UNION, 68; ST. STEPHENS, 0.

The Garnet Wins Its Seventh Victory in a One-Sided Game.

Union won her seventh victory on the grid-iron last Saturday afternoon on the campus by defeating the St. Stephens eleven by the large score of 68 to 0. The game was a walkover for the garnet from start to finish, in which every man on the team took a conspicuous part. The ball was in the visitor's territory during the whole game and only twice did they make their five yards. The first touchdown was made after three minutes of play when Carver securing the ball on Union's 40 yard line, with good interference, ran 70 yards for the first touchdown. He was soon followed by Welles who ran 60 yards for the second score. This method was repeated time after time. St. Stephens would kick off to Paige or Anderson who would bring the ball up to the center of the field. In the next line-up a fine interference could be seen skirting the visitors' ends and soon Carver or Gulnac would shoot past and land the ball behind their opponents' goal posts. One of the features of the game was the fine interference given in the end plays. Almost every time the opposing end was picked off like a wooden man and a clear field left which usually resulted in a score. The plays directed against the St. Stephens line were less successful, for, considering their lighter weight, the visitors showed considerable strength.

THE GAME IN DETAIL.

Baker kicked off to Carver, on Union's 40 yard line, who ran through the St. Stephens team for the first touchdown after three minutes of play. On the next kick-off, the wearers of the Garnet were not so successful, but ran the ball back to the center of the field where by end plays it was forced down to St. Stephens 10 yard line and Carver was sent around the end for another score. This performance was followed by a 60 yard run by Welles who scored a touchdown, and so on through the rest of the half in which eight touchdowns were made.

In the second half a substitute team was put in, but they were more than equal to the St. Stephens players and succeeded in making four more touchdowns, chiefly by good interference around the visitors' ends. Time was called with the ball in Union's possession on St. Stephens' 20 yard line. The line-up and summary:

KAPPA ALPHA RECEPTION.

The Kappa Alpha society will hold a large reception at Nott Memorial hall on Saturday evening in honor of the seventy-fifth anniversary of its foundation. Kappa Alpha is the oldest Greek letter fraternity in existence, with the exception of Phi Beta Kappa, which is purely an honorary society.

Alpha Delta Phi will give its customary fall reception and dance next Tuesday evening.

UNIFORM ENTRANCE EXAMS.

Fourteen Colleges and Universities Definitely Decide to Hold Them.

Fourteen colleges and universities were represented in the meeting of the College Entrance Requirement Board at Columbia University Saturday. It was definitely decided to hold uniform entrance examinations next June for all the colleges in the Middle States and Maryland. President Seth Low of Columbia was chosen Chairman of the Board, with President M. Carey Thomas of Bryn Mawr Vice-Chairman and Prof. Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia Secretary. The first Executive Committee is to be composed of the chairman and vice-chairman together with President Taylor of Vassar, Dean W. A. Lamberton of the University of Pennsylvania and Dr. Julius Sachs of the Sachs Collegiate Institute, New York city.

The different colleges in the association were represented as follows: Barnard, Acting Dean Robinson; Bryn Mawr, President Thomas; Columbia, Prof. Nicholas Murray Butler; Cornell, Prof. H. S. White; New York university, Chancellor MacCracken; University of Pennsylvania, Prof. W. A. Lamberton; Rutgers, President Scott; Swarthmore, President Birdsall; Union, President Raymond; Vassar, President Taylor; Women's College of Baltimore, Prof. Van Meter; Johns Hopkins university, Prof. Griffin.

Organization and conduct of examinations were determined in detail and it was decided to send a printed report to all preparatory schools in the Middle States and Maryland, explaining the new educational departure. Next month the chief examiner and his associates will be chosen upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee. Four days in the last week of June, 1901, will be set apart for the examinations which are to be held at thirty points in the Middle States and Maryland and at various centres throughout the West in all the subjects required for entrance to college. A fee of $5 is to be exacted from every candidate and it is expected that a large number of students, both male and female who will not go to college, will take the examinations for the certificate to be issued by the board to those who pass successfully. The expenses of conducting these examinations are to come from the student fees, and Prof. Butler believes that it will not be necessary to call on the confederated institutions for added fees.

The new system is of far reaching educational importance and is likely to be adopted in time throughout the country. It is known that the New England colleges favor its adoption, but are simply waiting to watch the result of the experiment in practice in the Middle States. The question was favorably discussed at a recent meeting of Western educators at the Western Reserve University. The present association of parties to the plan includes the following institutions: Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Colgate, Columbia, Cornell, New York University, Rutgers, Swarthmore, Union, Vassar, Princeton, University of Pennsylvania, Haverford, Johns Hopkins and the Women's College of Baltimore.

