COMMENCEMENT

Hail 1906!

I

Come, boys, a song, now a triumphant chorus!

Hail, Nineteen, Six, Union's noblest and best.
Joining the ranks of Alumni before us.

Give us a rousing song for Union.
Class work is over and Prexy will say "Well Done!"
Many the triumphs we're leaving behind.

Chorus:

Come Nineteen Six, Praise your Old Alma Mater!
Give us a rousing cheer for Union.

II

Gone are the years since we first saw the campus.
Passed like the flight of a swift changing dream.
Now looking back o'er the record behind us.

Give us a rousing song for Union.
Many the conflict we've rushed into side by side.
Painted the Idol and later the Frosh.

Chorus:

Come Nineteen Six, Praise your Old Alma Mater!
Give us a rousing cheer for Union.

III

Chapel and class-rooms and old well known places
Smile on thy sons as we bid you goodbye.
Farewell our prof's, may your good genial faces

Dwell in our memories of Union.
Halls of Old Union, thy children will ne'er forget,
Loyal Alumni we'll meet yet again.

Chorus:

Come Nineteen Six, Praise your Old Alma Mater!
Give us a rousing cheer for Union.

The 1906 Commencement occurs during the week beginning Sunday, June 10th, when the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by President Raymond at the First Reformed church. On Monday among other events come the grove exercises under the Nott Elm; the extemporaneous prize speaking, and the Junior and Sophomore prize oratoricals. On Tuesday, Alumni Day, occur all the board meetings and elections, the Alumni reunion (this year there will be especial reunions of '46, '56, '66, '76, '86, '96, '01, and '03), the Class Day exercises, and the concert by the College Musical Clubs. Wednesday is the day set for Commencement exercises, the President's reception, and the Senior class reception. Hon. George B. McClellan will deliver the Chancellor's address. Unless otherwise stated all public exercises will be held in the First Reformed church. Alumni are requested to enter their names on the register in the College office as soon as possible after reaching Schenectady. A large number of the Alumni are expected back.

Commencement this year will be interesting in the extreme. The class will graduate more men than have the previous classes for a number of years. Then, too, the new Electrical Laboratory will receive its dedication in the Senior Ball, an event which will surpass the functions of the year by far. It has long been the desire to have such affairs on the campus and while this opportunity is only limited to the one ball it will be made use of to the fullest. Oratoricals will be interesting and will be held as usual in the chapel.

The calendar for Commencement week is as follows:

Sunday, June 10.

7:30 p. m.—Baccalaureate Sermon by President Raymond.

Monday, June 11.

3 p. m.—Grove Exercises by the Graduating Class, under the Old Elm Tree in Jackson's Garden.
7:30 p. m.—Extemporaneous Prize Speaking, and Junior and Sophomore Prize Oratory.

Tuesday, June 12.

10:00 a. m.—Meeting of the Board of Governors.
10:30 a. m.—Meeting of the Board of Trustees.
10:30 a. m.—Annual Meeting of the General Alumni Association.

12 m.—Ballotting for one Trustee to succeed the Rev. Philip H. Cole, D. D.

1:15 p. m.—Alumni Dinner (provided and served by the ladies of Schenectady) in the new Electrical Laboratory.

3:30 p. m.—Class Day Exercises of the Class of '06.

8 p. m.—Entertainment by the College Musical Clubs in the Van Curler Opera House.

Today's meet with R. P. I. should be a close one. Captain Waldron's ankle is still weak, but he will doubtless run in nearly his old form. Closson, '06, is out for a new record in the hammer throw, and the distance men are in fine form.

The knowledge that the fair sex has of baseball ball is well illustrated by a remark of a young lady at Saturday's game, when she said in the most innocent manner imaginable: "What are those men doing out there in the field?"

Moving Up Day

With much ceremony and pomp handed down by generations of traditions Union's Seniors led the Moving Up Day exercises on Monday morning. After the regular chapel service, the college business meeting elections were quickly disposed of and President Chapman of the student body resigned his position to Langley, '07, president of the Junior class. Then, to the tune of the class song the Seniors solemnly marched around the chapel in turn conducting the Juniors, the Sophomores and the Freshmen to seats a class higher. When all were seated By Reed, '06, sang the old "Allewetter" song, heartily aided in the chorus by the assembled student body. The march to the idol was then taken and once arrived at that sacred image everybody yelled up everybody else, while the belated Freshmen procured a can of white paint. The ex-'07's had a hard time determining to which class their allegiance belonged, a matter which terminated in their forcible abduction by their old classmates. The paint when it arrived was daubed on by the two underclasses. This procedure was accompanied by some difficulties owing to the fact that some enthusiastic Freshmen had become inflamed with zeal the night before and had painted the idol a dirty red. The color now in consequence verges from a brownish cream to a pea-green pink—rather more belligerent than neutral.

