TWO BASKETBALL GAMES.

Union, 43; St. Stephens, 11.

Union, 15; Pratt Institute, 48.

During the past week two basketball games were played by the Garnet five, one on Thursday night with St. Stephens in which they won by a large score, and one on Saturday night in which the score was practically reversed in favor of Pratt.

In the game on Thursday night the superiority of the Union team was evident from the beginning of the game. St. Stephen's players were inaccurate in locating the basket and almost invariably when getting possession of the ball, they would pass it into the hands of a Union player. The Union players all put up a good game; they showed good head work, were careful in passing, and when shooting at the baskets, took time to make the score sure.

The game was characterized by very few fouls on both sides. In the last half Anderson, who shot the fouls for Union, had remarkable success, not missing a free throw in the whole half. In the last half Hequembourg and Brumm played as forwards in the place of Coward and Shulter. They both showed up well and should develop into good, consistent players.

On Saturday night the game was of a very different nature. The game was played on a strange court with a wooden instead of a screen background for the baskets, and the Union five went down to defeat before the fastest team they have been up against this season. The Garnet players, however, were game losers and fought pluckily until the whistle blew at the end of the game.

In the last half although playing in the face of overwhelming defeat, they kept up their snap until the whistle blew for time. They out-played

Pratt when it came to pass-work, but on account of their unfamiliarity with the baskets were unable to run up much of a score. Pratt's center was especially strong and was able to get the ball on the toss-up the greater part of the time.

The line-up of the Union team was somewhat different in the game with Pratt than in the one with St. Stephens. In the first game the line-up was: center, Anderson; forwards, Coward and Shutler, Brumm and Hequembourg; guards, Captain Charest and Fairbain. In the Pratt game the forwards were Coward, Johnson (medical department) and Brumm.

Rochester Game Saturday Night.

On Saturday night will be played one of the fastest games of the season. It is to be held in the Armory and there is no reason why all the students shouldn't be out and back the team in every way possible. Rochester has already defeated Cornell and Penn. State, and the Garnet five will need the support of every student in college.

Although the game may end in defeat, everyone may know that each person on the team is playing his level best, and is the best man that can be obtained for that position. The members of the team are doing everything they can to make the team stronger, and whatever the result of the game, they deserve nothing but the praise of the students.

INTERCOLLEGIATE.

The debating councils of Syracuse and of the College of Oratory of Ohio Wesleyan University have chosen as the subject of their debate scheduled for next spring the same question that was selected as the subject for the triangular debate between Union, Colgate and Hamilton. This question was originally submitted by the Union Council. The debate between Colgate and Syracuse will also be on the same question.

BERGAN FOR BASKETBALL COACH.

At a meeting of the athletic council last week Wednesday "Tommy" Bergan, our last year's captain, was chosen coach of the baseball team for the coming season. Bergan has played on the team for the past four years and from the standpoint of consistent playing and popularity among the students a better man could not have been named to make the team for 1910. He is a member of the Senior class this year, but owing to the four year eligibility rule in force at Union he will be barred from playing as a member of the team. Bergan is vice-president of the graduating class, a member of the Terrace Council, and a member of the B. I. W. Club.

S. K. Hyde, manager of the baseball team, has completed the schedule for the coming season. It has been ratified by the athletic council and will now be brought before the Faculty for approval. The schedule includes fourteen games in all and is understood to be one of the best arranged in years.

Systematic indoor practice during the winter term has been planned and will shortly be started. It is expected that this will keep the fellows in training and get them in condition for hard outdoor practice early in the spring.

HOCKEY GAME WITH BOAT CLUB.

In the first game of the season and that a practice game, Union's hockey team was defeated by a team representing the Schenectady Boat Club. The game was played Wednesday, January 12, on the Boat Club rink. The final score was 7 to 1.

The College team had had but little practice and to this and to the fact that the players had never played together before is attributed the large score rolled up against them. Union's passing was a little slow and their goal shooting was somewhat faulty.

The first half ended with a score of 1 and 5. In the second half, although Captain Walser was forced to be out of the game, owing to an injury sustained by being hit in the face with the puck, Union held their opponents down to two goals. During most of this half the puck was kept in the center of the rink and there were few opportunities for either side to shoot for a goal.

