Tuxedo Keeps You In Good Trim

Christy Mathewson, lovingly known as "The Old Master," is probably the greatest pitcher baseball has ever known. This wonderful athlete is noted for his clear headed common sense, his quick wits, perfect physical condition, and absolute control over his nerves. His use and endorsement of Tuxedo prove that this inspiring and healthful tobacco is helpful to mind and body.

Tuxedo

just sort of oozes its gentle way into your life and suddenly you realize its powers for good—because it puts peace in your mind and a happy taste in your mouth. Tuxedo's flavor is so enticingly mild and delicately fragrant it will not irritate the most sensitive throat.

All the bite and sting have been removed by the famous "Tuxedo Process." This exclusive process of refining the very best Kentucky Burley tobacco has been widely imitated, but without success.

A WIN FROM COLGATE.

Jenkins' Pitching Feature of 6-3 Game.

Carl Jenkins came through Saturday with the best pitching he has ever done. He beat Colgate 6 to 3, and but for a series of flukes in the ninth would have had a one-hit shut-out game against the strong up-staters. He fanned 16 men, allowed only two hits, and two bases on balls. His fast ball nestled in Dave Beaver's glove before the batter started swinging, and his spitter jumped and dived like a streak of lightning. He did not hit a man—which was lucky for Colgate.

The game aside from Jenkins' pitching was bad. All the runs scored on either side were the result of errors, none was earned. Colgate erred repeatedly, and Union was not far behind as an offender. It was Union's game all the way, though.

Hicks pitched a good game for Colgate, but his team-mates threw it away or dropped it away behind him. He fanned 13 men on his own account and allowed only one base on balls.

First Inning.

Colgate: Robinson, first man up for Colgate, fanned. Van Alstyne flied out to Zimmer in center. Jenkins fanned Stewart.

Union: Dave Beaver lined out a clean single on the first ball pitched. He took second when a passed ball went to the back-stop. Galbraith sacrificed him prettily to third. With Jake Beaver up, Dave started to steal home. Jake, however, instead of laying down a bunt, popped a little fly to the catcher who completed a double play unassisted by cutting down Dave at the plate.

Second Inning.

Colgate: Edgerton was out, Galbraith to Houghton. Reid lofted a long fly to center. Zimmer got his hands on it but failed to hold it, and Reid pulled up at third. Jenkins obliged by fanning Glendenning. Dwyer pushed a hot grounder down the first base line. Erny Houghton ran back to get it, while Tubby Rosecrans covered first. The assist was perfect and Tubby got the put out. Pretty baseball.

Union: Teedy Woods succumbed to three slants and sat down. Houghton singled. Zimmer singled and both advanced on a passed ball. Tubby Rosecrans fanned, but Robinson, the catcher, dropped the ball, and Tubby started for first, drawing the throw. Right here Robinson practically threw the game away, when his heave went wild. Both Houghton and Zimmer scored. Swede Friday fanned. Score: Union 2, Colgate 0.

Third Inning.

Colgate: Jenkins gave Fraser a base. Hicks was out on a foul fly to Houghton. Jenkins, got three strikes on Robinson, but Dave Beaver dropped the last and the batter was safe on first, while Fraser took second and third. While Robinson was stealing second, Jenks fanned Van Alstyne and Stewart.

Union: Jenkins struck out. Dave Beaver got first on an error, went down on a wild throw, took third on Galbraith's sacrifice and came home on another error, this time by the first baseman. Jake Beaver fanned, but as usual the catcher had to throw him out at first.

Fourth Inning.

Colgate: Edgerton flied out to Houghton. Reid struck out. Glendenning struck out.

Union: Teedy lofted to left for the first out. The pitcher fozzled an easy pop by Houghton who was safe on first. Zimmer flied out to shortstop. Rosecrans fanned, but that didn't make any difference. The catcher didn't hold the ball and Tubby was safe on first while Houghton went to second on the catcher's wild throw. Friday came through here with a two-bagger that scored Houghton and put Rosey on third. Jenkins fanned.

Score: Union 4, Colgate 0.

Fifth Inning.

Colgate: Dwyer was out, Jenks to Houghton. Fraser and Hicks fanned.

