SOIREE AT ALBANY

Committee Breaks Precedent

The Soiree committee is making history and taking a bold stand, for which it doubtless will be severely criticised by some. At its last meeting, it decided to hold the Sophomore Soiree in Albany, at the Hotel Ten Eyck, early in February. At first glance, this strikes one as being a most peculiar arrangement. It has always been the custom here to hold the Soiree in town. All other colleges do this. Why not continue? The experiences of last year answer well enough to this question. As formerly, it was thought that the dance would be held in the Round Building. This, however, was vetoed by the library committee and a new place had to be found. There was found to be only one eligible place, the newly completed Red Man's Hall. While out of the way, this was sufficient for the dances of last year, which were attended with remarkably small crowds. The record breaking attendance of the '06 Soiree would have swamped the Hall.

This was the situation faced by the present committee. Schenectady, a city of 60,000 inhabitants, not containing a single hall of sufficient capacity for a large dance; Union College itself not even possessing a hall that might be used for so universal a function as a college dance. There was but one alternate for the committee, that of going elsewhere for accommodations. The subsequent search showed the Ten Eyck to be the most suitable place. The hotel has a large ball-room and Albany is extremely easy of access from Schenectady.

The expenses entailed by this plan will be much greater. For this reason the tickets are $4.00 instead of $3.50. But with that increase, the individual expenses need not total as much as formerly for the fellows will be forced to use the trolley instead of cabs. There will probably be special cars for those attending.

The whole affair but emphasizes the more the need of the college for a new and larger gymnasium, for it is in such a place that a college usually holds its dances. With the growing prosperity of the college, it hardly seems too much to hope for the speedy remedy of that want.

AT THE MEDIC

Nu Sigma Nu Entertains

Last Friday evening the Nu Sigma Nu fraternity of the Medical School informally opened their new chapter house at 211 Hamilton St., Albany, with a reception. Refreshments were served at ten o'clock, dancing being enjoyed from that time until twelve.

The patronesses of the evening were: Mesdames Trover, Lomax, Carney, Van Zandt and Miss Hawn. The others present were the Misses Lansing, Hewitt, E. Brownlow, Hewett, Becker, L. Brownlow, Berry, Van Zandt, Bridgeford, McCrow, Van Zandt, L. Hill, Treder, A. Flannery, Williams, Adams, Peebe, Mrs. Peebe, Lineman, Walsh, Midlam, Ebel, Glann, Hill, La Lune, M. Flannery and Hoffman, Drs. Trover, Lomax, Bedell, Carney and White, and the active chapter, Collie, Ehle, Hawn, Krieger, Whipple, Doescher, Conway, Jennings, Treder, Grover, Diver, Corning, Beebe, Fuller, Harris, Witter, Hagadorn, Wingate, Tredway, McSorley, Parsons and Kennedy.

LAW SCHOOL NOTES

Death of Judge Tennant—Fraternity Initiates.

Judge Albert C. Tennant, for many years a lecturer in the Law School passed away at his home in Cooperstown, Sunday, November 5th. He had been in ill health during the summer and was unable to resume his work at the opening of the school.

Judge Tennant held a place on the Faculty and in the hearts of his fellow-lecturers and the large number of students with whom he had come in contact during his connection with the Law School that it would be almost impossible for another to fill. He was a man of more than usual broad mindedness, and had a personal magnetism, and unconscious sympathy which drew faculty as well as students, into a close and personal relation with him.

The funeral which was held at Cooperstown on November 8th was attended by almost the entire faculty, and a committee representing the Senior class, the last class privileged to receive his personal instruction. Resolutions were adopted by the class as well as the Board of Trustees of the school.

Christian Association

VESPER SERVICE: Mr. John T. Freman the superintendent of schools will speak on the “Power of Prayer.”

TUESDAY EVENING: Subject, “Some of Our Doubts.” Bradbeer, '07, leader.

As is the custom of the associations throughout the country this week has been observed as a week of prayer. Dr. Ellery has met the fellows so inclined at a quarter of six and these short meetings have been most valuable. Mr. Freman, the speaker Sunday, is the new superintendent of the city schools and his subject, the “Power of Prayer,” will complete the week's work.

Vesper Service

Sunday's Vesper Service was lead by Rev. A. Russell Stevenson, D. D., of the First Presbyterian Church. The subject of the address was, "Shall I Ignore the Death of Jesus?"

Dr. Stevenson most clearly presented the idea of the motives which we bring to bear upon our lives by two illustrations, first by telling of the solution of the problem of supplying the City of Schenectady with water by making evaporation, rainfall, gravitation and electricity, nature's great forces, do the work, and then of the hopeless task of the Egyptian laborer on the Nile, perpetually raising his bucket of water from the river to the level of the ever-thirsting plains.