Captain Walser, who is also manager, states that he has corresponded with thirteen managers of college hockey teams, but owing to the lateness of the season finds it difficult to arrange a schedule. Two games will be played with vicinity teams, one with the Boat Club on January 22 and the other with a team representing the Mohawk Golf Club.

The line up of the teams in last Wednesday's game was as follows:

Boat Club	Union
Goff .....	Trapp
	Left wing.
Bryan .....	Darby, Peters
	Rover.
Gardiner .....	Reidinger
	Center.
Davis .....	Wilcox
	Right Wing.
Schoolcraft .....	Walser, Capt.
	Cover point.
Langley .....
Lincoln .....	Kriegsmann, Minuse
	Point.
Maxwell .....	Buckley
	Goal.

Time of halves, 20 and 15 minutes; referee, Mann; timer, Schaus.

A FOOTBALL CHANT.

For the Use of the Rules Committee.

Thrice the score card boy hath wept—
Thrice, and once the umpire swooned—
Even women hide their eyes.

Come, O, come then, wizards dire,
Get the cauldron, light the fire;
Spite of trouble, toil and pain
We must change the rules again.
Games should always be amended
When their faults are advertised.
Games should always be amended
When the papers want 'em ended.

Double, double, toil and trouble;
Boil and bubble, cauldron, bubble.

Brother wizards, say who durst,
What goes in the cauldron first?
Forward passes, neutral zones,
Downs in five yards, downs in ten,
Fifteen, twenty (please say when!)
Safeties, mass-play—old or new—
All "improvements"—let them stew!

Double, double, toil and trouble;
Boil and bubble, cauldron, bubble.

Next the adjuncts to the game—
All the praise and all the blame,
Cheers and songs and frantic cries,
Broken ribs and blackened eyes,
Frightened leaps of referee,
Fragments of the centre's knee,
Coach's curse and captain's prayer,
Relatives' upstanding hair—
Every feature, kind or cruel,
Must be added to the gruel.

Double, double, toil and trouble;
Boil and bubble, cauldron, bubble.

Ah, but when the brew is done,
All the fresh amendments won,
All the faults put out of door,
All the rules made "new" once more,

What will be the style of play
That our men must then essay?
Rugby? soccer? hide and seek?
Hunt-the-slipper? tag? bozique?
No one knows. But this is clear—
It will only last a year.

Then—another pot of troubles:
Bubbles, bubbles—all is bubbles.

N. Y. U. GAME JUNIOR WEEK.

The basketball game with N. Y. U. has been scheduled for Saturday of Junior Week. The game will begin promptly at 7:00 o'clock so that anyone who desires to, can get away early enough to attend any of the social functions which may occur on that evening. This will be one of the few times that a N. Y. U. team has ever played against Union in Schenectady and every effort will be made to have the game a success from every standpoint.

DRAMATIC CLUB.

The Dramatic Club is now holding regular rehearsals three times a week. The system of fines used in the Glee Club has been adopted and it looks as though the efforts of the dramatists would end in success.

The play, "A Family Affair," will be presented in the Van Curler some time this winter. There are six characters in the play. Besides these there will also be several extra "stunts." There is a possibility that the club may take a trip to Connecticut. Several towns in that state are anxious to have the Union Dramatic Club present their program, and if a suitable schedule can be arranged the trip will probably be made.

THE MEETING OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees will be held on the twenty-fifth of this month. Several matters, it is understood, of importance are to be brought up at this meeting. Something definite will probably be done regarding the site for the new proposed gym and athletic field.

UNION'S

DEBATING

INTERESTS.

The Allison-Foote debate, which was held in the chapel last Friday evening, was unusually successful and gives good evidence that debating interests at Union are steadily gaining in strength and in importance.

This debate, however important, is yet only a forerunner of our more important inter-collegiate debating. Union has every reason to be proud of the laurels that she has won in this field during the last two years. During this time her schedule has included Hamilton, Rutgers, and Colgate, all leaders in the debating world of the smaller colleges, and in every contest Union has carried away the palm of victory.

