California Wins.

The track and field athletic meet of California and Union upon the beautiful oval of the Ridgefield Athletic Club, Albany, May 30, was won by the western cracks, after the finest exhibition of college athletics ever seen in Albany.

The day was insufferably hot, nevertheless the large grand stand was packed with interested spectators of both sexes, who "rooted" for Union upon the least provocation, as well as repeatedly applauding the excellent performances of the Californians.

Both teams were in excellent condition, the Union men having been carefully trained by Captain Twiford for several weeks, while the Californians were fresh from their recent victories at Philadelphia, Princeton and Mott Haven.

Owing to the fact that the visitors would be unable to start more than two men in each event, third place was not counted in the score, first places winning five points and second places two.

It was in the running events that Union showed off to best advantage. Klein set the ball rolling by winning the 100-yards dash, while Kilpatrick had everything his own way in the three races he ran.

The time for the games to begin was advertised as 2.30 P. M., but it was somewhat later before Clerk of the Course Allen announced the first event, the Off like a shot at the crack of the pistol, the sprinters came down the track, Klein of Union just in the lead, with Scoggins of California a close second. The Union "rooters" let themselves loose and cheered wildly. Klein kept his lead and crossed the tape in $10\frac{1}{4}$ seconds. Union went wild.

The second event was the California decided not to enter this event, as Capt. Koch wished to save himself for the quarter mile and the jumps; so Kilpatrick took Lane in tow, and together they proceeded to make a tour of inspection of the track and grounds. They had a jolly good loaf and Kilpatrick "raised" his record to 2 m. $19\frac{3}{4}$ s., which seemed to amuse the spectators very much.

Event No. 3 was the Barnes won in $22\frac{3}{5}$ seconds, with Scoggins second. Unfortunately for Union, Sands was out of condition, owing to the illness from which he has suffered all spring. Had he been in his old form, another story might have been the result. O'Neill and Walker ran hard, but were outclassed.

In this event California won first and second places again, Dyer's time being 16 s. Woolsey was second.

The fifth event was looked forward to with anticipation by the spectators, and it came up to their expectations, being one of the gamiest races ever heeled and toed around the Ridgefield track. It was the Mervin took the lead at the start and Todd walked in his tracks once, twice, three times around the course, finishing with a plucky spurt that brought him abreast of the Californian; but the latter was just a trifle the better man and he spurted for the lead, which he regained and held, crossing the tape in 7 m. $50\frac{3}{4}$ s. with Todd three seconds behind.

And now the event of the day was to come.

Captain Koch had saved himself for this race to run against Kilpatrick, who was in championship form. The spectators were eager, and manifested their excitement by standing on their seats and howling like mad.

They expected a hard race, and they saw one.

At the crack of the pistol the runners were off, Kilpatrick leading in a wild, mad dash that Koch took from him and pluckily held. There was no "loaf" about this race. The two champions summoned every energy, and straining every nerve and muscle, they left the others far behind. That was Kil's pace—no less the "pace that kills."

The grand stand was a mass of howling, scrambling, scrapping humanity. Even though it had known that a record was being broken it couldn't have shown greater excitement. Had it done so it would probably have collapsed and let down its burden of humanity into a seething heap of joyous exultation, if such a paradox can be conceived.

Down on the home stretch came our champion with Koch still a close second, and 'mid cheers from a thousand throats crossed the tape in $50\frac{1}{5}$ seconds, beating the inter-collegiate record of $51\frac{1}{2}$.

Another and very exciting event was the

No. 25. B. A. Burtiss, '97.

The first five laps were "loafs." It looked very much as though the riders were trying to see who could hold back the hardest. But the last lap witnessed a grand race. Dozier had held the lead until passed by Campbell, who set a much faster pace. Then Burtiss, to use a slang expression, "got in with the push," and forced Dozier to take the lead anew. Campbell had now been passed by both Dozier and Burtiss, who proceeded to race the finish out in a manner that set the grand stand off again. Burtiss spurred for the lead, which he gained and held to within fifty yards of the finish, when he was passed by the Californian. Dozier won in 8 m. 18 s.

Williams 12--Union 0.