Union: Dave Beaver fanned. Galbraith was out, Robinson to Stewart. Jake Beaver struck out. Did he go to the bench? No, he went to first, because Robinson did it again. Jake started down on a hit-and-run play, while Woods came through on his end with a clean single. Jake made third but was out trying to come home.

Sixth Inning.

Colgate: Jenks fanned Robinson and Van Alstyne. Stewart was out, Jenks to Houghton. In this and the previous inning, Jenks is credited with six assists—two to Houghton and four to Dave Beaver. Six men went out in succession in these two innings.

Union: Houghton fanned. He almost made first, but Robinson got the throw down a little ahead of him this time. Zimmer singled—his second hit. Tubby Rosecrans got his base. Zip got to third. Right here Tubby started down for second, Zimmer came home on the peg to second. Tubby took third on the throw in to get Zim. Friday breezed. Jenkins popped a fly toward first in the infield, but neither first baseman nor pitcher got it. Tubby came home and Jenks was safe. Dave Beaver flied out to center.

Score: Union 6, Colgate 0.

Seventh Inning.

Colgate: Edgerton was out, Woods to Houghton. Reid made the first hit of the game off Jenks. Glendenning was out, Rosecrans to Houghton. Dwyer fanned.

Union: Galbraith fanned. Jake Beaver singled. Woods singled, but the center fielder got Jake going to third on the hit. Houghton fanned.

Eighth Inning.

Colgate: Fraser fanned. Hicks got a base on balls. Robinson was out, Rosey to Houghton. Van Alstyne fanned.

Union: Zimmer got his third hit. Rosecrans, however, hit into a double play, short, to second, to first. Friday fanned.

Ninth Inning.

Colgate: Stewart was out, Galbraith to Houghton. Edgerton died, Jenks to Houghton. Reid shot a sizzling grounder down to Woods, and was safe on his error. Glendenning shot one in the same direction and Teedy again blew up, Reid taking third on the throw. Both men safe. Dwyer singled, scoring both. Fraser knocked another hot one at Woods, who could not handle it, letting Dwyer score. Jenkins ended the misery by fanning West who pinch-hit for Hicks.

UNION LOST IN THIRTEENTH.

Hamilton Nosed Out Victory in Close Score Contest.

Union lost to Hamilton last Friday afternoon at Clinton in a whirlwind thirteen inning game by a score of 3 to 2. Union played fast ball, getting 9 hits, stealing 9 bases, and holding Hamilton runless till two men were out in the ninth inning, when a wild throw gave the Buff and Blue a chance to tie the score. After that the game was scoreless until the thirteenth, when a double and a single brought in Hamilton's last and winning run.

Whitman, who pitched for Hamilton, had a good day. He kept the opposing hits scattered, fanned fourteen men, and allowed only one base on balls. Hummer, too, pitched a game that under other circumstances would have been good enough to win. He struck out eleven men, allowed only two passes and allowed nine hits to Whitman's seven. Hummer's game was all his own and a victory until after fanning two men in the ninth, he was deserted by fortune when a wild pitch allowed the score to be tied.

In the second inning Union scored two runs. Houghton lined out a single. He advanced to third on passed balls. Zimmer was out, but Tubby Rosecrans came through with a liner to center field. The ball got by the outfielders and Houghton and Rosey romped across the plate.

After that it was a pitcher's battle.
Neither team could seem to score and went out regularly. One man was down in the ninth when Behan of Hamilton singled.
Captain Erhardt came across with another single. McLouth sacrificed the two runners along. Two men were out, and a man on second and third. W. Gow was up. He dribbled the ball easily toward third, where Galbraith made a perfect stop. Then he threw to Houghton. But the ball when it passed Houghton was too high. Behan and Erhardt scored on the throw.

In the thirteenth W. Gow doubled to right. Hummer walked Erhardt who looked dangerous. McLouth was up and singled cleanly, bringing in Gow, and the game was over.

INTER-CLASS TRACK MEET.

1918 Wins Easily.

In the inter-class track meet held on Moving-Up Day, the freshmen won by a wide margin, totalling sixty-three and one-half points. The juniors came in second with forty-seven points, while the sophomores and seniors scored twenty-six and one-half and five points respectively.