The Triangular Contract of Hamilton—Colgate—Union, which has been entered upon this year, demands two debating teams in the field at the same time. It is, therefore, highly important that an increased number of men, both for their own sake and the sake of the college, interest themselves in this interesting and valuable work. And it is equally important that the student body give to this field of intercollegiate rivalry the same loyal support that is given to our athletic interests.

For the past four months we have been living under an honor system, and now that a series of final examinations has been held under its principles, it is safe to form some conclusion as to its failure or success.

It will be remembered that during the heated argument over the subject last spring, many grave doubts were expressed as to whether the system could work satisfactorily at Union where so large a part of the curriculum work consists of technical subjects, and more than one person ventured the prophecy that although it would be successful in the long run, we must necessarily expect that it would be a partial failure during the first few years of its existence here.

What, then, has been the actual working out of the system? The results are surely gratifying.

indeed, to every Union man who has at heart the welfare of the college, and desires to see the success of every undertaking that tends to uplift the moral standing of the college, and make the name of Union more respected in the outer world. Great credit is certainly due to the members of the honor court who have worked so faithfully to make the system a success, and to the students in general, many of whom showed during the last examination that they would rather be unsustained than commit an act, which at the very beginning of the system, might be the first step toward making it a failure.

We must, however, always guard against the mistake of thinking that since the system is now so firmly started, it is certain to succeed in the future. As soon as any student loses in any degree that spirit which has thus far manifested itself so strongly, he is sowing the seed which may multiply and ultimately ruin the system.

It should be a cause of pride to every Union student that the spirit of honor has become so firmly implanted in our student life, and if every student continues to strive that it may become more firmly rooted in the future, we may count it one of the most valuable acquisitions of recent years to our college spirit.

The coming week promises to be one that will be long remembered by the student body, because of the visit of Dr. Potter and his talks on the problems of college men.

Few men know better than Dr. Potter the special problems and questions of college men, and there are few who bring stronger messages to college fellows. He has been heard at Amherst, Williams, Princeton and other colleges, and everywhere and has been cordially received and has brought to the men valuable thoughts and ideals.

Dr. Potter is one of our best known and most loyal young alumni. We are justly proud of him.

We are glad to hear that the meetings of the various student activities on these evenings are to be postponed. These student mass meetings for the purpose of hearing such a man as Dr. Potter are something new. It is needless to say that they deserve the support of the student body as a whole, and that no one can afford to miss his message to the men of his Alma Mater.

ALLISON-FOOTE DEBATE LAST WEEK.

Try-outs for the Triangular Debate.

At present the debating interests of the college are occupying the attention of the students to an unusual degree, and the enthusiasm which is being aroused over debating is secondary only to that manifested toward basketball.

The annual Allison-Foote debate was held last Friday between the Adelpic and Philomathean Societies. In spite of the inclemency of the weather there was a large attendance of students and city friends; the debate was an interesting one; and the affair was considered a success from every standpoint.

The subject: "Resolved, That a Graduated Income Tax Should Be Made a Part of Our Federal System of Taxation," was well thrashed out by both sides, and after the decision of the judges, there seemed to be no doubt in the minds of the audience but that an income tax would be unable to work successfully in the United States. The affirmative side of the argument was defended by the Adelpic team, which was composed of Carmichael, '10; Rogers, '13; Coplon, '10, and Dunn, '12 alternate. For the Philomatheans the negative side was upheld by Potter '12; Bartlett, '10; S. M. Cavert, '10, and Hanigan, '13, alternate. Nine minutes were allowed for each speech in the direct argument and six minutes for rebuttal.

In taking up the subject the affirmative side attempted to show that an income tax is desirable and just, and that the money from this tax is needed for the running expenses of the government. They, also, showed the success with which it has worked in other countries.

In opposition to the argument of the Adelpics, the negative attempted to set forth the reasons why this tax should not be levied in the United States. The Philomathean team was somewhat stronger in the rebuttal speeches and succeeded in overthrowing some of the strongest arguments of the affirmative.

