FRATERNITY SPIRIT vs. COLLEGE SPIRIT.

Views of an Alumnus.

This subject is one that can be brought to the minds of the student body at any time. At all times there is much discussion of ways to arouse college spirit. These outbursts are most apparent on the eve of some athletic contest. But there is need to have it on tap all the time.

There has always been apparent at Union a sacrificing of college spirit to fraternity spirit. Is this as it should be? There can be but one answer. The fraternity is the outgrowth of the college and as such owes its existence to the college. The general belief of the "frat" man, at least from his attitude, seems to be that the college exists for the fraternity. Everything is sacrificed for the apparent honor of his fraternity.

Deals which would have done credit to Boss Tweed are made all for the paltry honor that one of his fraternity should be some class officer. Games are lost that one of his own men may play in that game.

This may be picturing an extreme case but accusations such as these have been made. If there were no cause for them they would not be made. Such a fraternity spirit is an unjust one. The fraternity as a chapter is thereby weakened, the individual man is losing his sense of honor and greatest of all college spirit is being lost. When this is gone the college ceases to exist as a living, active institution, the fraternities, having chapters there, withdraw their charters, and the occupation of the narrow minded "frat" man is gone.

There can be no remedies for such things and the fraternity system can be a great power in furnishing the remedy—one that can do an immense amount of good in engendering college spirit into the undergraduate and retaining the interest of the college alumni. This may be accomplished in at least three ways—first in training its own members, second in making friends outside of the chapter and third by selecting the best man for the place.

There is no need to mention methods or ways to inspire spirit into the undergraduate fraternity man. Each fraternity probably has its own methods—the success of which is known to themselves. If this training is no narrow one then the man will be brought to see that it is for the good of his college, his fraternity and himself that he make friends outside of his own circle.

Men in the upper classes know only too well how narrow their range of friendship is. There are with only few exceptions, no men with whom they are really acquainted and then they do not become so until they are ready to part. Friends and acquaintances are of estimable advantage to any one, and they will prove especially so when the college man goes out to battle against the world. This can be remedied. Each fraternity can entertain a class at a time at a smoker. The "gym" can be obtained for college smokers. At these gatherings every man should make it his personal duty to see that all his acquaintances are there. College songs, some old alumni to tell incidents of games and meets of their day will aid materially. Addresses by captains and managers and other well known men in college will inspire enthusiasm. Have members of the faculty there. Let every one be there to see and to be seen, to acquaint themselves and to become acquainted. Campus meetings, class whist tournaments, billiard tournaments, all such affairs ought to be turned to advantage.

After the man's playing has been seen, after the man's worth has been proven and the man become known, then and only then can the best man be selected for the place.

Let every man with the interests of Old Union at heart ponder over these things. Become acquainted with each other. Eliminate these deals and vote for the man, not for the faction. Do not let it be said of Union, the mother of fraternities, that these fraternity spirit counts more than college spirit; rather let it be said that fraternity spirit and college spirit are working together to the immense advantage of both.

UNIUS, '04.

DR. NOTT'S WAY.

A New Anecdote of the Great President.

Being asked once whether he had any personal recollection of Dr. Nott, Dr. James R. Truax '76, replied:

"Oh, no! He was dust and a shadow before I entered college. All I encountered of him was the old coffin stove in my college room, and a more elaborate mantel stove in the parlor of the residence I occupied for many years, and the traditions that floated about at commencement. The late Alexander H. Rice, once governor of Massachusetts, told me this story about Dr. Nott's mode of dealing with offending students. To understand the point of it, it is necessary to remember that it relates to a time when postage was high and could be paid either by the sender or the receiver of a letter, also to bear in mind that the young man with whom the doctor had the interview was the son of a worthy but extremely penurious father." The story as told by Dr. Truax is as follows:

The boy had become troublesome to the faculty and Dr. Nott had summoned him to his presence.

"My son," said the doctor, "I am sorry to learn that you are neglecting your studies and spending your time in ways not altogether creditable. I have great confidence in you, nevertheless, and if you will give me your word that you will at once amend your ways, I will give you an opportunity to remain. Otherwise, I will have to ask your father to take you home."

To this the young man replied: "Well, doctor, you have such a good opinion of my word, that I fear to make any promise, lest I should break it, and destroy your regard for me."

"Very well, then, I will write to your father to take you off my hands."

The president stiffly bowed, and the young man withdrew.