PHILOMATHEAN DEBATES.

The Philomathean society held an interesting and enthusiastic meeting last Wednesday evening. The following subject was debated: "Resolved, that municipal corporations should be owned by municipalities." The debate was decided in favor of the negative. The constitution and by-laws of the society were revised. The next debate was held last evening, on "Resolved, that unrestricted freedom of the press is productive of more evil than good." Debaters, affirmative—Wight, '01, Griffith, '02, Beadle, '04. Negative—Minkin, '01, Cheeseborough, '01, Finegan, '02.

There will be no meeting of the society on Nov. 28, on account of the Thanksgiving vacation. The following subject was adopted for the debate on the week following, Dec. 5: "Resolved, that immigration should be restricted." Debaters, affirmative—Hunt, '03, Adams, '02, Staerber, '03. Negative—Fenster, '03, Hays, '02, Barrett, '01.

PURITY IN COLLEGE POLITICS.

What the "Amherst Student" Has To Say on the Subject.

The "Amherst Student" in its last issue condemns editorially any system of college politics in which canvassing or deals exist. It follows in full:

"The present manner of conducting the junior and senior class elections has proved fairly satisfactory. However, one of the best parts of the system, as used in the senior election last year, was not adopted by the classes this year; it is as follows—'Whereas the above plan (i. e. that embodied in the resolutions of the class) would make personal canvassing unnecessary, and as we believe such canvassing tends to encourage deals and wrongly influence public opinion, Resolved, that we do away with all canvassing as detrimental to the best interests of the class.' Although for the most of the offices in both the junior and senior classes no canvassing was done this year yet a large amount was done for some. Entirely setting aside all thought of the officers elected, the indirect results of the canvassing seem decidedly detrimental. The members of the two upper classes should know their candidates well enough to elect officers without canvassing and with satisfactory results. The really important factors which should enter into the election of class officers, whether reasons for or reasons against voting for a candidate, are known by practically every member of the class. Two or three years serve to bring out pretty clearly the characteristics of men in a class who are prominent enough to be nominated for office. And if important characteristics, whether good or bad, are not generally known, there is probably very serious question as to the existence of such characteristics. Moreover canvassing tends to produce corrupt politics. The temptation to make deals is of course great, but this is not the only danger. If a man goes to a friend, a member of another fraternity, and asks him to vote for a certain candidate, even if he does not pledge his own support in return, yet if the first succeeds in getting the desired vote he feels under obligation to support the candidate whom his friend favors. Often tacit deals are engaged in and general understandings reached which in reality are almost as bad as open deals. Voting for the best men often becomes secondary. Fraternity delegations tend to vote as a unit instead of individually. When canvassing is done men become prejudiced and do not vote impartially. Furthermore, a feeling of estrangement and personal hostility arises which is unnecessary. This matter is discussed now in the hope that the senior and junior classes of succeeding years may abolish all such practices."

VESPER SERVICE.

The Rev. John J. Seare of New Brunswick Theological Seminary, delivered a short but interesting address before the students in the chapel, Sunday afternoon.

His remarks were directed towards "The work of christian college men among college men."

"Wherever the college man goes he carries a great measure of influence. Work among college men has great potency. There is always found great talent in opportunity. You, as college men, are set in a rare field.

"The first thing to be considered with regard to helping non-christian college men, is the life which we, as christian college men ought to lead. Character induces character. Conduct is contagious. Every man, who looks back over his college career knows that he has been strengthened by some men.

"But we may help these non-christian men in other ways than by living a christian life before them. We may help them by cultivating a personal interest in them. I want to make a suggestion of importance, especially to upper classmen, in regard to the freshmen. Many a man's future is made eternal during the first six weeks of his freshman year. If the christian men of the college would but look over the freshmen carefully there is no telling the results. It is your duty as upper classmen, to guide the freshman past pitfalls, moral and sophomoral.

"I believe in the efficiency of prayer for the individual. I know a christian man, who, on leaving college, selected twelve men who were his friends, but not christians, and used to pray for them. Now if we will only do this it will become easy to bring the gospel directly to them. Of course it won't do to be talking religion to your friends in daily life. But there are crises in every man's life when he wants to talk religion, and if we are close enough to him as a friend, we can help him. Let's watch our fellows, and when the right time comes let's speak to the point. Let us seek to be the missionaries, leading others into the land of God, who takes away the sins of the world."