The individual speeches were all good with few exceptions, considering the fact that for several of the speakers it was their first public appearance in college debating. One of the strongest and most forceful speeches was set forth by Bartlett, '10, the president of the Philomatheans. Bartlett is now the most experienced debater in college and it will be mainly under his guidance that the intercollegiate work will be carried on.

The judges, all of whom are lawyers and Union graduates—Irvig W. Wiswall of Ballston Spa, Charles F. Bridge of Albany and James W. Ferguson of Amsterdam—were unanimous in awarding the prize for the team presenting the best argument to the Philomatheans, and the individual prize to S. M. Cavert.

Try-Outs for Triangular Debate.

The first try-out for the triangular debate between Union, Hamilton and Colgate, which is to be held on March 4, on the same subject, was held Wednesday afternoon. There were a large number of persons out for positions on the team and Union should be represented by two strong teams in the coming debate. The final try-out, when the eight men will be selected, will be held on Friday afternoon.

TRACK PROSPECTS.

The outlook for the track team is unusually bright for the coming season. Much enthusiasm is being shown in the indoor practice that is now going on. At the first call for indoor work made by Cap't. Dennis twenty-five men were out and interest in the success of the team is increasing.

There are possibilities of a triangular meet with Amherst and Hamilton in the near future and it is expected that a team representing Union will be sent to Utica to participate in a dual indoor meet with Hamilton. Union will also be represented at the Olympic meet to be held at Troy this month

AN EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY FOR MEN OF UNION.

Through the generous loyalty of Dr. Leander Hall of the class of 1856, the Gymnasium Association has been enabled to offer the members of the student body a condensed history of Union College from 1795 to 1906. The book, which is a handsome volume of 160 pages, strongly bound in garnet cloth, contains also the history of the famous class of 1856. This class includes some of Union's most widely known sons and no undergraduate can read its history without gaining thereby an inspiration.

It also contains these special features—historic and memory sketches of the faculty of 1856; forty-one full-page half tone illustrations including three Union College presidents, eight professors, 23 members of the Class of '56, six College scenes, and "Uncle Jimmie" with his mail bag.

The number of available copies is limited and as they will arrive very shortly, applications for copies may be filed at the college office. The price suggested by the publisher was $2.50, but arrangements have been made whereby they may be obtained by students at $1.00 per copy. Not more than two copies at this price can be sold to any one purchaser.

They will be delivered in the order of application at the college office.

The entire proceeds will be turned over to the new Gymnasium Fund and this, aside from the fact that they are in themselves handsome mementoes of Union, will make the demand far greater than the supply. Fill out your application at once.

NEW PICTURE IN LIBRARY.

A new picture has been received by the librarian from Mrs. Theodore Douglas of Briarcliff Manor, N. Y. It is a bequest from Eugene Howard Lewis. The painting is of Thomas Mumford of the class of '37, who was a native of Olean, and for some time a merchant in Schenectady.

THE CONCORDIENSIS

DR. POTTER'S VISIT.

Prominent Alumnus to Speak to College Men.

Dr. Rockwell Harmon Potter of Hartford, Conn., whose promised visit at the college was indefinitely announced by Dean Ripton at a chapel service two weeks ago, is to be on the Hill for the first half of next week, January 24 to 26 inclusive.

Dr. Potter has consented to give a series of talks to the fellows, dealing with the men. These mass meetings are to be held in the chapel at eight o'clock for three evenings. On Monday evening he will speak of "The Greatest Motive in Life"; on Tuesday evening, "The Greatest Problem in Life"; on Wednesday evening, "The Greatest Work in Life."

Dr. Potter was graduated from the college in 1895, being the valedictorian and always one of the most active men of the Centennial Class. For the past ten years he has been pastor of the First Church of Christ in Hartford, one of the largest Congregational Churches in New England. During this time he has had offers of some of the leading churches of New York and Boston, and has always been urged to accept the position of Dean of Yale Divinity School. Yet he has clung to his work in Hartford, which under his direction has become very important, indeed.

