FOOTBALL.

Middlebury, 6; Union, 18.

In one of the poorest exhibitions of football seen on the Campus for a long time, Middlebury was defeated by the score of eighteen to six. The poor showing of the Garnet team was undoubtedly due to the fact that for the last two weeks they have had no scrub eleven to practice with. In the last fifteen minutes of play, however, Union took a brace, and scored their three touchdowns, after Middlebury had taken the lead, and after they had realized that their chances of winning were slight. The team then made long gains in any play they undertook. Straight football was the principal kind of play, made necessary by the fact that many of the players were substitutes, and that, consequently, no trick plays could be attempted with any certainty of success.

The attendance on the part of the students was very small indeed, only half of the bleachers being occupied. Across the field, however, the reserved seats were well filled.

The game began shortly after three o'clock with Union defending the north goal; Middlebury, the south. "Hank" Stewart kicked off to Middlebury, who ran the ball back about fifteen yards. Being unable to gain, Middlebury punted to the right side of the field, the ball going out of bounds. Here "Stew" injured his knee, which has been in bad shape all the season, and was forced to retire, Smith taking his place as fullback, while Kriegsman filled Smith's place as halfback. Middlebury recovered the ball on Union's failure to make gains. Two end runs had worked well, when a double pass was tried, the runner going around Union's left end for about twenty yards, when he was finally tackled. This brought the ball to Union's five-yard line; but Union got the ball on a fumble. Sellnow replaced Mann at this point of the game.

Brown then made a long punt. Middlebury covered it well, and brought the ball to Union's twenty-yard line, only to lose it on downs. Brown again kicked, returning the ball to the middle of the field. Middlebury seemed unable to gain ground except on trick plays; consequently Union recovered the ball. Dewey then made a great run around Middlebury's left end, being finally tackled on the sidelines. By line bucks Union repeatedly made downs, Smith going through center for big gains. Middlebury recovered the ball on their five-yard line, and immediately punted to Shutler. Union held the ball on Middlebury's twenty-five-yard line, when the half ended.

Union came upon the field with the same lineup that finished the first half. Brown received Middlebury's kick-off and carried the ball back about ten yards. Being unable to gain, Union punted to Middlebury, who, in the same situation, was forced to kick back to Union. Shutler missed the punt, Barnes of Middlebury falling upon the ball. Middlebury, with the ball on Union's twenty-yard line, attempted a forward pass which Dewey broke up by catching the ball. Union then worked the forward pass for a gain of twenty yards. Upon a fake pass around Union's right end, Shutler tried a left onside kick, which struck one of the Union line men upon the back, thus penalizing Union. Leonard of Middlebury got the ball just as the umpire blew his whistle. The whistle so confused the Garnet eleven, who thought that the ball was to be brought back for the penalty, that all save Shutler stopped playing. The runner, however, chose the run rather than the penalty, and, with a clear field, made the touchdown, closely pursued by Shutler. The goal was kicked, giving Middlebury the lead by six to nothing.

Henceforth throughout the game, Union played great ball, with the result that Middlebury was unable to make downs even once. Brown was put in as halfback in place of Dewey, J. Stewart going in Brown's place as right tackle. Miller and Dunbar were substituted for Irish and Anderson; while Riley replaced Kriegsman. Smith kicked off to Middlebury, who, after making no gains, punted to Shutler. Union then worked a forward pass successfully. Middlebury, having received the ball on a fumble, again punted to Shutler. Riley was sent around Middlebury's left end for a big gain, and, on a delayed pass, carried the ball through their right line, thus bringing the ball to their fifteen-yard line. Shutler then covered the remaining distance in a long end run, Brown kicking the goal.

With the score tied Middlebury made a fancy kickoff to Brown. Then, by repeated onside kicks and end runs, the ball was brought to Middlebury's twenty-yard line, where Brown was unsuccessful in his try for a field goal. Middlebury then kicked from their twenty-five-yard line to Shutler, who brought the ball back a long distance. Here Micks was sent in as fullback. Union gained ground on a forward pass, Shutler to Brown, and on Riley's end runs. Micks then carried the ball five yards for a touchdown. Shutler kicked the goal, making the score twelve to nothing in Union's favor.

From the kick-off to the touchdown only three minutes were needed. Brown was pushed over the goal, Shutler making the last score by kicking the goal.