GAMBEE-BEEBE WEDDING.

A quiet and a very pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday last, November 15th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Beebe, of Menands, when their daughter, Miss Adelaide, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Calvin Gambia, '99, by Rev. Dr. E. P. Johnson, of the First Reformed Church of Albany.

The bride was very handsomely attired in crepe de chéne, and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Dickinson E. Griffith, 1902, and Gilbert S. Woolworth, 1902, were the ushers. The large parlors were prettily decorated with palms and ferns. Gioscia rendered the music. After a cordial reception by the friends who had gathered to see the knot tied, and warm wishes for a happy future, Mr. and Mrs. Gambia left for Englewood, N. J., where they will make their home.

Among the relatives and friends present were: Mrs. MacMullen, of New York; Mrs. Dickey, of Callao, Peru; Mrs. Andrew Clute, of Saratoga; Mademoiselle Gory and Miss Lyman, of the Albany Female Academy, of which Mrs. Gambia is an alumna; Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hanrahan, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Piccaver, Master Alfred and Miss Piccaver, the Misses Gertrude and Clara Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mrs. Elizabeth Shafer, and Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, all of Menands; Mrs. William A. Gibson, of Waterloo; the Misses Sutherland, Miss Chester, the Misses Haswell, Miss Ethelyn Hunter, Miss Arnold, and the Misses Sumner, all of Albany; Miss Hutt, of Brooklyn; Miss Sutton of Coeymans; Miss Frear, of Kingston; Miss Russell, of Rensselaer; Miss Preston, of Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Waterman and the Misses Waterman, of Watervliet; Miss Mary Sankelle, of Englewood, N. J.; Mr. A. Paige Smith and Miss Elsie Smith, of Albany; Mr. Arthur Sayles, Mr. John Vint, Mr. Frank Ludington, Mr. Seward Hurd, Mr. George Benedict, Mr. Bishop, Mr. Clarence Russell, and Mr. Harry S. Peck, all of Albany, and Mrs. James Archibald, of Menands. Mr. Gambia's college friends were represented by Willis, ex-1900; Shelley, 1901; Barrett, 1901; Griffith, 1902; Hays, 1902; and Woolworth, 1902.

THE ONE-ROOM CABIN.

Far across de ole plantation,
'Neath a big, ole, crooked tree,
Stands a little one-room cabin,
Wah ole mammy used ter be.
Dah among de weeds an' bushes,
Jes beside de dusty road,
Kind o' hidden in de shadders,
Stands ole mammy's lone abode.

Roof's all patched an' winder's broken,
Nothin' like it used ter be;
Chimbley's jes all gone ter pieces,
Oh! it breaks ma heart to see
De home dat used ter look so pleasant,
Wah my brudders used ter play
Hide an' seek among de bushes—
Jes er crumblin' all away.

Mammy used ter sit dah ebenins,
Rockin' in de ole arm-cha',
Croonin' softly, an' a noddin'
Tell she'd fall a dreamin' dah.
How I'd lub ter see de cabin
Lookin' like it used ter den;
An' ole mammy gently rockin'
An' a noddin' dah agen!

SCRUB DEFEATED AT SARATOGA.

The second eleven went up to Saratoga on Saturday and sustained a defeat at the hands of the Junior Athletic Club of that place. Union made the first touchdown in three minutes, but was unable to kick a goal. The Saratoga team also scored five points in the first half, and in the second half secured a touchdown and kicked the goal. Union had the ball within three yards of the home team's goal when time was called in the first half. In the second half, the ball was in Union's territory most of the time, Saratoga playing very good ball. Mulvaney and Sumeriski of Union played a splendid game, as did also Sherrill at quarter. Considering the fact that the Saratoga team outweighed the Schenectady team by fully ten or fifteen pounds, the score of 11 to 5 in their favor is not to be wondered at. The line up follows:

SARATOGA.	UNION SCRUB.
Pellet.....	left tackle.....Watson.
Mabee.....	left end.....Hawkes.
Hammond.....	right end.....Pritchard.

Score—Junior Athletic Club, 11; Union Scrub, 5.

Chas. Burrows, Printer, 414 State Street, Schenectady, N. Y.

Every student should be in the chapel Friday afternoon at two-thirty. Undergraduates who have heard Dr. McElroy know what a treat is in store for the audience.