At the 1907 Commencement Mr. Potter was honored with the degree of Doctor of Divinity from his Alma Mater. Two years ago he conducted the service at our Day of Prayer for colleges. It is with the greatest pleasure that he will be welcomed at the college once more.

Dr. Potter is a member of the Union Chapter of Chi Psi, and will be entertained at their Lodge during his visit here.

MUSICAL CLUBS.

The Glee Club has been cut to twenty-four men, and probably another subtraction will be made before the next trip.

The Mandolin Club is practicing hard on two new pieces, and will probably have three members on the winter program of the Musical Clubs.

THE ALUMIN REUNION.

On February fourth a new precedent is to be established at Union. Prexy has made an effort to gather together on this day representatives from every class for the last forty years.

The greatest number of Union's most prominent men are members of these thirty or forty classes. It is expected that Melville B. Lanley, perhaps better known as Eli Perkins, will be present at this notable gathering. Several other very prominent men, it is expected, will be present.

BUSINESS MEN TO BEAUTIFY CAMPUS.

Prominent business men of Schenectady have started a movement to raise by subscription among the citizens of the city the sum of $25,000, which is to be used in beautifying the college campus. An appeal in the form of a circular has recently been sent out by those who have the matter in hand, explaining the plan of the committee and asking for support in the enterprise.

The committee, which has charge of raising this money is composed of E. W. Rice, Joseph W. Smitley, W. L. R. Emmett, W. T. Hanson, and Dr. W. L. Pearson. It is felt by the members of this committee that Union College is entitled to some assistance from the people of Schenectady, and after a meeting at which President Richmond was present, it was decided that the money should be spent on the campus.

In the circular letter which was sent out, the committee made special recognition of the fact that for over a hundred years Union has furnished opportunities for higher education at small cost to the young men of the city—that she has sent out her sons by the hundreds to become leaders in the philanthropic life of the community, and that she has served the public disinterestedly in many other ways.

Among the many improvements which were proposed was the project of erecting an ornamental iron fence from the Public Library on Union Street to Library Lane opposite St. John's Church. It was also proposed to repair the terrace and the stone wall, to do extensive planting of shrubs and young trees, to repair and relave the college roads and walks, to level and grade off rough portions of the grounds, and to preserve the old elms which adorn "Jackson's Gardens" and the rest of the "hill."

JUNIOR "PROM."

Arrangements are now practically completed for the "Prom." The committee have done their part and it only remains for the students to do theirs. Everyone should commence to make preparations and be sure that he will be able to attend.

The patronesses who have been invited to be present at the "prom" are: Mrs. Richmond, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Stoller, Mrs. Ripton, Mrs. Landreth, Mrs. Ashmore, Mrs. Garrison, Mrs. McKean, Mrs. Van Voightlander, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Ellery, Mrs. Garis, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Morss, Mrs. Coffin, Mrs. McMurray, Mrs. Cameron, Mrs. Dillingham, Mrs. Atkin, Mrs. Whitmyer, Mrs. Argeniger, Mrs. Donnan, Mrs. Grover, Mrs. Coran, Mrs. Towne, Mrs. Reynolds, Mrs. Girvin, Mrs. Hyde, Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Featherstonhaugh, Mrs. Brainerd, Mrs. Yelverton, Mrs. Van Voast, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Veeder, Mrs. Carmichael, Mrs. Van Deusen, Mrs. Rohrer, Mrs. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. Ripley, Mrs. Seamans, Mrs. Paterson, Mrs. Case, Mrs. Kriegsmann, Mrs. Clements, Jr.

MISS LERNER'S RECITAL.

On Tuesday evening, January 18, many students and music lovers of the vicinity enjoyed a concert given in the college chapel by Miss Tina Lerner, the noted Russian pianist. Miss Lerner brilliantly rendered the following numbers:

Alceste.....	Gluck	Saint Saens
Intermezzo, A major.....	Brahms
Rondo Capriccioso .....	Mendelssohn
Prelude, F sharp minor.....	Chopin
Nocturne, F major.....	Chopin

Great thanks is due President Richmond for arranging this musical treat. The rest of the concert series consists of the following: February 4, George Hamlin, the noted tenor. March 31, the Flonzaley Quartet.

