger. It is encouraging to look forward to a season with plenty of seasoned men on hand. Yet there are other seasons coming. When one stops to consider that a small group of men in one class can carry all before them in such a way, he must surely see what a hole will be left in the team when that same group of point winners shall have graduated. This, then is our point. Strong men must be found and developed who will step into these men's positions. Partly these will come from the material in the other classes, particularly in the Freshman class, where there seems to be some ability. But new men must also be found outside. When we are looking around for prospective freshmen, we must not forget the track any more than football and baseball.

Last year we had the most successful track team in years. This year's promises much better. Let us work to obtain the continued supremacy in track athletics that we enjoyed in the days of our "world-beaters."

CONCORDIENSIS MEETINGS.

Perhaps all of the members of the Concordy staff are not aware that a meeting of the board is held every Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock in Silliman Hall. The attendance at those meetings has hardly been what it should, and the above is the only explanation that we can find. If that is the case, no one need be in the dark any longer.

At the meetings whatever business may come up is transacted. More than that, the regular week's work is assigned. This is important. It is sometimes much easier to give work to those men present than to spend the rest of the week trying to find other men. It is no more than fair when the weeding out process comes at the end of the year that the preference be given to the men who have done their work and have displayed an interest in the paper. There is a little food for thought in this situation for those who wish to remain on the board.

UNION-TRINITY

Varsity Wins by Narrow Margin

Last Saturday Union defeated Trinity at Hartford, Conn., by the score of 5-0. The teams were very evenly matched as to weight but Capt. Landerfeld played more than his share of the game for Trinity. He carried the ball more than any other two players and carried it well. The strong feature of the game was the cleanness with which both sides played. Union was penalized 15 yards for holding and Trinity twice for off-side.

The team while at Hartford stopped at the Alleyn House. Every one was feeling in the best of shape when they went on to the field. Union has yet to have her ends outplayed, while the line showed big improvement over the last game. There were no special stars, each man seeming to know what was expected of him and doing his full share of the work. Peck and Lent broke through and made several tackles. Von Dannenburg and Capt. Dann played their usually strong game. Mulrooney at full back played a very consistent game. Long runs by Moore helped materially in making our touch down. Armstrong played in Harvey's place at left half and filled the position creditably. Merrill was tried out at left tackle and made a good showing. The most notable improvement was McNab at quarter. He played the game without a fumble and saved his team from being scored on by a clean tackle of the Trinity full back after he had broken away from the rest of the team.

At 3:25 P. M., the teams lined up and Capt. Dann won the toss. Wright received the ball and ran it back 20 yards. Moore went around the end and Dann followed. Davis took the ball around the end and Armstrong through guard. In this way the team worked the ball down to the 5 yard line, where it was held for downs.

Trinity took the ball back 20 yards by plays around left end and then was forced to punt. McNab got the ball and carried it 10 yards before he was downed. By line bucks and end runs by Moore Union again got down to Trinity's 6 yard line when Wright fumbled, Trinity falling on the ball.

By close formation plays and tackle back Trinity worked Union back 30 yards, when they were penalized 5 yards for off-side and Union got the ball. Moore made a 20 yard run. Armstrong got within a yard of the line and Mulrooney went over for a touchdown. Moore failed to kick a very difficult goal on account of the wind. Score—Union, 5; Trinity, 0.

Xanders caught the kick-off and fumbled but advanced the ball 5 yards. Landefeld went through left tackle for 3 yards. Donnelly made 1 yard on right side. Maxson went for 8 yards around left end. Here, the third down, they tried old tandem play but Union held and got the ball. From this point till the end of the half the ball went up and down the field, mostly in Union's possession. Union was steadily and surely advancing the ball up the field and had only 25 yards to go when time was called.

After the brief intermission with teams lined up without a change in line-up, Union kicked to Mason, who was downed 12 yards after receiving the ball. Trinity began to use tandem and close formation plays and carried the ball successfully to the center of the field, where Union woke up and from then on there was no fear of Trinity crossing Union's goal line.