AMONG the many features of The Concordiensis, none are more inviting than those found in our advertising columns. They represent patronage that should be patronized, because they offer everything suited to all tastes and desires, with the sure guarantee to please. Our advertisers are true friends of Old Union.

IT IS THE clearly drawn purpose of The Concordiensis to be all-representative of Union college, not only in matters of interest to the faculty and students, but to the alumni as well. To fully carry out this purpose, however, requires more than the present means of the board. Most of the articles bearing on the alumni are gathered from the daily newspapers, and no doubt much of value is thus overlooked and lost. To remedy this, the board earnestly desires all alumni to communicate anything of interest in connection with any of their fellow classmen, so that this all important branch of the paper may receive its just and due attention.

THE TERRIBLE mishap at the Princeton water tower on Monday should bring a lesson home to us. The practice of putting class flags on the dome of the Round Building will, sooner or later, result in some serious catastrophe. In the first place—the outside balcony was long ago pronounced unsafe. Secondly—the ladder leading up the dome is of very doubtful strength. No one can tell when some storm is going to weaken one of them to the point where a small strain will cause it to give way. The accident at Princeton was not the result of any lack of strength in the water tower, but merely of carelessness. It is safe to say that a little carelessness on the dome of Potter's Folly would surely result as disastrously.

AMID the turmoil of college work there is one thing that should attract the attention of every student, and that is the 1902 Garnet. The importance of this volume as the annual representative of Union college life and activity cannot be over estimated. It should impress every one connected with the institution, of his duty to make this worthy both of the name it bears and of the superior life and activity it represents.

Judging from past experience, it is a difficult thing to arouse interest in this kind of work. It is generally left to a few men, and especially to the editors to do it all. And then again the board almost without exception begins work too late to bring out the best results. These are matters that should appeal immediately to the representatives of the 1902 Garnet, if they desire to offset those same difficulties that have been experienced in former years. Unless a definite plan of action is carried out, with each member of the staff understanding and doing his share of the work, there can be nothing but imperfect results.

The 1902 board seems to realize the importance of its task, and has made a good start. It now rests with the students to give their heartiest cooperation, and make the Garnet what it ought to be,—superior to any of its predecessors, a fitting token of a growing institution.

THE PROPOSED CONSTABULARY LAW.

Union Man's Protest in the New York Times.

An interesting article on the state constabulary law, which the Republican machine intends forcing through in the next Legislature, appears in the Sunday Times. William G. Brown, '95, is the writer.

"The only excuse not insulting to the ability and intelligence of those responsible for the deliverance of our City Government from Tammany Hall is the extension and perfection of the Republican machine. Although a Republican by birth, education, and principle, I cannot assent to the proposition that party organization and not good government is the chief end of all political endeavor.

"The proposed bill is a step backward. It is based upon the old and exploded theory, that a city is a political body, when in reality a city is a business corporation. Let it not be understood that National or State Governments should be regarded as business corporations. Far from it. They have to do with questions of sovereignty; while local pride and business interests are the fountain of municipal interest, patriotism and honor lie at the base of National and, to a certain extent, State government.

"We have the testimony of such men as Andrew D. White, President Seth Low, ex-Mayor Hart of Boston, and Frank Sargent Hoffman, whose book, "The Sphere of the State," has become a text book in many of our colleges and universities, that after years of patient and diligent investigation of the cities of the Old World and extensive acquaintance with our own cities, our American cities are the worst governed cities in the civilized world.

"They say openly that our city governments are the 'most expensive, most inefficient, and most corrupt in Christendom.' And they are also agreed that our cities should be regarded and managed as business corporations; that is, without interference by the State Legislature in their local affairs. The Merchants' Association of New York City has also investigated this subject and has prepared certain measures for the consideration of our Legislature. It requests, among other things, that the government of this city be conducted on lines similar to the management of great business corporations. It is composed of a body of representative business men, such men as made the Sound Money Parade a success, and in reality such men as throughout the country saved the honor and integrity of the country in its last crisis. Their suggestions cannot be ignored with impunity.

"Surely the Police Department is a local institution. This city is primarily and almost entirely interested in and responsible for it. No questions of sovereignty are involved. It was amply provided for in the charter by a commission equaled only in wisdom and integrity by the framers of our National Government and aided also by the experience of 100 years more of civilization.

"The proposed Constabulary bill is not only bad in principle, but it is extremely impolitic.