Several features made the meet interesting. Stoller '16, set a new record for the 16-pound hammer throw, breaking by four feet the record of 112 feet six inches, made by E. S. Clossen in 1906. The record in the two mile run would probably have been broken by Hance '18, had the wind been less strong. As it was, Hance made the distance in ten minutes, twenty-three and three-fifths seconds; only three seconds slower than the record.

Mallen '16 was the highest individual scorer, winning twenty-one points. Butler '16, came next with a total of fourteen points.

The summary:

100 yard dash—Won by Morrison, '17; Mallen, '16, second; Northrup, '18, third; Taylor, '18, fourth. Time 10 2-5.

THE TERRACE COUNCIL.

Since the establishment of the Terrace Council by the class of 1906, there have been no greater undergraduate honors than membership to this society. The ceremony of choosing the four new members, Saturday, by the old Council furnishes us the occasion for congratulating the retiring body on their successful guidance of the student body during the past year—and the new members, on the honor which has been conferred upon them.

Bodies of this kind for governing undergraduate students have recently become popular in many American colleges, but nowhere have they been more successful than at Union. The reason for their general success is simple enough; they are fundamentally right, they are based on correct principles. They take cognizance of the fact that matriculation makes a student an interested and earnest part of the college instead of delaying that fact for four years until he becomes an alumnus. The student on entering college is considered as having the interests of the college at heart and as likely to uphold her best traditions and to work unceasingly for her welfare. These theories are proved to be correct by the high measure of success resulting from entrusting the government and guidance of student bodies to such organizations as the Terrace Council.

We thank the old Council from 1915 for the service they have rendered us as a college and praise them for the selections they have made for the new Council from the class of 1916. To the four new members we give our warmest congratulations for the honor which is theirs and express our hope and belief that when the three final selections are made, the Council will be able to fulfill its offices with as complete success as have the Councils which have preceded it and will set up a lofty standard for those which are to follow.

CLASS SONGS.

Now is the time for the bards and songsters to rally to the service of their classes. Soon the inter-class song contest for the Fitzhugh Ludlow cup will be held and in order to have the contest a success there must be a good lot of earnest work put into it. Commencement week will be here soon and with it will come the eventful evening of the song contest. We may say here that it is one of the best forms of contest that have ever been instituted at Union or any other college. We should not overlook or neglect the opportunity which this contest offers of adding new songs to Union's already creditable list. It is the duty and privilege of every class to contribute as good and appropriate a college song as it can and then render it with as much skill and enthusiasm as possible. The time for writing class songs and beginning regular practice on them is at hand. Some of the classes have already begun active work on theirs. Has yours? Get busy! Get busy! Get busy!

COMMENCEMENT.

Graduate Council Issues Time Table for June 5-9.

Have you seen the "Good Time-Table in effect June 5th to 9th, 1915 for Every Railroad" (for they all lead to Union's 119th commencement)? If not, the table is what the Graduate Council is sending out this year to the alumni as information concerning Commencement Week. The Graduate Council is even printing a sign to tack on one's place of business ("I have gone to Schenectady to renew my youth. Return indefinite. Signed -----") and also an excuse to be used in securing permission from employer for leave in order that all may attend commencement:

Dear Employer:

Please excuse ----- from attending to business from June 5th to 9th inclusive. He won't be able to.

Yours very truly,

Parent or Guardian sign here.

The plans of the four under-classes are being worked out very carefully by their respective committees so that their share in the Alumni Night events may be well done. The two upper-classes are to present a circus, 1917 a Billy Sunday meeting, and 1918 a Naval Battle. It is a fact that from the wonderful harmony that has issued from the college buildings lately, the classes are busily engaged in practicing their songs for the Fitzhugh Ludlow cup which 1917 won last spring. As the time draws near, let us all get together and work to make the 119th commencement of Old Union one long to be remembered. Let us all make the college, the "fountain of youth," for the reunion classes: '45, '55, '65, '70, '75, '80, '85, '90, '95, '00, '05, '10, '12.

MOVING-UP EXERCISES.