As soon as the door had been closed between them, each felt that he had gone further than he intended. The president concluded he would recall the student and offer him another chance to redeem himself, promise or no promise, and the young man decided that he would go back and tell

Dr. Nott that he would rather make a pledge to do better than to be sent home.

Both took hold of the door knob at the same instant, and each immediately recognized the change of mind undergone by the other. Consequently when the door was opened each had recovered his former firmness.

"Well!" said the doctor.

"Well!" said the young man.

"You have decided to give me your word, I presume."

"Oh, no! I merely came back to say that if you write my father, you should be certain to pay the postage in advance; otherwise he will never take the letter from the office and I will be left on your hands after all."

President Nott, it is said, concluded that it was worth his while to keep so clever a lad, and the letter was never written.

THE VESPER SERVICE.

Rev. Robert C. Clements, '91, Speaks.

A large number was present at the vesper service Sunday afternoon. In the absence of President MacGregor, Vice-President West assumed the leadership. The opening prayer was given by the Rev. Harvey Clements, '95, a brother of the principal speaker, both of whom are Union graduates.

After a few words of introduction by Mr. West, who alluded to the inability of Dr. Ellery to be present, the Rev. Robert C. Clements began a most interesting address, the text of which is to be found in Heb. 6: 1, attention also being called to the closing verses of chapter five. The theme of the discourse was Christ's perfection as exemplified in His life. Mr. Clements said that every step toward perfection signified a certain growth in character and likeness to Christ. Repentance of itself cannot mould a Christian character although it may enter largely into the progress man makes toward Christ-likeness.

The spirit of the times for a greater physical and mental development was alluded to, and emphasis was placed upon the attention which should be given to man's spiritual advancement. "There is great need," said Mr. Clements, "of men of righteousness and high ideals and for men who seek to mould their characters in the likeness of Jesus Christ."

Reference was made to the "Sermon on the Mount" in which Jesus, Himself, was the embodiment of the exhortation.

Mr. Clements said that we are apt to doubt as did Thomas, because we have not yet arrived at a clear conception of what God's relation to man really is. Adam did not maintain that relation and as a consequence a veil was drawn between him and his God. As proof of this relation Mr. Clements referred to the physical likeness of Jesus and man, and said that although we do not see Christ, yet man himself is the embodiment of God's great work, and no matter how depraved or sunken he may be there is always some quality in him by virtue of which his kinship to God is established.

In closing Mr. Clements advised against the tendency of resorting to religion as a panacea for all our ills and not really understanding what God and religion mean, or to quote his last few words,—“Let us know Him, the Hope and Only Hope.”

COLLEGE BRIEFS.

The Musical Clubs have announced that the first concert of the season will be held in the Emmanuel Baptist church, in Nott terrace, on the evening of November 15.

Dr. Ellery was unable to return to his duties this week but it is expected that he will be in his class room next Monday morning as usual.

The Freshmen scored one on the Sophomores when they painted the Idol red with a white band around its chest. From a distance it looked almost as beautiful as one of the 1907 jerseys.

The "parade" after the R. P. I. game Saturday was the closest the fellows have come to showing college spirit in some time. It made many of the citizens of Schenectady think of the time when Union ranked among the first of the smaller colleges and when a defeat was the exception and not the rule. Let us have more "parades."

Kluge was struck by a trolley car while walking down Union avenue, Wednesday. The accident hurt the car more than it did Kluge. This speaks well for Bill Smith and the training table.

The instrumental and glee clubs had a group picture taken on Tuesday. The plate will be used for advertising purposes.

The Sophomore football team will play Albany High School, at Albany, on Monday. The game ought to be an interesting one.

At the meeting of the Adelpic society on last Wednesday, the question debated was: Resolved, That there should be a third political party. Losee, '05, was the leader for the affirmative, and Hart, '05, for the negative. The debate was decided for the affirmative. Next Wednesday the question to be brought up before the Adelpic society is: Resolved, That the acts of the United States government, in regard to Panama, deserve our disapproval. Thompson, '05, will lead the affirmative, and McClenthen, '06, the negative.

On account of the muddy state of the campus the Junior-Sophomore football game, scheduled for last Wednesday, was postponed.

Mr. Smith, substitute professor of Chemistry, has returned to Hamilton, New York, where he holds the position of assistant professor of Chemistry in Colgate University.

Schenectady High School played Troy High School on the campus, Thursday. The score was 11-0 in favor of Troy.

Strong, '99, was a visitor at the R. P. I. game.

