UNION OVERWHELMS PRATT BY DECISIVE SCORE OF 31-17.

Union defeated the Pratt Institute five on the Armory Court last Saturday afternoon by the score of 31-17. In the first half, Union scored almost at will and showed flashes of stellar work. Pratt, during this time, was entirely at sea, but during the second half the Garnet took a temporary slump. Pratt then began to brace up, but played an unnecessarily rough game, the greater part of the second half being more of an exhibition of fighting than of basketball. Union, for the most part, played clean, fast ball and did excellent work in shooting and passing. McKinstry excelled for Union, making seven goals from the field. Littlebail played well for Pratt.

The game, which was played under the management of the Boat Club, did not start until nearly five o'clock owing to the non-appearance of McKinstry. Then it started with a rush and "Mac" and "Chic" were hard at work scoring. Pratt, taken by surprise, lost all their aggressiveness. During this half Union scored 20 points, holding her opponents to three baskets and two free throws.

The second half started more slowly and with both sides covering closely. Union's passing machine was out of order, though, and Pratt, taking advantage of this scored several baskets, aided by the roughest kind of playing. But after a few minutes of this, Union came back for blood. Hequembourg and McKinstry tallied twice and Union again took the lead. Pratt, under the Queensberry rules, played hard, but could do nothing. During the second half Schmidt, one of Pratt's forwards, was disqualified on fouls, but through the courtesy of the Union players was allowed to remain in the game. The final score was 31-17 in favor of Union. The summary:

PRATT (17).	UNION (31).
Littlebail -----	McKinstry
Right Forward.

Schmidt -----	Hequembourg
Left Forward.
Van Nostrand -----	Micks
Center.
Fleming -----	Coward
Right Guard.
Tuttle -----	Fairbairn
Left Guard.

Goals from field—Littlebail, 2; Schmidt, 1; Fleming, 2; Van Nostrand, 1; McKinstry, 7; Hequembourg, 3; Micks, 2; Coward, 1. Goals from foul—Littlebail, 5; Coward, 5. Referee—Tilden. Substitute—Resch for Fleming. Time of halves—20 minutes each. Won by Union.

SYRACUSE GAME TODAY.

The Union basketball five will meet Syracuse in the armory this afternoon in the last game of the season. The team has been practicing and training faithfully for the past week, and are in the best of condition for the game.

The Orange team is a fast one this year and it is expected that today's contest will be one of the closest that has been pulled off. Last Saturday Syracuse was decisively defeated by Colgate at Hamilton, but the team was not in the best of condition and a faster game will probably be played against Union. The armory court is about the same size as the one that Syracuse is accustomed to playing on, so they should not be seriously handicapped by being out of town.

The line-up for the game is as follows:

SYRACUSE.	UNION.
Bloom -----	Hequembourg
Left Forward.
Ryan -----	McKinstry
Right Forward.
Rugg -----	Micks
Center.
Davey -----	Fairbairn
Left Guard.
Tichnor (Capt.) -----	Coward
Right Guard.

THE TRI-LEAGUE DEBATE.

Union Loses to Both Colgate and Hamilton.

In the second annual tri-league debate, Colgate won both debates, Hamilton was victorious at Clinton, and Union lost to both of her rivals. In both contests the Union men were surpassed in oratory by their opponents, and this was in large measure the reason for their defeat. The subject was "For and against the Initiative and Referendum for New York State."

The Debate at Union.

At Schenectady Union's team, which was composed of K. E. Walser, '12; James A. Barkley, '12; Walter D. Cavert, '11, and A. B. Mann, '12, alternate, defended the negative against the following debaters from Colgate: J. H. Amberg, '12; F. E. Midkiff, '12; S. H. Conrad, '12, and D. T. Jones, '13, alternate.

The Union debaters were especially strong in the direct argument. Walser showed that the Initiative and Referendum would bring into our government worse evils than those which it is designed to cure. Barkley showed that it would not cure the existing evils in our government, and then advanced the short ballot system as the best remedy for any administrative evils.

Cavert, in closing the direct argument, showed that the affirmative had failed to outline a practical plan whereby the Initiative and Referendum could be put into operation, and then showed that the adoption of the direct primary system would be the most satisfactory method of curing the legislative evils.

Colgate, in their direct argument, confined themselves to the advocating of a general policy. Their first speaker showed that there are many evils in our government at present, and the other two speakers devoted their time to showing that the Initiative and Referendum would cure these evils, and that it would be practical in a state like New York.

The affirmative were all strong in their rebuttal speeches. Conrad was especially effective, and it was mainly due to his strong closing speech that they won the debate. The decision, however, was not unanimous, the vote being two to one. The judges were as follows: Hon. Benjamin E. Hall, Albany; Dr. Eugene W. Lyttle, Albany; Prof. Edgar C. Morris, Syracuse.