The activities of Moving-Up Day commenced about four thirty Saturday morning when the sophs made a final rush on the frosh who were gathered around the well armored idol. Due to the large number of freshmen the sophomores were not able to approach the idol and as usual the first year men had a bright coat of red paint on the image when the scrap ended. The Moving-Up exercises began in the chapel about nine o'clock. After the chapel exercises the regular college meeting was held. The senior class, garbed in their caps and gowns, then marched around the chapel singing their class song. The members of the Terrace Council dropped out of the procession and as the junior class marched by tapped the men who are to form the nucleus of the new Terrace Council. The four men tapped were Carl Danner, of East Aurora, who is a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity; Horace Zimmer, of Johnstown, who is a member of the Delta Phi fraternity; Nathaniel Finch, of Buffalo, who is a member of the Alpha Delta Phi; and Foster Brown, of Schenectady, who is a member of Kappa Alpha. The Alouette song followed the choosing of the new Terrace Council. Gerritt Wood led the song which included some very clever remarks about the various members of the class. The exercises ended by singing Alma Mater after which the student body gathered around the idol while a coat of white paint was administered to it by the two under-classes and the freshmen burned their green caps.

THE LAW OF GRAVITATION.

(By Our Staff Poet.)

Moving-Up Day's come and gone
 With all its levity,
 And everybody moved along Quite simultaneously.

But really don't you think that those Who wear the Cap and Gown
 Are not exactly moving up—
 But rather moving down?

UNCONSCIOUS COMPLIMENTS.

We really should have mentioned this last week because it occurred at chapel meeting a week ago Monday, but on that day the Column got its first compliment. You remember that Dutch Smith on that day said: "By that time everybody is either gone or On Your Way," don't you?

OUR NATURAL ENEMIES.

An informal meeting of professors, assistant professors, and instructors occurred last Monday in Washburn Hall. Several teachers were present.

Dr. Hill, recently: "Women are objects of conspicuous waste." A bit tautological, eh Doc?

WARNING!

(Apologies to R. K.)

When a flapper leans on your elbow,
 Yes, such things sometimes occur,
 She may be a modest young school-girl
 Or an expert stenographer,
 Go to Proctor's—but leave the campus,
 Shun the doubts that blondes entail—
 For the female of the species gets more notice than the male.

MOSES VINEY SERIES.

"Resurrection" is the last poem of this series and will be concluded in the next issue:

RESURRECTION.

(A Medley.)

Morning.

De ashen gray ob de dawnin' comes ober
de redolent hill,
An' wid it de sleepy twitter from de willow dat arches de rill;
De golden spears ob de sunrise, dey challenge de timid sky,
De lark, he sings in de meadow as he opens his wings to fly.
A moment, a flood ob crimson, den a flash
an' de flamin' sun,
A moment, a burst ob music, a bref an' de day is begun.
Under my feet is de daisies, an' de sky it is up above, Aroun' me de bref ob de roses, an' in my bosom is love.

Chloa.

Chloa, my little Chloa,
Wid roses in yo' har!
I wish I was a king, Chloa,
An' I'd put diamonds thar.

Chloa, my only Chloa,
I looks into yo' eyes
An' dar I sees yo' woman soul,
An' woman's sacrifice.

I sees yo' heavin' bosom,
O, how my passions throng!
I'll kiss yo' in my dream, Chloa,
I would not do yo' wrong.

The Day.

O de row ob de cotton is weedy an' long
But I lightens de labor wid whistle an' song,
Fo' I is in lub wid Chloa.
An' a cabin I sees in de shade ob de trees Whar de song ob de birds, it is brought by de breeze
To me an' my little Chloa.

Evening.

Slowly de shadows is creepin' from out ob
de dimming west,
Softly de zephyrs is singin' de vesper service ob rest.

A mist comes up from de meadow an' night
comes down from de hill;

A star, an' de whir ob weary wings an' all ob de world is still.

Morning has gone wid de roses an' lub has taken his flight,

Chloa is under de daisies, an' I is alone tonight.

An' I ask ob Zephyr de question, why was de glorious morn,

An' why was de birds all a singin', an' why was my sweet lub born?

An' Zephyr she points wid her finger to de well-hoed cotton row

An' she says dat my lub an' singin' hab made it easy to hoe.

An' I ask ob de Night de question, O why did de cockle grow

From de willow-arched rill to hill-top de length ob de cotton row?

An' de Night, she speaks in a whisper, dat is low an' soft an' still

An' says dat my soul has been climbin' up to de top ob de hill.

An' I ask ob de Star de question, why has my lub taken flight,

An' why is de daisies a growin', why is dis
longin' tonight?