President Raymond attended the exercises connected with the inauguration of President Luther at Trinity college. In the procession the representatives of the universities formed in order of the date of the founding of their institutions, President Raymond was thirteenth, being preceded by the presidents of Harvard, Yale, University of Pennsylvania, Princeton, Columbia, Brown, Rutgers, Dartmouth, Dickinson, Williams and Bowdoin.

The Junior canes have been ordered and will soon be here.

Several of the 1904 men, Mullenneaux, Stiles, Fiero, Lawsing, Hays, Putnam and Guardenier, were on the hill Saturday.

Several Junior caps with a mystic symbol have appeared on the campus recently. A Third Party? Was it's?

The Freshmen Jerseys have come. They are of the same style as 1907's. The colors are garnet and black.

Ye ancient Greeks and Romans were taken out for an airing lately to the evident discomfiture of at least one of their number.

Theodore DeL. Coffin, '02, was visiting friends on the hill last Monday.

After the R. P. I. game a number of students got together and paraded down State street with a large Union pennant belonging to Chapman, '06.

Pay up! Work on the skating rink cannot begin until the money is in hand.

It is expected that the 1906 Garnet will make its appearance in January instead of during the Spring term.

The Sophomores and Freshmen of the high school, met in a football game on the campus, Saturday morning, which was won by the latter by the score of 11 to 0.

All individual pictures of Juniors, for the Garnet, must be taken at MacLean's sccessor, White, before. October 28.

Smith and Gilmour are attending the Delta Upsilon national convention at Chicago.

COLLEGE MEETING.

At a college meeting, Monday, the following announcements were made: Postponement of the track meet to Tuesday at 3:30; Junior hop for Friday, the 28th; progress on the skating rink; Musical Club rehearsal.

Dear Mr. Hart:—

Please find inclosed draft on New York for $2.00 to pay my subscription to "The Concordiensis." The paper as now issued reflects great credit upon you as the Business Manager, the Editors, Reporters, and Old Union. I have been taking "The Concordiensis" for several years and the present one is far superior to any I have knowledge of in the past. The mechanical work, style and finish is fine and the subjects of the Editorials are well expressed, concise and clear.

Wishing you the greatest success, I am,

Yours fraternally,

AND A LITTLE CHILD SHALL LEAD THEM.

How pleasant it is to view the joys of childhood! What a privilege to behold on the campus every afternoon, Sunday included, the innocent intrusions and the bubbling over of unrestrained mirth.

Back to our own infantile days it takes us, when we used to romp over a college campus. We just owned that campus, we did. A cop didn't dare bother us there. It was private land.

Remember how all the kids from all over the city used to come around every afternoon? We'd sit on the benches and hear the students swear because we wouldn't give them any room. O, it was great.

It used to be fun, too, for all of us to go on the field and bother the 'varsity football team in its practice. Lots of times they stopped just for us. Didn't it make the coach mad though?

The Faculty always seemed to like us. We used to play all around the buildings. Nobody ever said anything except a student once in a while when we would hook some of his things.

The games too—it was great sport to sneak in them and dodge around the foot ball manager. We were most afraid of a big man who was treasurer, or collector, or supervisor, or something, but he couldn't keep watch over the whole campus. Sometimes we had some of the best seats at the games too.

Wasn't it fun to yell things at everyone who came around up there? The fellows all said the campus was the best place to smoke and swear and scrap and play of any in the city.

We just owned those college grounds, we did.

Soph.—Did you make a place on the Glee Club at the try-out last night?

Fresh.—Yes, made first base on four bawls.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS WITHOUT SUPPORT

Manager Stevens of the Musical Association, is to be congratulated on the way he has taken hold of the work in arranging for the concerts and trips to be given in the near future. The combined Musical Clubs have had a group picture taken which will be used for advertising. This alone shows the spirit and interest taken in that branch of college activities.

It is the purpose of the clubs to give a concert in Schenectady about the 15th of November and about that time one in Mechanicsville and one in Gloversville. At Thanksgiving time if all goes well a four days trip will be taken.

Reed, '06, leader of the clubs, has been working hard to prepare the men for these concerts. There are two rehearsals a week and much is being accomplished at these meetings.

The students are turning out well and lots of material has shown up. There are twenty men on the Glee Club and about the same number on the Instrumental Club. The interest shown is of the best and should be encouraged as much as possible.

The college is to be ably represented this season in this line, and those college men not taking an active part should be ready at all times to support the efforts of the association.