"What motive power are we bringing to bear upon ourselves to take sin from our lives?" said Dr. Stevenson. "We are making a great mistake when we try to use human force to do it. In this world we find ourselves with a lot of appetites. We want the things that money can buy. Can we check ourselves from stealing? We want success. Can we refrain from telling the lie that will bring it? We gratify our appetite once and it is twice as hard to check, twice and it is four times as hard and so they go on rolling up their force according to the square. If they are not checked near the beginning we are lost. Where are we going to get the motive to stop?"

"We sometimes bring in the bodily motive, telling ourselves that we cannot indulge in certain sins and be an athlete or that indulgence in them will bring to us the loss of our faculties. But we have a greater; we have the divine motive, the crucifixion. The question comes, 'Shall I ignore the death of Jesus?' If I do I lose the greatest force for the checking of sin. A man who says 'I shall employ the bodily motives,' throws away the greatest motive of all.

Kappa Alpha Entertains

The first large fraternity dance of the year occurred on the hill last Friday night when the Kappa Alpha Society gave its annual fall dance and reception. The lodge was very prettily decorated with evergreens and scarlet, and the large veranda was inclosed by garnet cloth, making a fine promenade during dances. Guests began to arrive about nine o'clock and the reception continued until nearly ten, when dancing was begun.

Mrs. C. F. Linn, Mrs. E. T. Lawsing and Mrs. J. H. Stoller received. Refreshments were served, during an intermission at midnight, after which dancing was enjoyed until two o'clock. The affair was a very enjoyable one. Those present were: Mrs. C. F. Linn, Mrs. E. T. Lawsing, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Stoller, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Van Tyne, the Misses Schuyler, Bryce and Woods of Albany; Hildreth of Herkimer; Medbury and Close of Ballston Spa; Brogg of New York; Donnan of Troy; Wilbur of Whitehall; Reynolds, Williams, Florence and Jessie Wright, Kriegsman, Furman, E. Yates, Featherstonhaugh, Drummon, Peck, Lundgren, Schermerhorn, Bates, Horstmann, Ostrom, Watkins, Graves, Rita Graves, Kitts, Parker, Osborne and Telfer of Schenectady; the Messrs. Mann, A. B. Lawrence, Lawsing, Fiero, Van Epps, J. J. Lawrence, Hart, Downs, Cross, M. King, W. King, Waldron, S. J. Raymond, Bradbeer, McClellan, Fairbairn, Wadsworth, L. H. Peebles, J. B. Peebles, Webb, White, Clossen, Reeder, Butcher, Blinn, Rider, Vedder, Imrie, Briggs, Brooks; and the members of the active chapter.

BOOK NOTE ON "LORDS OF THE SOIL."

Very interesting indeed is it to know that Lydia Ann Jocelyn, who, together with Nathan J. Cuffee, has written "LORDS OF THE SOIL," is a direct descendent of Captain Lawrence of "Don't give up the ship" fame. From her great grandmother who was 15 years old at the time of the Revolution, she gained much information concerning Colonial times. Her great-great-grandfather on the maternal side was an officer in the French and Indian war with Gen. Israel Putnam, serving on Lake Champlain and in the Canadas. This great-great-grandfather being captured by the Indians, was forced to run the gauntlet, and though terribly maimed was not killed. He was afterwards awarded the gauntlet belt which rendered the wearer immune from savage attacks.

What wonder with such blood in her veins that Mrs. Jocelyn is able to write one of the most fascinating stories published since the days of J. Fenimore Cooper.

Pharmacy Notes

We have nothing to say against the new law in regard to entrance to the College of Pharmacy. Far from it. We believe that anything which tends to raise the standard of education among pharmacists is a move in the right direction, but we can not but deplore the fact that in the working out of this law we lose a good student from our class.

Mr. Drew who has done one years work in an Ohio University, but who has not the requisite number of regents counts for entrance to this college, and who had not matriculated previous to January 1, 1905, has been compelled to withdraw from Albany College of Pharmacy. He has taken up his senior year's work in some university in Maine. The best wishes of the class of '06, for his success, follow Mr. Drew into his new field of labor.

Football Songs

(To "Marching Through Georgia.")

Union has a football team that's surely bound to win.

Find the hole among'st them boys and butt your heads right in,

Never mind our racket, for we're sure to make a din,

While we are cheering for Union.

Hurrah! Hurrah! We're sure to win the game!
Hurrah, Hurrah! We'll spread Old Union's fame!
———'s a corker, but we'll beat 'em just the same,

While we are cheering for Union.

(To "Tammany.")

Victory, victory, Union's boys have got the ball,
And they're sure to trim them all,

Victory, victory, Push 'em! Shove 'em! Rip 'em!
Tare 'em!
Victory!

College Meeting

The meeting was called to order by President Chapman.

Dann spoke on the football game, saying that very little blame was due the team for the defeat.

Reed spoke on the Musical Clubs announcing the rehearsals and praising the work of the clubs very highly, especially that of the Instrumental Club, which has been greatly improved by the freshmen members.