An' de Star says naught ob de daisies, naught ob de mound an' de sod

But I hears a voice like to Chloa's callin' my soul up to God.

(To be concluded.)

MOSES VINEY.

IN RE MOSES VINEY.

The following items taken from a ledger of Dr. Nott's, now in the possession of W.
T. Hanson, Jr., may be of interest to those who have been following the poetry credited to Moses Viney which has been appearing in the Concordiensis. The first entry is under date of July, 1855, and reads:

"To cash paid for his freedom ----$ 120.00

"Incidental expenses for same ----- 4.00

"Wages paid Moses from April 10, 1855, to October 10, 1859, 4 years and 6 months ----- 540.00

In addition, there is a note to the effect that on the death of Dr. Nott the estate is to pay Moses Viney one thousand dollars, "in token of the respect of myself and Mrs. Nott for his ability, integrity and fidelity, and especially his uniform devotion to our interests."

It is with great pleasure that we print the following poem from our former contributor, Mr. Mallia:

I came upon a summer's night;
You met me at the door;
Your cheeks were burning with delight;
They told the love you bore.

Ah, whispered words that scarcely live
And hours all flown—too fast!
What would my burdened spirit give—
But hush! That night is past.

I come tonight. How strange, how cold
Each voice; my eyes they fill;
How different from a voice of old—
But hush! that voice is still.

I see your face; 'tis set and white;
Your hands are pale and thin;
Some hearts are aching hard tonight,
But mine, it breaks within.

AN APPEAL TO THE ALUMNI.

The following is a reprint of the supplement to the Union Alumni Monthly, Vol. IV, No. 6, which is an appeal to Union alumni for their help in raising the remaining $35,000 necessary to obtain the General Education Board gift:

TO THE ALUMNI OF UNION COLLEGE:

I desire to set before you, the Sons of Union College, a unique opportunity to serve your Alma Mater. The General Education Board has generously modified the terms of their provisional gift of $75,000 for endowment. By the new provisions we must raise $225,000. Of this amount not more than $140,000 is to be expended for buildings, including the Gymnasium and the Bigelow Memorial. This $140,000 is practically assured. This leaves $85,000 for endowment besides the $75,000 pledged by the General Education Board. Of this amount we have about $50,000, leaving $35,000 still to be raised. The time expires in June, and we cannot ask for an extension of time. If pledges to that amount are not secured by June, we shall certainly lose $75,000. I do not believe the alumni of Union will allow the College to suffer this loss. On the contrary, I am confident that you will welcome this opportunity to show your devotion.

We hope you may be with us at Commencement to hear the announcement that with your help this fund has been completed and that our endowment by these new gifts has been raised to more than a million dollars.

ACTIVE INTEREST OF UNDER-GRADUATES IN ATHLETICS.

Statistics Show 50 Per Cent of Students Participate in Scheduled Games and Meets.

According to statistics compiled from the records of 1913-14 by Professor Stewart for the Alumni Monthly, fifty per cent of the students at Union participate in scheduled athletic games or meets. The events considered were those participated in by college teams and class teams as shown in the tables printed below.

The junior class designated in the tables below is the present senior and likewise the sophomore and freshman classes are respectively the present junior and sophomore classes. With the increased interest in athletics at Union due to the new gym and the victories of the past year there is undoubtedly a larger percentage of undergraduates taking part in organized sports.

The following table shows how the classes are represented in the various games:

"Bull" Durham an International Favorite

Smokers of experience and discrimination the world over obtain year-'round, daily enjoyment from "Bull" Durham tobacco. Men prominent in the social, business and public life of many nations find supreme tobacco satisfaction in the deliciously fresh, mild cigarettes of unique savor they roll for themselves, to their individual liking, from this wonderfully pure, mellow tobacco. Their distinguished example has made it correct, smart, fashionable to "Roll Your Own" upon every occasion.

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO

There is no purer, milder tobacco in the world than "Bull" Durham—none other with such a sweet, mellow, irresistible fragrance. This rare, balmy aroma is as delicate and elusive as it is distinctive and pleasing, and can only be retained and enjoyed in the fresh-rolled cigarette.

"Bull" Durham hand-made cigarettes afford wholesome enjoyment and lasting satisfaction to more millions of men than all other high-grade smoking tobaccos combined.