In the minute left for play, Union carried the ball to Middlebury's twenty-yard line, when the whistle blew.

The line-up was as follows:

Vermont Wins Cross-Country Run.

On Saturday, November 6, the cross-country season for Union came to a close, when the garnet team was defeated at Burlington by the four of the University of Vermont, the score being 15 to 13. The race, which covered four miles of the roughest sort of ground, was hotly contested from start to finish, and it was only by a slight lead that the Vermont team was able to win. The time for the full four miles was 23 minutes, 20 seconds.

The first mile, the roughest of all, was won by the Vermont men at a killing pace and it was by making this quarter of the run at a fast pace that Vermont found it possible to win, for the irregularities of the ground and the steep hills strained heavily the endurance of the Union men, whose training heretofore has been over far more level country. The last three miles were run at a slower pace until the last quarter mile. Rogers (Union) crossed the tape slightly in the lead of Basso (Vermont) who in turn was closely followed by Donahue and De Mai, each of Vermont. Travis, Coward and La Barron, all of Union, captured the next three places, respectively, and Stevens (Capt.) of Vermont finished without scoring. The following is the list of the number of points scored by each man:

Rogers (Union) .....	7
Basso (U. of V.) .....	6
Donahue (U. of V.) .....	5
De Mai (U. of V.) .....	4
Travis (Union) (Capt.) .....	3
Coward (Union) .....	2
La Barron (Union) .....	1

Total—University of Vermont, 15; Union, 13.
 Manager Grover and Captain Dennis accompanied the team.

DRAMATIC CLUB.

During the past year several organizations have been formed at Union. One of them, the Dramatic Club, has resumed its work. Every college organization should be supported, and supported well, by the fellows. Half-hearted efforts never bring results. Union needs, and will have very shortly a good Dramatic Club. Have you any dramatic ability or do you think you have? The best talent in the college should support every organization and give it good representation in the college world. As yet no play has been decided upon definitely. The officers of this organization who will manage it for the present season are: President, Coffin, '11; vice-president, Kriegsman, '10, and secretary, Shepard, '12. Should you have any suggestions to offer let these men have them. They are vitally interested and if the suggestions are of a sensible nature they will see that they are duly considered. Meetings are held every Tuesday evening in Silliman Hall directly after Y. M. C. A. meeting. All interested are invited to join on one of these evenings.

"SKE-DADDLE TO HAMILTON."

Elsewhere in this issue will be found a communication from Dr. Richmond. We are DR. RICH-MOND'S LETTER very glad that he has given us this opportunity of becoming better acquainted with Mrs. Richmond and himself. In speaking of this idea Dr. Richmond said that he means it and earnestly hopes that the students will take him at his word. He said that he does not want anyone to feel obliged to call but that he wants them to feel that they are most welcome at any time. He expressed the wish that those men especially would call who are not members of any fraternity. His purpose in doing this is that he may get into personal touch with all of the students and so become the personal friend of everyone in college. It is an excellent plan and one which should meet the approval of the students. "Prexy" has shown us that he is one of us and our friend and now it is "up to us" to show him that we fully appreciate what he is doing. In this way we can help ourselves as individuals and as a college. Keep some Sunday afternoon free from other engagements and visit Dr. and Mrs. Richmond.

PRESS CLUB.

While the football and cross-country teams are being cheered on to glory, a few loyal fellows are quietly striving for the advertisement and publicity of Old Union.

The College Calendar, which has been mentioned before, is now a reality. A committee is working hard getting subscriptions and making arrangements for the issue of it. This is a very large piece of work indeed. The calendar will certainly be a "corker." In size it will be a little larger than this paper, while its beauty cannot be put into words. Its covers will be of handsome leather with the Idol stamped on, probably in gold. Inside there will be six pages containing pictures of the four teams and of the most prominent buildings and points of interest on the "Hill."

A very favorable number in the several houses have subscribed and everyone, Freshman or Senior who has not done so should follow their example immediately. This calendar will be much more handsome and a great deal more interesting than any that can be bought anywhere else for double this cost. It will make a very appropriate Christmas or New Year present especially because of its reasonable price, which is one dollar.

The regular curriculum of the club is going on just as it has been except that everything is working more smoothly. Bulletins and results of games and articles of interest about the college and its activities are sent all over the country. Sub-freshmen are communicated with and games are announced to alumni living near the place where they are played through the mail. Pictures taken at all games are sent to papers and magazines and may be bought by the students in post card form at the reasonable rate of five cents each or six for a quarter.