"Tammany Hall would undoubtedly give a great sum of money to have it an issue in the next Mayoralty contest. And as its good or bad effects could not be known before the next election, it would be an issue, the results of which are easily foreseen.

"Twice the amount of money that can be raised at the present time in this city as 'hush money,' from violators of the law, could be collected from the law-abiding industrious citizens who do not believe that the same rules of action that were applicable and acceptable to a Puritan settlement in New England are applicable to the existing conditions in this cosmopolitan city. Furthermore, as recently said by John D. Crimmins, the city government can be wrested from Tammany by fifty bright, well informed young men, without political aspirations, under the direction of wise leaders. But such young men cannot be found, when they are asked to go before the people on an issue that they cannot defend on the principle involved and their mouths closed by a blue law.

"An opportunity is now offered for the citizens of this greatest city of the New World to profit by the valuable lessons learned from the experience of the cities of the Old World.

While we excel in nearly everything making for prosperity and happiness, they surpass us in having learned the great lesson of municipal government.

"Let both parties perfect their organization, with our good citizens arrayed on either side. May both parties struggle on in that noble emulation of seeing which can better serve our beloved country. But the next Mayoralty contest should be as a meeting of stockholders of a great corporation—each of us feeling a personal solicitude for an honest, efficient, and economic management of our public affairs.

"We have no ordinary foe to meet. Their resources are almost boundless. The flagrant violators of the law (the writer knows of several notorious resorts located in the most populous part of the city) are doubtless contributing to a fund to be used in defeating us.

"In proportion to the emergency our young men will zealously respond, if left unhampered by party measures, and with all the enthusiasm of representing a just cause, will present the issues on their merits to the people."

THANKSGIVIN'.

O the turkey is a sizzlin' in the oven scorching hot,
And the taters are a steamin' in th' big ol' iron pot,
And the punkin pies are coolin' on the frosty window ledge,
With their centers all a shakin' and a spillin' 'roun' the edge.
An' see ma aroun' the kitchen with a red an' anxious look
A spyin' on us fellers who she knows jes like a book,
Fur we're spilin' fur a chanst to swipe a yaller punkin pie,
An' she knows it tu, you betcher, we kin see it in her eye.

An' soon at dinner gathered there'll be pa an' ma an' Jane,
An' gramp' an' gramma Larkin, an' uncle 'Siah Lane,
There's the parson lean but hearty, an' next him me an' Jim,
An' we'll set aroun' the fireplace when the daylight has grown dim.
Now I don't brag some, nuther, but when turkey roast is come,
You kin bet I'm allus ready for Thanksgivin' at our home.
You kin talk about yer Chrismus an' yer Fourth so full of noise,
But a real ol' celebrashun of Thanksgivin' takes us boys.

CANE RUSH ABOLISHED AT CHICAGO.

The University of Chicago, warned by the death of a Boston student in a recent cane rush at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has decided to do away with that old custom in the future. A number of the colleges have taken the same step, and the rush will probably be relegated to the past by all of our universities in the near future. These colleges believe that when such customs become a menace to life and health they are no longer proper and should be stopped.

William H. McElroy, '60, editor of the "Mail and Express," will lecture on "Repartee as a Fine Art" in the chapel Friday afternoon at half past two.

JUNIOR HOPS.

The Junior Hop committee met and organized Tuesday afternoon. A "Prom." was decided to be entirely out of the question. Informal plans were discussed for holding a series of hops during the winter, at the boat house. It was found impossible to secure a date this term when a hop would not conflict with something else. Consequently none can be held before the early part of next term. Theodore DeL. Coffin, is chairman of the committee. He has appointed on the music committee, William H. Gillespie; on the patroness committee, Robert Yates and Lester W. Bloch; on the refreshments committee, Howard E. Sands and Willard S. Yates. Following are the several fraternities representatives: Kappa Alpha, Theodore DeL. Coffin; Sigma Phi, Robert C. Yates; Delta Phi, Fenwick M. Thebo; Psi Upsilon, Herbert C. Bothwell; Delta Upsilon, Everett C. Mallery; Chi Psi, William H. Gillespie; Alpha Delta Phi, Willard S. Yates; Beta Theta Pi, Lester W. Bloch; Phi Delta Theta, Gilbert S. Woolworth; Phi Gamma Delta, Howard E. Sands. The non-fraternity member has not yet been selected.

CAMPUS NOTES.