The Debate at Clinton.

Union upheld the affirmative against Hamilton at Clinton, the team being as follows: M. W. Bray, '11; A. D. Mann, '12; J. H. Potter, '12, and R. L. Streever, '12, alternate. The Hamilton team consisted of T. D. Martin, '11; G. R. Redenkapp, '12; F. R. Harper, '11, and W. C. DuBois, '12, alternate.

The Union team, in their direct argument, showed the evils of the present system, and then advance the Initiative and Referendum as the best remedy. They showed that it would be practical, that it was sound in principle and that there is strong precedent in its favor. The negative confined themselves to arguments against the system for New York State, and merely suggested the short ballot and direct primaries as better methods of curing any evils than the Initiative and Referendum.

The Hamilton weekly paper, "The Life" especially commended the work of Potter, giving him credit for being the best debater that appeared on the platform at Hamilton. The negative won the debate mainly by maintaining that the system is entirely unsuited to a state like New York.

The Debate at Colgate.

Colgate, defending the negative, won a unanimous decision over Hamilton. It is said that the debate was won mainly on a technicality, the two teams differing on the real issue involved in the question.

TERRACE COUNCIL MEETING.

Action Taken to Restrict Seniors to Leadership in But One Important Student Activity.

The members of the Terrace Council, at a recent meeting, discussed the advisability of restricting students to the leadership of but one of the student activities which demand the greatest amount of time during the senior year. It was thought that one person is often at the head of so many organizations that it is practically impossible for him to do full justice to any one of them.

After carefully considering the question it was decided that it would benefit both the seniors themselves and the undergraduate organizations, if no senior is allowed to hold at the same time more than one of the following nine offices: Football captain, football manager, baseball manager, basketball manager, track manager, manager of the Musical Association, editor-in-chief of the Concordiensis, president of the Christian Association and president of the Press Club.

If responsible for but one organization, a student could concentrate his energy on making it a success, instead of dividing his time between two or three activities as many of the seniors are now doing.

President Baker of the Terrace Council will bring this matter before the student body at the college meeting on next Monday. If any students have any objections to this idea, they should be prepared to bring them forward at that time.

BASEBALL PRACTICE BEGUN.

Baseball practice has been started in the gym. A large squad of candidates has reported to Captain Dunn, and with the abundance of veterans on hand, there is no reason why Union should not be represented by a winning baseball team this spring. As yet a coach has not been decided upon definitely.

A call has been issued to sophomores who wish to become candidates for assistant baseball manager to report to Assistant Manager Walser before Monday, March 6th.

THE BASKET-BALL SEASON.

The basketball season which closes this afternoon will be the most successful one since the organization of that branch of athletics at Union College. The success of our team is indeed gratifying to the whole student body and all interested in the college, for while we do not consider success in athletics as the true criterion by which to judge any institution of learning, the fact remains that victory or defeat in athletics materially affects our standing in the inter-collegiate world.

The victories which our team has won might be ascribed to various reasons, but at the bottom of our success lies the ability of the coach and the earnest and faithful work of the players. Never before have we had a coach who has been able to build up so strong a defense and instill into the players so aggressive a spirit. Never before have we had a captain who has labored harder for the success of the team. Never before have we had players who have trained and practised more faithfully. Let the student body give praise to those to whom it is due.

STUDENT PUBLICATION BOARD.

The members of the Student Publication Board, as the Literary Board is to be called, has at last completed the constitution and the by-laws. Much time has been spent by both the student and faculty members of the Board in drawing them up, and it is felt that when the Board is completely organized, a marked improvement will be shown in both the editorial and business departments of the student publications.

The constitution and by-laws will both be presented for ratification at the college meeting on Monday. Before that time they should be carefully read over, in order that any objections or criticisms may be made at that time. For while they are the result of careful thought on the part of those by whom they were drawn up, there may be provisions which others may consider detrimental to the success of the publications.

When the class of 1914 graduates from Mt. Holyoke, secret societies will be a thing of the past at that college.

Alumni News.

EDITED BY GRADUATE COUNCIL

SCHENECTADY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION FORMED.

On Monday night a meeting of the local alumni was held in the college chapel and those present organized an association for the city of Schenectady and Scotia. In the past, these places were included in the territory of the Albany association, as was Troy. Last year Troy formed an organization of its own and by following their example Schenectady has given the college another active alumni association. The large number of graduates living in town, together with its nearness to the college, should make this new organization a model one. No city outside of New York has so many Union men, the number here being 283.

This first meeting was most enthusiastic and was notable as regards the part played in it by the recent graduates. We hear much of the new spirit our graduates are showing and those who doubt the reality of this change would have been convinced by seeing this meeting. Dr. Richmond addressed the gathering and after short speeches by several alumni a constitution was adopted and its officers elected. This makes the eleventh Union College Alumni Association enjoying active life, an increase of six over last year. There are still three old associations that have not renewed their meetings and there remain many places where such organizations might be formed.