At the last meeting the Press Club decided to help the embryo Dramatic Club to sprout. Every college has a "dramat" and there is no reason why we should not have one and a very fine one also. Support from the student body is all that is needed. The few fellows now out are boiling with enthusiasm and anyone who has or thinks he has talent should come out immediately.

COLLEGE MEETING, NOV. 8, 1909.

After singing of Alma Mater, the meeting was called to order by President Cavert.

"Hecky" gave a long talk about the spirit of the players and the students' attitude in coming out on the Scrubs to help the Varsity. He laid strong emphasis upon the bad showing of the team in general against Middlebury, saying that the score should have been doubled, that the fellows are not backing the eleven properly, but are quitting when they see no chance of making a U, and that men should be out there for the good of the college and themselves, not to make a U. He asked all those with any football ability in them, especially the Freshmen and Sophomore teams, to come out and work hard to help put the team in shape for the last two games.

Hutchins expressed himself in like manner and asked all those who were out at the first of the season to come out again.

Dr. Mac spoke a few words urging the quitters to become stickers. He also said that at least three hundred rooters should back the eleven at Hamilton.

A. C. Potter suggested the hat idea, which met with the approval of all.

Baker informed the students of the extremely low rate to Utica—$2.50 round trip.

"Invention and science have contributed to the joy of living. They have made life more wonderful than it has ever been before." So said United States Senator Root in addressing the students at the reopening of Hamilton College recently, and he added, "You are just beginning to enter into life. It rests to you to see what part you will play in the movements of the world, which are destined to be the most glorious ever seen." These are inspiring words and should be borne in mind by every student everywhere in this season of school and college opening.

ALUMNI.

1854.—One the first day of April, '09, Dr. Edwin W. Rice, celebrated the completion of fifty years of active work in the service of the American Sunday School Union. The event was fittingly celebrated at that time by the managers of the Union who gave a banquet in his honor and paid him due respect in other ways.

Immediately after his graduation from college Dr. Rice offered himself to the service of the Sunday School Union. From 1854 to 1859 he was engaged in the work of forming Sunday Schools, first in the upper Adirondack region, and then along the Wisconsin River. In 1859 he was sent to the Northwestern States as a permanent missionary. After serving there for over twelve years, during which he organized or aided over 1,100 Sunday Schools, he returned to Philadelphia as assistant secretary of missions. He served in this capacity for several years until he finally became the general editor of all the literature issued by the society.

The literature of the society in its books, periodicals, and other publications has felt the impress of Dr. Rice's guidance for a full generation. He has been a diligent writer and compiler of books, besides being the editor of the Sunday School World for many years.

In addition to his literary work he was chairman of the executive committee at a time when finances were in a very unsatisfactory condition. Under plans which he formulated and led in executing, the financial conditions of the society were improved, until it has emerged from a large debt and it now has a generous endowment fund.

Dr. Rice is one of our oldest living alumni, and his record is one of which every Union man should be proud.

1858.—Tuesday morning in chapel, the Rev. Richmond Fisk read the Scripture and lead in prayer. Dr. Fisk is a member of the class of 1858 and is at present pastor of a church in Ogdensburg, N. Y.

1863.—Robert M. Fuller, '63, who is a retired physician has sold his home at 12 North Ferry Street, New York City, and is coming to Schenectady as his permanent home. Mr. Fuller has attained distinction as an author and for having been a lecturer in the Medical College of New York University.

1865.—Two weeks ago John Wallace, a Union graduate in the Class of '65, died in New York City. At the time of his death he was engaged in the brokerage business. While in college he was a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity, and was active in athletics.

The report, although yet unconfirmed by President Richmond, has reached the college that by his will $50,000 is left to the fund for the new gymnasium.

1898.—The Rev. Walter M. Swann led chapel exercises Monday noontime. Mr. Swann graduated from Union in 1898 and is at present pastor of a Presbyterian Church in Jackson, Minn.