The best way to do this is to show you are behind it, and the way to do that is to pay up all taxes.

Elsewhere in these columns we print a charming story about President Nott from the Gazette, to which it was contributed by Dr. James R. Truax, '76, who reached it as an incident of his acquaintance with the late Governor of Mass., Alex. H. Rice, '44.

We think that there may be many traditions of Dr. Nott that might fittingly be preserved and we heartily invite alumni to send them for publication in the columns of this paper.

WE SLEPT.

And dreamed that Wadsworth, president of the Republican Club, occupied a carriage in the parade last Thursday night.

And dreamed that the students of Syracuse unveiled a memorial tablet to their Chancellor for prohibiting dancing in the university.

And dreamed that Morse, captain of the senior football team, made the All-American.

And dreamed that Judge Parker sent the Union College Democratic Club his thanks for its active, enthusiastic and effective campaign.

And dreamed that the "co-eds" of Minnesota so hurt the feelings of the male students by their snubs that the upper-classmen apologized for ungentlemanly conduct and decided to re-adopt the custom of tipping their hats.

And dreamed that the Philomathean and Adelpic meetings were so strongly attended that many were turned away.

By REV. ARTHUR DOUGALL.

Union '92.

Matt. 20: 25-28.

The selfish spirit of the world

Seeks riches, place and power.

Heedless of others' cares and needs

When storms of trouble lower.

Though earth with sorrows may be filled

With tears, and groans, and sighs,

The selfish heart ignores it all

And still pursues the prize.

But in the kingdom of our Lord

Let not this strife unseemly

Find any place; let love alone

In all things reign supremely.

Who bears the cross for Jesus' sake,

And lives His life of love,

Shall sit with Him upon His throne,

And wear the crown above.

Not lost, but sav'd eternally,

The life for others given;

For God is love, and love is life,

The endless life of heaven.

PHARMACY NOTES.

At a meeting of the senior class on Wednesday, Oct. 19th, the following officers were elected:

President, Chas. Gramp; vice pres., F. L. Haley; Sec., Chas. W. Burdick; Ass. Sec., F. A. Johnson; Cor. Sec., Miss A. J. Quinlan; treasurer, A. L. Neher.

After the results of the election were announced the retiring president, C. A. Gallagher, made an address, thanking the class for the support given him during the junior year and bespeaking the same for Gramp during his term of office. At the close of the meeting the class adjourned for refreshments.

The junior class at a meeting on Saturday, Oct. 15th, elected the following officers:

President, Kelley; Vice Pres., Bertrand; Rec. Sec., Sanford; Sec. and Treas., Miss K. Donahue.

The juniors are fortunate in counting among their number three young ladies. These three, with one senior Miss are, alas! the only ladies in the university.

The materia medica class are congratulating themselves upon Dr. Huested's addition to the course in the shape of a syllabus for the year's work and the distribution of specimens of crude drugs.

Dr. Laird, the new microscopy instructor, is to be commended for his lucid explanations, presenting a difficult subject in an interesting light.

A. C. P. students will turn out in a bunch with college colors for the carnival parade. Any other department coming?

LAW SCHOOL NOTES.

The Law Department has organized a Basket Ball Association, with the following officers:

Schuyler K. Sweeting, '05, manager.

H. Leslie Wilbur, '06, assistant manager.

Charles C. Chapelle, '05, captain.

Lewis M. Austin, '05, treasurer.

The first game of the season was played Tuesday night, when the Law opposed the Medic in the city Y. M. C. A. The game was won by the Law, the score being 14 to 0.

The Junior elections took place last week, resulting as follows:

President—C. H. Knapp.

Secretary—Marion H. Fisher.

Treasurer—Byron L. Davis.

Toastmaster—C. H. Knapp.

Chairman Executive Committee, H. L. Wilbur.

On Saturday night the basket ball team will play a local team. The Law team is fast developing into a speedy bunch.

There will be no lectures on Monday the 31st, in compliance with the request of the Mayor of Albany.

The local chapter of Delta Chi has held its fall initiation of men from the Junior class.

THE FALL TOURNAMENT.

A fall tournament in tennis is now going on, but so far only the preliminaries have been played. The enthusiasm, rivalry and interest shown by the players is somewhat better than in previous years. There is some good material in the Freshman class, and there seems at present no reason why Union should not turn out a good team. To a Concordiensis reporter President King spoke enthusiastically of the match with Hamilton and said that so far he had arranged no other.