There were nearly a thousand people at Ridgefield, Saturday, when Williams demonstrated her superiority over Union upon the diamond. There is no getting around the fact that Williams can play ball. The great special feature of their play is its general excellence. Lewis is a hard puzzle to solve; Draper behind the bat has a runner at his mercy who tries to steal second; the rest of the team play ball all the while.

Crippled by the loss of Quinlan at catch, who dislocated his shoulder sliding bases in the Ridgefield game. The features in the game was a triple play in the second inning, when Howard caught a low and difficult fly off Lewis' bat. He touched second and put Ashton, who had run off second, out, and then quickly throwing the ball to Enders on first, Drysdale, who had run off like Ashton, was put out. Another feature was a double play in the fifth inning when Beattie caught a fly off Goodriche's bat, and threw it to Howard, putting Fitch out at second.

Williams started off in the first inning by scoring two runs, one of them earned, and the other was made on a wild throw of Captain Howard. In the fourth inning the score was doubled, although only one hit was made. The next three innings were quickly played, Union getting men on bases but finding it impossible for them to get further than third base. In their half of the third inning, Union should have scored. Sturdevant went out on strikes. Cregan made a nice hit, but in getting too far off second he was thrown out by Lewis. Enders reached first on a forced hit, and Sullivan followed with a clean hit to left field. Enders thought that he could reach third base and was thrown out, retiring the side, when the chances of Union scoring were very bright indeed.

In the eighth inning Williams scored two more runs, making its score six, and in the ninth the score was doubled. Union got rattled in the ninth, and two bad errors at critical times and four base hits were quite enough to do it.

The story of Union at the bat can be told in a few words. Lewis proved a puzzle, and when they had a chance to score poor judgement of the base runners prevented it.

Cricket at Union.

The fall term is likely to see the fine game of cricket established on our campus, and a team organized which will make a creditable showing against the cricket teams of the country. John Peacock, who is to enter '99, is one of the best cricket experts in the country, and has during the last three years played on some of the leading cricket elevens in the vicinity of the metropolis. He has the reputation of being a fine bowler as well as a very fast runner. Peacock is a Scotchman, and thereby comes naturally by his taste for the English game. For the last three years he has been the private secretary to R. C. Alexander, '80, editor of the Mail and Express.

Peacock has visited the college grounds, and he is enthusiastic over the adaptability of our campus for a cricket lay-out. He says it is unsurpassed by any cricket field he has seen in this country. With diligent practice and the employment for a few weeks of a professional coach, Peacock is confident that Union can put up a creditable game with Harvard, the University of Pennsylvania and Haverford College, which are now the crack college teams of the country. Pildain, '96, is also familiar with the game; and there are doubtless others who have a sufficient acquaintance with it to strive for places on the elevens. Peacock is an enthusiast in the sport, and will doubtless exert every effort consistent with his Freshman condition to popularize the game at Union. So far no New York college has introduced the game.

THE Adelphics discussed bi-metallism at their last meeting.

LAST Friday's junior chapel orations delivered by Messrs. Vossler, Westfall and D. L. Wood were entitled "Indian Eloquence," "American Humor," "Personal Influence."

THE CONCORDIENSIS has received the decennial number of the Phi Gamma, the local paper of the Presbyterian Church, Dubuque, Ia. It is edited by Monroe M. Cady, '66, and is worthy of mention as a very neat, attractive publication.

SPECIAL efforts are being put forth this year to make the students' convention at Northfield exceed that of all previous years, both in interest and in the number delegates in attendance. Among the list of speakers announced are the names of such men as President Patton of Princeton Mr. Frank Anderson of Oxford University, Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman and Mr. Robert E. Speer. Mr. Moody will not only speak frequently, but will also preside at the platform meetings. The Union College association is trying to send twenty delegates this year. Union men who are thinking of enjoying this season of physical and spiritual inspiration will find any of our Y. M. C. A. officers ready to give them necessary information.

THE VISIT to our college of Mr. E. Lawrence Hunt, one of the Y. M. C. A. general secretaries was greatly enjoyed by all who heard him. He occupied the pulpit of the State Street M. E. Church in the morning, and of the First Presbyterian Church in the evening of Sunday, May 26th, on which occasions his remarks were directed to inspiring a greater and wider interest in college Christian work, especially in connection with the approaching Northfield convention.