1900.—L. O. Ripley has recently tendered his resignation as Vice-President and General Manager of the Schenectady Illuminating Co., his resignation to take effect November 15, when he goes to the State of Kansas. Mr. Ripley was a graduate of Union in the class of 1900. For about a year after graduation he took up storage battery work with the Electric Launch Co., being located in Cooperstown most of the time. He went to Marathon, where he built a municipal plant in 1902-03. In 1903 he came back to Schenectady and was made superintendent of the Light and Power Department of the Schenectady Railway Co., at a time when the Railway and Illuminating Companies were together. In 1905 these two companies separated and he was made Vice-President and General Manager of the Schenectady Illuminating Co., from which position he has just recently resigned. Mr. Ripley is to become one of the Vice-Presidents of the American Light and Power Co. of Kansas and is to look after the interests of the company throughout the State. He will be situated at Wichita, Kansas, a city about as large as Schenectady.

1903.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ellsworth Doan announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret Janet, to Mr. Guy Brown Griswold on Tuesday, the twenty-sixth of October, one thousand nine hundred and nine, Cotesville, Pa.

Mr. Griswold is a graduate of Union of the class of 1903.

"SKE-DADDLE TO HAMILTON."

1903.—Prof. Bennett recently received a card from a 1903 Union man who is located in India. The card reads as follows:

Srimagar, Kashmir,

Oct. 4, 1909.

Dear Prof.:—

This is a fine country to follow "the primrose path," but I shall probably tear myself away in about two months. Am playing soldier now with 1st Punjat Vol. Rifles; the country is saved.

Best wishes,

W. J. DICKINSON.

A COMMUNICATION.

To the Editor of the Concordiensis:

Dear Sir:—

May I use your paper to extend an invitation to the students of the College? Mrs. Richmond and I are desirous of seeing something of the students in our home. We shall be at home to any who may care to come, every Sunday afternoon from half after three until five o'clock and it would give us great pleasure if the members of the several classes would form the habit of coming in quite informally on Sunday afternoons.

Faithfully yours,

CHARLES ALEXANDER RICHMOND.

8th Nov., 1909.

A teachers' college at Syracuse University was recently endowed by Mrs. Russell Sage, on her birthday, with a fund of $50,000. It is to bear the name of the Margaret Olivia Sage College. A movement is on foot to endow with $100,000 a School of Journalism at the same university. It will be devoted to practical, instead of theoretical, training of journalists. Such an institution has long been needed in this country, and Syracuse is an excellent place for it.

The remaining games on the Army's football schedule have been cancelled, because of the death of Cadet Byrne, whose injuries received in the game with Harvard last week, proved fatal. The Navy authorities seem rather reluctant to give up the annual contest between the two academies but may do so out of respect to the cadet.

HAMILTON FOOTBALL GAME SONGS.

Songs that are to be used Saturday at the football game with Hamilton at Clinton. Everyone get busy and learn the songs at once. "Everyone" includes YOU.

No. 1. Tune, Pony Boy."

Hamilton, Hamilton, surely you will be well done.

Hamilton, see us run
Down across the field.
Don't get sore at the score,
We're not thru with you.

Roll it up! Roll it up! Roll it up!

'Ray!! Here's to Union!

Hamilton, Hamilton, the game is just as good as won.

Watch our team, keep up steam,
That's the game they play.
To the score we'll add more;
Vic'try's ours to-day.

Smash 'em up! Rip 'em up! Clean 'em up!

Oh!—Poor Hamilton.

No. 2. Tune, "Down Beside the Sea."

Hamilton, good-bye, Hamilton, don't sigh,

Our Garnet 'leven is after you,
They're goin to tumble your Bluff and Blue.

Hamilton, good-bye, Hamilton, don't cry;

We'll roll up the score,
With touch-downs galore,

Hamilton, good-bye.

No. 3. Tune, She Began to Bump Just a Little Bit.

We began to score just a little bit,
Score, score, score, score, score just a little bit.
The Fat-man stood in the middle of the line
And opened up a hole there every time.
He rolled and fought 'till he could fight no more,
He squeezed the pigskin tight and cried:
"Ho! Yeho! We score, we score, we score!"

No. 4. Tune, "I Remember You."

We remember you; yes, indeed, we do.

You surely will be frazzled,
Just the way that you were dazzled,

On a certain day last fall in old Schenectady.

We remember you; yes, indeed, we do.

Oh! we're mighty Glad we've seen you.

Bet your life we're going to clean you.

We remember you!

COLLEGE NOTES.*In the First Aid Class.

Dr. Mac—What is the first thing to be done after taking the body from the water?

Stude—Take the water from the body.