The 1903 pipe and pin committees are announced as follows: Pipe committee—D. W. Weed, chairman; C. R. Krueger, and E. Hulsapple. Pin committee—G. W. Donnan, chairman; A. A. Lee, and G. Parker.

Hazlett James Risk, a reader and impersonator, will give an exhibition of his art in the chapel Friday evening at half past seven. Mr. Risk is a graduate of King's School of Oratory and is desirous of forming classes in oratory among Union students.

Lehigh men in town have formed a local alumni association. About twenty-five graduates of that institution will soon hold a banquet in Albany. The association will present Lehigh with a two-horse power electric motor, to take the place of one recently destroyed in a fire at South Bethlehem.

TECHNICAL SCHOOLS OF N. Y. STATE.

At the Saturday morning session of the Hudson River Schoolmasters' club at the State Normal school in Albany, Prof. Olin H. Landreth addressed the teachers on the subject of "Technical Schools in New York State."

He described the system employed in this state and said that it was rational rather than empirical. It embraces the acquisition of allied sciences. In this line it differs from the system of German and French technical schools. The American system is divided into the teaching of drawing, field work, shop work and laboratory experiments. Drawing's main function is the development of perception and observation. It tends to increase the power of expression. The laboratory develops the delicacies of perception. The field and shop work are executive in their function—not in making skilled engineers, but in putting principle into operation in concrete form. The engineering school does not make engineers. All that it can do is to establish principles. The engineer can be made only by actual work. The Concordiensis hopes to publish the entire paper in a later issue.

A COMMUNICATION.

To the Concordiensis :

The action of the student body at the college meeting last Monday, seems to have been the outgrowth of misunderstanding and injustice.

Taking the facts of the case as it really stands, the position taken against the class in question seems hardly tenable. The Sophomores have suffered the loss of several men since college opened, and hence their amount of subscription has been lessened. The statement of the sum already handed in by that class to the treasurer was not exactly correct, as can be proved. This leaves a far less sum to be accounted for than was really understood at the meeting.

This, however, is only of secondary importance compared with the punishment to which the class was subjected. At no time have the sophomores been so reluctant in the payment of subscriptions as to merit such, and surely the upper classmen were unjust in this affair. There is always two sides to a question, and both should be thoroughly discussed before a conclusion is reached. —U. C.

THE ALUMNI COLUMN.

[Every alumnus and undergraduate of Union is invited to send to the Alumni Editor items of interest for insertion in this department. News of a personal nature, about any alumnus, will be gladly received and printed.]

'62.—Prof. James L. Bothwell of Albany was elected a trustee of the Hudson River Schoolmasters' club at its meeting in Albany on Saturday.

'87.—Dr. Henry A. Kurth of Schenectady has an article in the "Medical Record" of November 10, on "Chronic Copper Poisoning Among Artisans."

"If an artisan at his regular occupation takes into his system some of the material in which or with which he works, and this acts injuriously to his, we have a case of so-called occupation poisoning," says Dr. Kurth. "The varieties of occupation poisonings are numerous, but most, because of their rarity, receive little attention. Chief of these poisonings today is lead poisoning. This from its frequency is nearly always recognized and rationally treated. Copper poisoning, on the other hand, is at present only too rarely diagnosed, and its treatment is anything but rational. Until within the last twenty or thirty years copper poisoning was not at all common. But with the enormous growth of manufactures in the United States these cases have become so numerous that any physician in a manufacturing city is likely to meet them. Cases of this kind are abundant here at the Edison General Electric Works, and it is from among these that material for this article have been largely drawn." Dr. Kurth claims that the prophylactic treatment is the best. Ventilating fans and the wearing of a wet sponge over the mouth and nostrils are good precautions. He says that the chief reliance must be prophylaxis and change of occupation, and advocates a law prohibiting work in this trade for more than three months at a time.

'97.—Paul Canfield has been elected alderman-at-large by the Republican electors of Middletown, N. Y. Mr. Canfield's majority was over two hundred more than that of the Republican candidate for mayor.

'98.—Charles D. Griffith visited at the  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$  house one day last week.

'99.—J. Irving Gayetty stopped last week at the  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$  house.

'99.—Robert Calvin Gambee is professor in the Academy at Englewood, N. J.

Every month, in "The Progress of the World," Dr. Albert Shaw gives a comprehensive picture of the world's history during the previous thirty days. In the departments, the valuable articles and books that have been published during the past month are reviewed and quoted from, so that the readers of the AMERICAN MONTHLY can get the gist of them.