This ended the regular proceedings but all adjourned to the diamond where the two underclasses fought for final supremacy in a ball game.

'08-II, '09-8.

A baseball game between the sophomore and freshman classes brought the ceremonies to a fitting close and wiped away forever the doubt, (if any had ever existed) as to which was the better class. The freshmen played a plucky game, but were lacking somewhat in experience; and loose field work spoiled their occasional chances.

The two upper classes were seated upon the east bleachers, the Seniors in cap and gown. The classes supporting the opposing teams were located on the west bleachers, where cheering could be conducted to better advantage. The game started with '08 at the bat and Perry in the box for the freshmen. By way of practice the Sophs scamp-ered home four runs to get the game well started, and then shut out '09 in their turn at bat. Satisfied with their lead, '08 retired in the second, and let the freshmen get seven runs to make the game a little more interesting for the Seniors, some of whom were complaining, and threatening to leave. The game see-sawed back and forth until the eighth when the Sophs put on steam and pulled away from the lower class. Hildreth and Vogt, the sophomore battery, did fine work and, assisted by the almost errorless infield work were able at all times to hold down the other team. Sawyer, short-stop, Goff at third and Robinson in left field, the ex-'07 stars were in the game every minute and the weight of their experience aided the sophomores greatly. The freshmen have good material and should give next year's entering class some hard rubs in their class games.

Powell was on hand with his camera immediately after the game to secure the class pictures, but in eight seconds by the town clock not a freshman was in sight, and Syd, who was focusing his camera upon them came near taking a picture of the empty bleachers. This calamity averted, he took pictures of the sophomore class and baseball team and all adjourned for lunch.

President Raymond's Address

Because of the interest aroused in a statement made by President Raymond in an address delivered at the Founders' Day exercises of the College of the City of New York, the Concordiensis has obtained this portion of the address.

Speaking of the need of mental culture President Raymond said: "The mind of a child is like virgin soil naturally productive. The child looks out upon a new world. Everything is strange. He wonders and questions. He wants to know the relations of things, the reason for this and that. Parents and friends are sometimes startled, sometimes amused by his ideas, which are so original and fresh as to encourage the belief that he has an unusual mind. His bright sayings and astonishing questions are repeated and often recorded. This is but the spontaneous productiveness of virgin soil. As the years pass this natural vigor declines. He says fewer things that provoke comment, because everything becomes to him less strange and wonderful, and if his mind is left to itself it loses vigor like the soil that is called upon to yield successive harvests without being fertilized. At twenty-five years of age the average man, whose mind has not been enriched, whose thought has not been stimulated by study has lost much if not all of his early intellectual spontaneity and originality and thereafter goes on repeating either his own ideas previously formed or the ideas he receives from others. What the mind needs for continual vigor and productiveness is the cultivation that includes fertilization, and for this no subject of study compares with language. A language is the deposit of the current of thought of a nation or race for centuries. All the intellectual life of a people finds expression in its language. Every word is rich in suggestions, so that the study of language has the same effect upon the mind that a fertilizer has upon the soil. The value of the classical tongue lies especially in this 'to enrich and stimulate thought.'

SUNDAY VESPERS: The sixth in the series of Life Work Talks will be delivered by Dean Fiero of the Albany Law School on the "Law."

TUESDAY EVENING: Subject, "College Ethics," leader, White, '07.

At the Vesper Service last Sunday afternoon Mr. J. H. Saffred, Student Secretary of the State Executive Department of the Y. M. C. A., delivered a very interesting address on the "Secretaryship" as a life work.

Answers to Correspondents Conducted by Mamie.

Dear Mamie:—

If Professor Williams took a bolt would he be acting in accord with the rules of the faculty? Is cold cream good for a skin diamond?

MECHANICS.

Dear Mechanics:—

Decidedly yes. Though you had better see C. B. Pond for full information.

Cold cream is excellent though a heavy squeegee roller will work.