DURING commencement week, beginning with Saturday, the CONCORDIENSIS will get out a daily paper every morning. This is a phase in college journalism which has never before been undertaken at Union College, and the editors will do all they can to make it a success. The daily will contain a full account of all the exercises of the preceding day, and the first number will also contain biographies of all the noted men who will take part in the commencement exercises. It rests a good deal with the students and Alumni whether this undertaking will be a success or not, for without their subscriptions it cannot be run. The cost for the six numbers will be 25 cents and all orders should be sent to W. L. Huggins, Business Manager, Box 601, Schenectady, N. Y. All orders for extra commencement numbers should also be sent to the above address.

THE BASE ball game with Williams, Saturday, closed the season; not so happily as it might have, but not otherwise than the CONCORDIENSIS prophesied. True, we would rather have been proven a false prophet upon this particular occasion, but it was not to be.

Taken all in all the season has been a successful one, for it has marked a decided step in advance in base ball at Union. We have played better games against stronger teams than at any previous time, and while there was no pennant to win, we were playing to put the college in a higher class. We feel that this has been done; thus the season closes.

Owing to the ability of Manager Allen the team has been better managed than ever before; while to Captain Howard belongs the credit that it was the best trained.

THE University of Pennsylvania Courier says the trouble with Princeton is that she has a bad attack of colic caused by eating too much California fruit. We also ate some of the same fruit, but it failed to distress us. In fact it proved a very palatable dish for a very hot day.

The dual meet closed the season of general athletics, and, thanks to Captain Twiford and Manager Barnes, very auspiciously too. The energy displayed by the manager in securing a meet with California at the eleventh hour, and after he had been so unfairly dealt with at the hands of Williams, does not surprise us. We have always held that he has done more for track athletics at Union than any one other man. As to the captain, he has the satisfaction of having won the entire confidence and commendation of the student body. We could have had no better captain.

SINCE OUR last issue some important elections have been held upon the several athletic teams. Immediately after the Williams game the baseball team elected Chas. L. Enders, '96, captain for the ensuing year. The election was a close one, Sullivan, '96, being almost an equal choice.

Enders prepared for college at the Hartwick seminary, where he played ball for two years. Upon entering college he won for himself a place upon the 'varsity nine his first year. Since then he has covered first base every season, always putting up a steady, reliable game. Enders is a hard player. He uses his head at all times, and is never "out of the game." With the proper support he will doubtless captain the strongest base ball team that has ever worn the garnet.

At a recent meeting of the Athletic Advisory Board the names of Walter L. Terry and Chas. L. Clowe were submitted by the student body as candidates for assistant manager of the track team. Undoubtedly either candidate would creditably fill the office but after due deliberation Mr. Terry was chosen.

Walter L. Terry, '96, is a graduate of the Walton high school, where he took an active interest in athletics. During his connection with the college he has closely identified himself with the football team, playing centre rush a large part of last season. In the management of general athletics he will doubtless exhibit the same business and executive ability which has characterized his efforts in the many offices of trust he has enjoyed.

The other appointment was that of Paul Canfield, '97, as assistant manager of the football team.

Seniors are now resting.

THE EDITORIAL speculation in the last number of the University of Pennsylvania Courier as to the composition of the inter-collegiate team which may be sent abroad this summer, will prove interesting reading to Union men.

"The possibility of the inter-collegiate team going abroad, or we might even say the probability for the unofficial advices received have been very favorable—makes speculation as to its composition most interesting. The only man who is entitled to a place who will likely not be allowed to go is Crum, whose entry in the Sheffield handicap, which event would be contested prior to the international meet, renders him ineligible. Thus the team would be composed, in the sprints, Ramsdell and Richards; in the middle distances, Vincent, Koch, Kilpatrick and Hollister; in the mile, Orton and Kilpatrick; in the hurdles, Chase, Dyer, Bremer and Cady; in the high jump, Winsor and Leslie; in the broad jump, Sheldon and Stickney; in the weights, Hickok, Cross and Knipe and in the pole vault, Buchholz and Hoyt.

Thus composed Pennsylvania would have six representatives, Yale and Harvard five each, California two and Union and Dartmouth each one. Should Yale withdraw there would be little difficulty in supplying the places left vacant. Derr could as well represent America as Richards, while Cady would not be missed in the hurdles. Hickok would be the most serious loss, although Knipe and Edgren could do well enough to win without him. To Cross, of course, the same applies. Sheldon would be a valuable man but Ramsdell with Stickney and Rogers would fail but little of his performance so that he also might be dispensed with. The team thus composed would outclass the team last year sent abroad in all the track events, and on the field as well, save only in the broad jump. America should be ably represented by such a team."