The list of those entered:

Raymond, '05,	Chapman, '06,	E. King, '05,
Thompson, '05,	Dwight, '06,	McMullen, '07,

RATHER SARCASTIC.

It has been suggested that a new undergraduate club be organized this year to be known as the "Faculty Club." Quite remarkable is the number of "faculty sons" that are in college at present. Up to this year there have never been but three sons of members of the college faculty graduate from college, but at present there are seven in the undergraduate body. ## FOOT BALL FOR THE WEEK.

Practice has developed the fact, that the team has improved during the week. Norwood at right guard is a distinct move for the better while Shulter and MacNab must now play right end and quarter respectively. Robinson's knee gave out at Thursday's practice and Wright is laid up with water on the knee. The line up for Rutgers game will be the same as for last Saturday with the above exceptions.

The team has improved in offense and team work, and it is doubtful if it can be truthfully said as the Hamilton life mentioned in the last issue: "Hamilton completely outclassed Union on offense and with any kind of luck earned three touchdowns. Union's offense barely gained 20 yards throughout the game but her defence at critical moments was of the stonewall nature."

There has been improvement shown all around and the team is in good shape to show Rutgers a thing or two on the gridiron today.

It is the critical point of the season and the success of the season hinges largely on today's game. We are pitted against a team whose record below conveys strongly to us the fact that we have got to win.

The Springfield Republican says of the Wesleyan-Rutgers game:

"The two teams were evenly matched in weight. Brogger at left tackle was the lone star of the Rutgers team. Wesleyan gained her distance at will through her opponent's line and in three minutes had gained her first touchdown. All during the first half Wesleyan backs gained easily. At the beginning of the second half Rutgers took a brace and using tackle backs formation carried the ball to Wesleyan's 15 yard line when it was lost on downs."

There is a possibility that practice has developed Rutgers to such an extent that the contest will be a hard one for Union to win but according to present indications we ought to win easily.

The Rutgers line-up:

Green, l.e.; Brogger, l.t.; Black, l.g.; Tharp, c.; Koehler-Steinke, g.; Watson, r.t.; Murray W.

MacNeill, e.; Weaver-J. MacNeill, q.b.; Baker, l.h.b.; Rice-Holsten, r.h.b.; Cobb (Capt), f.b.

Rutgers' Record Up-to-Date.

Rutgers vs. Stevens—4-0.

Rutgers vs. Haverford—0-40.

Rutgers vs. Ursinus—0-37.

Rutgers vs. Wesleyan—0-39.

IN THE GOOD OLD FASHIONED WAY.

R. P. I. Decisively Defeated on the Campus.

For the first time since 1901, Union's team has, by superior playing and lasting qualities, succeeded in crossing her opponent's goal line five times during the course of an hour's play, and that without having her own goal seriously threatened once.

R. P. I. brought over a fair-sized delegation and at the request of President Raymond the bleachers on the west of the campus were reserved for them, Union's rooters contenting themselves with their old standing place at the foot of the mound.

The new megaphones were very much in evidence and those far enough removed to be able to judge, said that they added largely to cheering.

Owing to the new ground rule, that play must stop before sundown, effort was made to get the game started as soon as possible, but it was three-thirty before the players finally took their places, R. P. I. defending the north goal.

Union won the toss and chose the south goal. Jaeger kicked off to Moore on Union's 15 yard line and he advanced it 20 yards before being downed. After the team failed twice to penetrate R. P. I.'s line, Patton punted 40 yards to Elmer, who was downed in his tracks by Kluge. Rensselaer, by line bucks and plays outside of tackle, carried the ball 20 yards, but there fumbled and Nutt dropped on the ball on Union's 43 yard line. By means of tackle and end plays Union advanced the ball 57 yards, Patton, Harvey and Wright doing good work. Dann and Moore each ran for 10 yards. Harvey lost the ball to R. P. I. on her 10 yard line. Rensselaer slowly made 45 yards by short end runs and mass plays when Union braced up and held for downs on her 55 yard line. Patton and Harvey ran for 25 and 8 yards respectively and Moore dropped on the ball on a fumble. Patton, when running on the 25 yard line, was tackled hard and dropped the ball, Gifford regaining it for the visitors. Union held for two downs and Jaeger punted 15 yards to Harvey who advanced it 5 yards. At this point Union was penalized 10 yards for off-side play and Patton punted to Elmer who was neatly tackled by Davis before he could move a foot. Rensselaer fumbled on her 15 yard line but regained the ball 3 yards from her goal and Jaeger punted 30 yards to Harvey who was downed for no gain by Benjamin. Union tried a quarterback play which fizzled, and then Patton ran for a touchdown. Patton missed an easy goal.