The best engineering—building a bridge of faith over the river of death.—The Minerva.

COLLEGE MEETING.

January 17, 1910.

The college meeting was opened as usual by the singing of Alma Mater, following which was sung "Come Now to the Campus." Potter led a long yell for the team and a siren for "Johnny" Charest.

Captain Charest spoke of the game with Pratt last Saturday and complimented the team on the plucky fight which they put up in the second half. He said that next Saturday's game with Rochester promised to be a stiff one, as Rochester has beaten Pennsylvania this term and that the team should be backed by a good attendance.

Faust said that the concerts to be given in the chapel needed better support by the students, since many people would get their first glimpse of Union and Union's students at these concerts. He urged everyone who could possibly attend them to do so.

Cavert announced that the triangular debate with Hamilton and Colgate would come off on March 4, and that more men interested in debating were needed. He said, also, that the third verse of "Old Union Beside the Mohawk Dale," published in last week's Concordiensis should be learned by all and sung at the next college meeting.

PHI GAMMA DELTA CONVENTION AT UNION.

Dr. Steinmetz To Be Toastmaster at Banquet.

On February 25 and 26, Section III of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, which includes the chapters at Union, Colgate, Cornell, and Syracuse, will hold its annual convention with the Union Chapter. A number of delegates are expected and preparations are being made for a large gathering.

On Saturday morning and afternoon the time will be devoted to business sessions. On Friday evening a stag party will be held at the Mohawk Theater, and on Saturday night the annual banquet will be held. At this banquet Dr. Steinmetz, who is a member of that fraternity, will be toastmaster.

IN OTHER COLLEGES.

Jacob Riis spoke recently at the University of Illinois.

The Woman's Literary Society of the University of Minnesota will present Julius Caesar, a musical burlesque on Shakespeare's play of that name, and an ancient morality play interspersed with old English dances.

The University of Nebraska is unique in that it has no Glee Club.

Captains of all teams at the University of Iowa will get a star in addition to their letter. The number of years a man has played will be indicated by a band on the arm of his sweater.—Con.

Andrew Carnegie has presented $30,000 to Illinois Wesleyan University to be used toward a new science building.

Women's teams in handball have been organized at Washington.

The Aero Club of Pennsylvania has issued a challenge to the aeronautic organizations of any college to an intercollegiate meet.

There will be an ice carnival during the Junior week at Cornell this year.

At the first call for track candidates at Pennsylvania forty-nine men reported.

Students at Wisconsin who cut before and after a vacation may be suspended from the University. At Yale and Harvard a fine is imposed.

Twenty-two baseball games have been scheduled at the University of Virginia.

The Honolulu students at Virginia gave a concert recently.

The University Dramatic Club at Nebraska presented a play entitled "What the Matter With the Professor" a few nights ago.

THE OPENING OF THE NEW ENGINEERING BUILDING.

As yet nothing definite has been decided upon by the Board; it is, however, generally understood that Andrew Carnegie, the donor of one hundred thousand dollars toward this latest improvement for Union's equipment, which makes her standing second to none, will be present at its formal opening.

TWINK'S TALES.

Thy met in the evening twilight
And talked of their ardent love;
They plighted their troth to each other
By the stars that gleamed above.

But when on the following morrow
They chanced on the street to meet,
They passed each other like strangers
And failed one another to greet.

And yet she hadn't jilted him,
Nor given him the slip;
He was a student at Union
And she—a Schenectady chip.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL.

The Freshman and Sophomore basketball teams are now organized and practicing almost daily. The Freshmen have several games with outsiders in view, while the Sophomores have already played some out of town games.

A series of five games is to be played between the two underclass teams, the first game coming off probably this Saturday.

There's a little circular slip of paper pasted on the sole of every Regal Shoe. By lifting up this "Window of the Sole" you can see the white, Live-Oak-tanned leather underneath—the finest sole leather in the world. The cheap, red, Hemlock-tanned leather in other shoes is blackened over to hide its tell-tale color. Hemlock leather is brittle and stiff, but Regal Live-Oak-tanned leather is flexible and wears like iron.