Here and There.

The May number of the Harvard Monthly contained an excellent editorial, an abstract from which I publish below, deeming it particularly opportune for this number.

"In the matter of emphasis our college papers force the outer world inevitably to believe that athletics are the most important interest the student has, and invariably take precedence of matters academic and intellectual. Thus the papers give others a picture of ourselves which many of us feel to be, while not exactly false, too much out of drawing to be just. To many crude outsiders, Harvard represents primarily, a training place for athletes—and a rather unsuccessful one, and only secondarily a great institution of learning. Our papers, by a more careful distribution of emphasis, could do much to correct this impression. And the same thing is true with the outside press. The papers are filled with incessant accounts of athletics and an interminable rubbish of incredibly vulgar, trivial gossip; the man who leads his class and is first on the Phi Beta Kappa receives bare attention, the writer of an exceptionally brilliant thesis is ignored. The public, hearing continually of our play and not of our work, obtains a wholly distorted image of us."

An interesting geological expedition was made to the Helderbergs on Friday and Saturday, May 24 and 25. The party was composed of Messrs. Bayles, Craver, Blessing and Prof. Prosser. Three large boxes of fossils were secured. A large 1894 fossil which the party was unable to bring home was discovered, in the shape of a good sized snowbank lying in a hollow of the rocks. Prof. Prosser purposes making an extended trip to Clarksville, on the southeastern slope of the mountains. The result of these expeditions will some day be seen in the collection that is being made for the museum.

The Athletic Advisory Board has made the following appointments; Manager of track and field athletics, W. L. Terry, '96; assistant manager of the football team, Paul Canfield, '97.

EIN KLAGE LIED.

Hot, on his chair, a mad professor sat,
First at his watch he looked, then at his hat.
Lost in dismay, doubting their classmates' fate.
Three lonely 'pollers' stayed—the rest were late.
Hark! from without sweet song their ears salutes,
"Way up on the mountain tops" and "Oh, the boots."

Hearts made of stone 'twould melt, cause tears to shed;

But that Prof's brow grew dark—his wrath it fed.
"Hum! what care I, who college meeting grants?
Life on this earth 's too short!"—doorward, his glance.

* * * * *

Take warning, boys, when college meeting's late,
He'll give you zero; 'twas your classmates' fate.

A social was held last week at Prospect Hill Chapel, for all who have assisted in the work of that society. Several students who belong to this list of workers were present. Mr. Roup of New Brunswick, N. J., Theological Seminary, will preach in the chapel during the summer, thus continuing the services which for a number of months have been conducted by Messrs. Sanderson, Bayles, Eames and Dunham of Union, under the direction of Prof. Mosher.

The Junior engineering division gave an exhibition of fancy marching on the campus, immediately following the last college meeting.

The members of the musical association and their friends enjoyed a dance in the boat house Wednesday night. Previous to the dance a delightful hour was spent upon the river. The cool evening air was made resonant with the melodious strains of the mandolin and guitar.

3 ITEMS OF INTEREST:

Six of our "Leader" shirts to order for $9.00.

Shirts to your order—shirts that fit.

What does shirt fit mean? It means arms the right length—tails right length, neck-band right button holes that do not shift position after each laundrying, bosom that lies flat, and comfort generally.

We have recently started making shirts to order, using the same care as in making our clothes. Hundreds of fancy shirt patterns.

Shirtless man, come and get acquainted with us.

SAUL, Albany.

Maybe you're suspicious of black goods—that wouldn't be surprising. Your last black diagonal shone like a mirror before it was half worn.

If you'll take our word for it—37 years behind it—we have a black worsted material that won't glaze or shine.

We cut you as dressy a suit as ever draped a figure for $18.00.

Think of getting our high-grade work and finish in a black suit for that price.

Worth a visit?

Store closes at 6 P. M., Saturdays 10 P. M.

You can get the same hat somewhere else for $4.00.

Don't believe you will though, after reading this.

Choose your color—black, russett meduro and golden browns.

A column story wouldn't tell you any more about these derbys. Better come in.