One of Trinity's most spectacular plays was to have full back Xanders jump on Landefeld's back and hurdle the line. This play they tried twice but neither time was it successful enough to get them first down. During the last three minutes of play Union was in her old second-half form and had the ball on Trinity's 20 yard line when time was called.

Final score—Union, 5; Trinity, 0.

FALL TRACK MEET

Seniors Victorious

The Fall track meet between the four classes, scheduled to take place on Saturday afternoon, October 21st, was postponed on account of the inclemency of the weather. However, there were several contestants, who appeared on the oval and not until a consultation between Captain Waldron, Dr. Towne and Felthausen had been held, was it decided to put off the meet. The time decided upon was Monday at four o'clock.

On Monday the competitors were again on hand and the meet run off although the day was very cold. There were no records broken, but the meet proved to be interesting and each event rather warmly contested.

The class of 1906 carried off the honors of the day, making a total score of 24, the other three classes taking 19 points each.

The following were the events and the results:

The meet has shown us that we have the making of some very good men in our freshman class. We have men that may have the ability to "sprint" and "sprinters" are what we need as badly almost as anything else. A few men might

Union vs. Wesleyan

The varsity will play one of the hardest games of the season today, when it meets Wesleyan on the campus. Wesleyan comes here supported by some excellent scores. The team is said to be fast. In point of weight, it far outclasses our team, averaging twenty pounds more to the man than Union. The line from tackle to tackle is said to average 203 pounds. This advantage in weight, it is hoped, will be in great part, overcome by speed and endurance. The physical condition of the men, with but a few exceptions, is fine and they are fit for a hard, wearing contest, as today's will be. No chances will be taken with the men, however, as every effort is being made to keep them in shape for the Hamilton game, which is of more moment to us than the Wesleyan game.

There will be little change in the team from that played last Saturday. Mulroony, who played so well against Trinity, is improving steadily at full back and will be played there. He shows much more life and vim than he did early in the season. It is welcome news to all that Nutt has rejoined the squad. At present, the coach is working him into all line positions, for any of which his aggressiveness fits him. He may play today at tackle in place of Capt. Dann, whose leg has been troubling him for the past week. Harvey's foot is still in bad shape and he also will be saved. Armstrong will take his place at half and can be depended upon to give a good account of himself, as he did at Trinity.

Throughout the week the scrub pushed the varsity hard. More men were out and the scrub was usually composed of thirteen men, the extra men playing with the guards. Some new formations, which will be used on Wesleyan today, were successfully used on the scrub.

The game will be called at 2:30 P. M., that Wesleyan may get an early start for home. Weeks of Syracuse will umpire. The halves will be twenty-five minutes each.

In order that the singing may be better than before, the members of the Glee Club will be seated in the middle of the bleachers with the fellows grouped around them. Better results are hoped for by this means.

FRESHMEN AT GLOVERSVILLE High School Wins Easily

The Freshman football team journeyed to Gloversville last Saturday to try conclusions with the strong High School team there, and were easily beaten. The Freshmen, through want of practice, lacked unity and strength while the heavier Gloversville men were in good condition and showed the result of careful practice. It would be a good thing, if Freshmen intend to send out teams that are bound to be more or less representative of the college, to spend a little time between games in perfecting their style of play. In that event they might become a match for the neighboring preparatory school teams. To go around the country with a picked up team and lose is of no credit, either to the class or the college.

Saunders, the big full-back was easily the star ground gainer for Gloversville, though he was aided much by the good interference of his team mates. His long end runs helped materially in

After Gloversville kicked off for the second half, the Frosh made some consistent gains, using Mead, Maugham and Vedder with fair success. After an exchange of punts, High School held for downs. After a series of good gains, Stille was shoved over for the third touchdown, also kicking goal. Score, G. H. S. 17, '09, 0.

Time was called with the ball on the Freshmen's 12 yard line. Maugham, Mead and Potter excelled for 1909.