In the second half McNab was substituted for Robinson. The play opened by Patton kicking off to Fox on R. P. I.'s 20 yard line. Fox ran for 5 yards when Raymond got him. Union held for downs on the 33 yard line and Patton ran for 8 yards and Harvey again demonstrated his ability by running behind splendid interference for 25 yards, laying the ball behind Rensselaer's goal line. Patton kicked an easy goal.

Patton kicked off to Heer who fumbled but regained the ball on the 25 yard line. R. P. I. lost 3 yards and Raymond tackled Clifton for a loss of 2 more. Jaeger kicked out of bounds and McNab got the ball on the 40 yard line. Dann ran 8 yards. Harvey made three runs which netted 32 yards and a third touchdown. Patton kicked out but in the resulting mix-up Stillman got the ball.

Patton kicked off to Jaeger who was downed on the 30 yard line by Dann. Union held for two downs and Jaeger kicked to McNab who ran back for 35 yards through a broken field, making the most brilliant play of the afternoon. He was finally stopped on Rensselaer's 20 yard line. Patton ran 10 yards and McNab made the last score by running for the fourth touchdown. Patton missed a difficult goal.

At this point Becker was substituted for Raymond and Shuttler, and Hildreth for Davis and Wright.

Jaeger kicked off and Moore received the ball, advancing it 5 yards. Shuttler ran for 10 yards and fumbled. Clifton fell on the ball on the 30 yard line. Union held for two downs. Jaeger punted out of bounds to McNab on the 15 yard line. Dann ran for 10 yards and then time was called with the ball in Union's possession on her own 25 yard line.

The line-up:

FRESHMEN WIN TUESDAY'S MEET

Large But Undemonstrative Crowd on the Oval for the Inter-Class Track Meet.

A good representation from the four classes was out on the track for the inter-class meet last Tuesday afternoon. The material as brought out by the freshmen representation fully came up to the expectations aroused during training, and not only were several fast sprinters unearthed, but middle and long distance runners, who will undoubtedly make the 'Varsity team, also appeared. Out of nine events, the freshmen won four first, second, and third places, giving them a score of 36 points. The juniors were next in order with 24, the sophomores with 18 and the seniors with 3 points.

There was very little enthusiasm manifested at any time during the meet; less, in fact, than at similar meets held heretofore. This is perhaps due to the fact that the fellows are either hoarse from yelling at last week's football game or are saving their vocal energy for the Rutgers' game.

The official score of Tuesday's meet is as follows:

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Rev. F. W. Adams, pastor of the State street M. E. church, will speak at the Vesper service Sunday at 5 o'clock. His subject will be "Are College-bred Men the Best Citizens."

Prof. Ellery, on account of the death of his wife, was unable to speak at the Vesper service last Sunday.

On account of the non-arrival of the text books, the meeting of the mission-study class was postponed one week.

The meeting Tuesday night will be led by President McGregor. The subject will be "Hampered Racers."

These Tuesday night meetings are conducted very informally. After the leader has given a general idea of the topic for the evening, the remaining time is spent in a general discussion of it by those present. Recently there has been much interest in these discussions, and often all have not had the opportunity to speak, who desired to, on account of lack of time.

If either of the above is the state of affairs, larynxes were saved in a worthy cause. It would, however, have showed better college and class spirit to cheer the winners.

Every fellow in college, whether a member of the Y. M. C. A. or not, is cordially invited to attend not only the Tuesday meetings but also the Sunday afternoon meetings.

Y. M. C. A. IN OTHER COLLEGES

Roy S. Wallace has succeeded Gurry E. Huggins as general secretary at Harvard University.

One of the ten mission-study courses offered at the University of Nebraska, is included in the curriculum and receives university credit.

The Georgia associations have decided to raise $1,200 for the support of an Association Secretary in China.

Paul L. Corbin, who last year was traveling secretary of the student-volunteer movement, recently set sail for China. Mr. Corbin visited Union last spring and aroused no little interest for missions.

The University of Virginia is to have a new Y. M. C. A. building to cost $60,000. It is the gift of Mrs. William E. Dodge and is to be called Madison Hall.