MAMIE.

Dear Mamie:—

I have been told by eminent authorities that one has to study Physics at Union College. Can you inform me as to this?

Why is Prexey anyway?

N. S.

Dear N. S.:—

You have been erroneously informed. See page 41144 in the World Almanac.

Y is the end of Prexey, my son.

MAMIE.

Dear Mamie:—

Who is responsible for the prompt treatment of the late scarlet fever episode? A bets that Ashie is and B says that Pond was the man. You will confer a great favor on me by replying promptly.

ANXIOUS.

Dear Anx.:—

Consult Dr. Towne, Joe Brown and Dr. Barnes, also Lalors Cyclopedia, Vol. XXIII, and Rebellion Record for 1861. I give it up.

MAMIE.

Dear Mamie:—

Having just arrived at Union can you inform me as to the nature of the Holland Inn and The Crown. I hear a lot about them but do not know what they are.

CONSTANT READER.

Dear Const.:—

You will have to see the A. B.'s Friday afternoon Club or Joe Galaise, my knowledge being limited on the above subject.

Tenderly,

MAMIE.

Dear Mamie:—

Does Prof. McKean care if you are late with your orations and essays, very late, I mean? FROSH.

Dear Frosh:—

You must hand them in some time during the term for which they are scheduled. If not you may get stuck and I wouldn't advise taking a chance. Of course do not paralyze him by handing them in on the day they are due as this is not customary and may establish a dangerous precedent.

MAMIE.

Dear Mamie:—

Can a man take more than eleven bolts in Eng. Lit. and live?

DOME.

Dear Dome:—

If you have the nerve I think you have you may survive; be extremely careful, however, and do not fall asleep at the switch.

MAMIE.

The Inlander of Michigan treats the hazing problem in a critical manner and decides that it is for the best of the freshman. Who ever doubted it, but the Saturday Gab Society Pink Tea Association?

Press Committee.

Once upon a time there was a press committee at Union College. The question is now: "Is it or is it not? If it is, it might as well not be, for it is harmless for good or evil, and, in the words of the oracle "A thing might as well be dead as harmless." We don't want dead ones! When we're away over Sunday we like to take up a paper with some degree of certainty that our baseball score will be located therein. Our alumni feel the same way about the matter, and get the impression that college activities are at their last gasp when no account of them occurs in the daily press.

Let there be news!

Interscholastic Meet.

Nothing so creates a favorable impression of a college among the preparatory schools of a community as interscholastic meets under its supervision. The process has been repeatedly tried with great success by many of our colleges, and it has been found to be a good way to draw men into the institution. Without much trouble we could conduct a meet of this character on the oval, and have the nearby high schools come to us instead of going to some more distant place. Our track compares very favorably with others of nearby universities, and would be an ideal place for an interscholastic meet.

Leland Stanford University.

Our sympathies should be extended to our sister university of the far west, which has just recovered sufficiently to find out the full extent of its great loss. Of the entire collection of magnificent buildings but one remains intact. Luckily the endowment fund will permit its being rebuilt as well as before in a space of four or five years, and Leland Stanford, Jr. University will again stand one of the most magnificent institutions in the world.

Brown is to erect a $300,000 library as a memorial to John Hay who graduated from that institution.

Union-Rochester Track Meet

On Saturday, May 12th, the college track team held its first dual meet of the season at Rochester. The contest was close throughout, and the lead kept changing from one team to the other, so that the score was not decided till the very last event. Rochester won with 61½ points to Union's 54½. The condition of Capt. Waldron was a great misfortune. Two sprained ankles crippled him so that he could not capture his usual number of first places. The new men on the team showed up well and good work is expected from them in the next two weeks. Of the old men Closson and von Dannenburg not only lived up to their old reputation but Closson did more by beating the college record in the hammer throw by seven feet.