The library committee held a meeting last week at which money was appropriated for the purchase of new books in the different departments of the library.

Somer, 1913, was compelled to leave for his home in Johnstown, on account of illness. He will probably be making classes again next week.

Remember the calendar which the Press Club is getting out; leather cover, handsomely embossed in gold, several leaves with many views of college interest and college life. The price is to be only one dollar. Orders may be taken at any time.

Dr. Richmond and Dr. Hoffman are to attend the inauguration of Dr. Shanklin as the new President of Wesleyan on Saturday of this week. They are to be not only guests of the college but also delegates to the inauguration, going upon special invitation.

Order your 1910 College Calendars of G. A. Woodward, Phi Gamma Delta House, including folder, 35 cents.

The first meeting of the Senior Class with Dr. Hoffman was held Tuesday evening at 7:45 in Silliman Hall. This class is to be of the order of a Bible class, but there will be discussions concerning matters of general interest instead of the regular teaching. It is certain to be helpful and enjoyable and all seniors should make it a point to attend all of these meetings.

From the looks now, we need not expect to have any skating rink on the campus this winter.

The part of the pasture on Union Street is being plowed and will be seeded so that it will present a respectable appearance to the eyes of those passing by.

TO ISAAC W. JACKSON.

When poets sang, in days of yore,
We often see it stated,
To some illustrious conqueror,
Their odes were dedicated.

I have a right then in these times,
When progress reigns, God bless her,
To sing, in ragged reckless rhymes,
To a beloved professor.

You're not the largest man on earth,
Nor do I love by weight, sir,
I like your noble soul, your worth,
Your mind and talent great, sir.

I like your skillful reasoning powers,
And fine imagination;
For these, with judgment such as yours,
Would grace the highest station.

I like you for your language pyre,
Your diagrams explicit,
You make your meaning too so sure,
The veriest fool can't miss it.

I like your manly gentleness,
Your witticisms merry,
Your energetic earnestness,
Your tinge of military.

Nor qualities alone I see,
I like your sunny smile, sir,
When, spite of class formality,
You act yourself, the while, sir.

I like you for your heart so true,
Your glance and lip expressive,
Your well-arranged "Mechanics" too;
But that would be digressive.

I like you, that bold impudence
You dare to lay the lash on,
And, like a man of sterling sense,
Look down on foolish fashion.

I like you for your charity,
You never fail to show, sir,
When students, from anxiety,
Blunder in what they know, sir.

I like you, that to you is given,
Perhaps by inspiration,
To hear the harmony of heaven,
Attuned at the creation.

When morning stars together sang
To see earth roll along,
And heaven's high vaults with echoes rang,
As angels caught the song.

And then again I like in you,
Those very speaking eyes, sir;
Grown "deeply, beautifully blue,"
From thinking of the skies, sir.

And all who 've seen your "Optics," say
With beauty they are fraught, sir;
Full of light and clear as day,
And eloquent with thought, sir.

You breathe life through the ghastly pile
Of mouldy mathematics;
You kindle interest by your style,
In "Statics" and "Dynamics."

You take the student by the hand,
And spite of predelections,
He feels he treads a charmed land,
While conning "Conic Sections."

I like in you that taste refined
For horticultural pleasures,
For it bespeaks a healthy mind
And body, priceless treasures.

I like you, that when asked for aid.
You do not pause and waver
And seem suspiciously afraid
To do a friend a favor.

But day departs, the red light flows
Aslant the sheet I'm writing,
And round your name more radiance throws
Than the pool soul inditing.

All virtues shine transcendently
In you, Professor Jackson,
And each of them I finally
Must beg to put the "max" on.

*After the death of Mr. Jackson, these verses were found among his papers. The author is unknown.

FORDHAM COACH OPPOSED TO TRAINING TABLE.

Coach Yargar of the Fordham football team, which has had such a surprising and remarkable success this year, making an exceptionally good showing against the big teams, has his own ideas of training table diet. In view of the success which his team has had so far they may be of interest. He says:

"I don't believe in the training table idea for football players. I think they ought to live naturally. I am going to try to keep this team in physical condition just as the professional ball teams do.

"Oh, yes, I let them eat pastry if they desire it. The only thing I have to do is to guard them against overloading their stomachs in the middle of the day. But I've found that if you let a young athlete know that he is expected to play football nature will soon direct him in the matter of food."