The officers are: Gerardus Smith, '79, president; Dr. C. C. Duryee, '82, mayor of Schenectady, vice-president; Dann L. Wood, '97, secretary and treasurer; Joseph H. Clements, Jr., '01, and Glawacki R. Parker, '03, members of the executive committee.

SPECIAL HELP.

At various times this page has spoken about the kinds of help the alumni can give the college. On Saturday, March 4th, there will be a meeting of the alumni engaged in newspaper work, that we may learn the best ways of bringing Union before the public. The answers to this invitation have been most encouraging. Many of the men can not come because of the nature of their work but the interest shown by their answers to our letters has been of value. Our prominent New York journalists have all shown special interest and the college should get much valuable advice from these sons. Each alumnus has something he can give to Union which will increase her usefulness. It is the purpose of the Graduate Council to point out ways in which this may be brought about. The newspaper men were the first called upon and they have responded loyally.

NOTES.

1860. Wm. H. McElroy spoke before the annual meeting of the Missouri Manufacturers' Association at St. Louis on February 25th. His subject was "A Good Word for Optimism." Mr. McElroy is in demand as a public speaker, for his sense of the ridiculous is most entertaining. During his career as a newspaper man in New York, he found time to write humorous articles for papers other than the Tribune of which he was the editor.

1881. Alexander M. Vedder, formerly County Judge for Schenectady, is now Surrogate of Schenectady county.

1891. James W. Ferguson of Amsterdam has recently been appointed transfer tax attorney of Montgomery county.

DEATHS.

1844. Walter S. Hubbell died recently at Canandaigua, N. Y., in which town he had been a prominent pioneer. Mr. Hubbell left a large estate and gave liberally to many charities. Among these were The American Bible Society, American Tract Society, American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, Congregational Home Missionary Society and several local organizations.

AS THE HOME PAPER HEARS IT.

The following recently appeared in a Port Chester newspaper, and is an interesting illustration of the way the "home paper" hears the news. The last paragraph is especially interesting:

"J. Vincent Baker, of this village, represented Union College, of Schenectady, at a big indoor track and field meet on Washington's Birthday. Baker took part in the high jump. He had a handicap of six inches and finished second, winning a handsome watch as a prize. Baker, the winner of the event and the man who took third place, were all tied with an actual leap of five feet four inches. The handicaps did the placing of the men. "Vinc" went down to the meet without any special training other than the splendid condition in which he keeps himself, and his performance, especially against some of the best men in the smaller colleges, speaks well for him.

"Baker has also made the Union 'Varsity basketball team. So it is reported. In a recent game he landed fifteen out of the twenty points scored by the up-State college. These points were almost enough to win the game in themselves. In this same game he was forced to retire because of injuries, being kicked hard in the thigh. He has not played since, but will soon be back in the game."

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL.

Manager Dewey, of the 1913 basketball team, has arranged several hard games to wind up the season. The team has not received a defeat as yet this year and the men are working hard to close the season with a clean record. Saturday afternoon, as a preliminary to the Syracuse-Union game, the Sophomore quintet will again clash with the Freshmen.

On Friday, Feb. 10, the team will go to Gloversville to play the High School five. Arrangements are pending for a game with the Schenectady High School team.

In the tri-league debate between Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania, Cornell won both debates. The subject was the same as that on which the Union debaters recently defeated Cornell.

MUSICAL CLUBS PLEASE AUDIENCES AT TARRYTOWN AND NEW YORK.

The Musical Clubs gave successful concerts at Tarrytown and Brooklyn on last Friday and Saturday respectively. This was the first time for several years that the clubs had taken a trip down the river, and all who attended the concerts were unanimous in praising the clubs. The following letter which was recently received from a Tarrytown alumnus well expresses the sentiments of those attending the concerts.

Tarrytown, N. Y., February 27, 1911.

Editor "Concordiensis."

Dear Sir:—I must say a word to the Union boys, who appeared in our town last Friday night and gave one of the best concerts that has ever been given here. I have heard so many praises that I am congratulating myself all the more that I am a Union man. Colgate and Hamilton have appeared here several times during the past few years and to hear alumni of those institutions praise our concert and say it was the best that has ever been here ought to make any Union man feel proud. The clubs are certainly far superior to those of five years ago and I think are advertising the college far more than any other organization. I am sure the people of Tarrytown have a kind feeling for Union now and know more about her.

I know if Union should appear here again we will have no trouble in filling the house, for I have heard many say they were sorry to have missed the treat.

May the Washington Irving High School again have the pleasure of entertaining such a representative body of college men.

Yours in the Spirit of Union,
 PAUL J. HAGAR, '06.