The meet started auspiciously with Closson in the hammer ring and his phenomenal throws brought forth the only cheers heard during the afternoon from the Rochester bleachers. At the same time Wood, the crack Rochester man, made his first appearance on the field in the high jump in which event he captured first place at the low height of 5 ft. 1 in. The hundred and twenty yard hurdles followed and Langley easily captured first place, the run being made on a fast piece of turf. In the mile run Wood showed his great endurance powers by beating out Reed and Flowers in a pretty sprint at the end, a performance which he duplicated later in the two mile run. The track for the distance events was far from ideal, being merely a chalk mark around a somewhat irregular campus, leading through ditches and other rough places. An uphill stretch had to be run directly in the face of a heavy wind, a circumstance which lengthened the time greatly. Bidwell showed up well for Rochester in the sprints capturing first in both the hundred and two-hundred yard dashes. Raymond, '08, and Sammons, '09, came in ahead of the Rochester men in the half mile, one of the prettiest races of the day. Roosa, '09, won out in the low hurdles, Langley losing second to Goldstein by a unlucky stumble in the last ten yards.

The best events in regard to distance and time were the hammer throw, broad jump and the sprints. Capt. Waldron was encouraged by the showing of the team and asks only for hard work for the rest of the season. The events were as follows:

Hammer throw—Closson, U., 1st; Rankin, U., 2d; Goodsell, R., 3d. Distance, 112 ft. 10 in.

100 yard dash—Bidwell, R., 1st; Hafley, U., 2d; Kneeland, R., 3d. Time, 10.1 seconds.

Running high jump—Wood, R., Fowle, R., tied for 1st; Waldron, U., Wooden, R., tied for 3d. Height 5 ft. 1 in.

Running broad jump—Kneeland, R., 1st; Streibert, U., 2d; Goldstein, R., 3d. Distance, 22 ft. 1 in.

Union Wins Again A Very Close Game With R. P. I.

Last Saturday afternoon witnessed the third and hardest earned victory for the Garnet this year. The score was very close being nine to eight and won in the ninth inning. The game was the most exciting one from the spectators standpoint, that has been seen on the campus this year. It was a loose game poorly played with errors on both sides but Union deserves a lot of credit for pulling out of a bad hole. R. P. I. had the best of the game at the start scoring five runs in the first two innings. In the second Union scored a total of six runs but at the end of the first of the ninth the R. P. I. led by two scores. Things looked bad for Union, but with the heavy hitters up and good support from the bleachers three runs were captured. In the ninth inning Capt. Rider walked and Bayless advanced him to second reaching first himself on a poorly handled sacrifice. Davis made a hit scoring Rider and Bayless and tying the score. Harvey got to first on balls. Bergen and Huntington advanced him to third and he scored on Vanderbosh's long fly to centre field. When this run was scored there was only one man out but the game ended here.

Hagar, who has covered centre field so excellently ever since he has been in college, was called out of town on business, in the fifth inning. Bayless took his place. Hildreth made the first three base hit on the campus this year. Bergen and Davis batted very well, each getting three hits, one of Davis's being a two-bagger. Davis pitched well and excelled particularly in his fielding, getting six assists, five putouts and striking out three men, and playing an errorless game. Thompson, who pitched for R. P. I., was very steady but went "up" a little in the ninth.

UNION DEFEATS MIDDLEBURY

Fourth Consecutive Victory.

Union easily defeated Middlebury College Wednesday afternoon on the campus by a score of 9 to 2. The game was poorly played, being marked by many errors, Middlebury alone making eight. On account of a delayed train the Middlebury nine did not show up until late in the afternoon. The game was called at 5:15 p. m., and ended in the eighth inning on account of darkness.

In the absence of Captain Rider, Osborne covered first and acquitted himself in a highly creditable manner. His catch of Hildreth's wild throw in the second was the sensation of the game. Davis pitched well, striking out seven men and allowing only two to walk. Seven hits were made off of his delivery but except in the second inning when Middlebury scored two runs, they were of little account. In the first half of the fourth inning Middlebury had two men on bases and none out, but Davis, bracing up wonderfully, struck the next three out in one, two, three order. Hagar and Vogt carried off the batting honors, each getting two hits. Union scored one run in the first inning. In the second, after two men were put out, Middlebury succeeded in getting their only two runs in the game. A hit, a base on balls and Hagar's first error this season brought Duff and Shepard in. In the third Union scored twice putting her in the lead. At this point it looked as if the game would prove very close but in the sixth the home team brought in five runs. The three hits made by Vogt, Hildreth and Hagar and three costly errors made by the visitors caused Middlebury to go "up in the air" and the Union players batted all the way round.

Team Averages.

The baseball season is half over and it is interesting to note how the team averages up. Out of the five games played, Union has won four and has run up a score of 38 runs to their opponents' 28. The team is showing up well and should come out far ahead at the end of the season.