Miller announced that the registration for Assistant Business Manager of the "Concordiensis" would close on the 15th.

The meeting was adjourned till Nov. 20th.

President Faunce of Brown says that intercollegiate athletics are necessary to bring out the loyalty of a student body. President Elliot of Harvard says that football is not good training for "honorable, generous and efficient service to the community in after life."

Publication Office, SCHENECTADY GAZETTE.

Some one here in college recently queried, "Is Union's campus a public short-cut, or a private grounds?" If the same question were put to the people of Schenectady, we doubt not that a big majority of them would answer that they deemed it a public short-cut. And they evidently do.

Now, it is far from our intention to assume the "dog in the manger" position. Our grounds, which challenge comparison with the best, have always been open to the public. We wish that they ever may be. In late years, since Schenectady, in its phenomenal growth, has surrounded us, it has been a great convenience to the people to be allowed to cut across the grounds and particularly the campus, unmolested.

We do not protest against this, but we do wish fair treatment and, failing that to warn all to be careful of their property, on this account. When so many cross, it is impossible that all should be scrupulously honest. It is a proven fact that all are not so. Various things have been lost from the campus but the most open piece of work occurred last Monday. At noon, when the football men were returning from the training table, they met a young man coming out of the college grounds, bearing in triumph one of the track hurdles, which had been left on the oval, where we might expect them to be safe. When one of the fellows unkindly asked him to hand back the hurdle, he first became insulted and then belligerent. The idea that any of "them college guys" should try to keep him from taking what he wanted from the college grounds! He couldn't understand it. Finally, after much persuasion, he was convinced that he would confer a great favor upon all concerned if he would let the college use the hurdle until after the spring meets were run off. The self-sacrificing heroism of the young man was truly admirable.

Again, if you would have your property, watch it.

Our team has had hard luck, but if the spirit of the boys is aroused by victory today with Hobart we shall defeat New York University. We beg of you, one and all come out and show the team that even now, there is no lack of appreciation for the fellows who have sacrificed their personal convenience for devotion to Alma Mater. Let every Union man be on the Campus this afternoon! We need them all! We will show the team that we still know how to yell.

As for last Saturday's game perhaps the less said, the better. At first we all felt pretty much like knocking. In fact, we do feel that way yet. If the reports of the game are true, all was not as it should be. But what is to be gained by complaining? The game has gone down in history as a good sound defeat, as it was. All there is for us is to take our medicine like men and try again. We will surely have another chance. We have done the trick before; we can do it again. Don't let the world say that Union men are quitters!

Last year there was some talk of having a basketball team playing under the name of the college. The time is ripe now to stop talking and show the athletic board that we can organize a team that will be a credit to Union. A few of the faithful have been practicing in the gym lately. More are needed before anything of importance can be accomplished. All you who have ever played basketball, show your smiling countenances in the gym at once. There is room for all; you will get some splendid exercise and more than this, you will show true loyalty to the institution we love above all others.

ROCHESTER 16-UNION 0

Rochester Wins Loose Game

In a game characterized by unusually heavy penalties, which seem to us to have been rather unfairly distributed, Rochester easily defeated Union at Rochester last Saturday. Union at times made remarkable gains but in all cases was discovered infringing the rules and was, accordingly, severely punished. If Rochester's fault, it was most unsportsmanlike; if Union's fault care should be taken to avoid a repetition of actions which proved so disastrous to our chances of scoring. The total of our penalties was 130 yards, more than equal to a touchdown.

Rochester's strong point was her great line bucking, each of the three touchdowns coming as a direct result of this. In like manner she scored twice on Colgate. For Union Moore punted well, two of his kicks going over 65 yards. McNab played well, making several runs.

Captain Dann won the toss and chose to defend the west goal. Moore returned the kick-off 15 yards. He made 4 yards on a mass on tackle and Mulrooney made first down. Davis failed to gain and Moore made 3 yards through right tackle. Moore punted.

On the catch, Rochester returned 15 yards. Penalized 15 yards for holding but made up the loss on a fake punt. Union held for downs and punted on first down. By line-bucking, Rochester brought the ball to our 20-yard line. They failed to gain and formed for a fake place-kick. Here the quarter-back received the ball and plunged through the line. The play was protested but it was allowed.

Union then held for downs. McNab made a pretty quarter-back run of 30 yards, but the ball was brought back and Union penalized 15 yards for holding. Moore punted. From that point, by line plunges, Rochester brought the ball back to the 15-yard line. The remaining distance to the touchdown was made on a tandem play through our right side. No goal. Score, Rochester 5, Union 0.

On the kick-off Davis carried the ball back 20 yards. McNab got 15 yards. Again Union was penalized 15 yards for holding. Moore punted. Rochester could not gain and was forced to punt. McNab was downed in his tracks. The ball was down when the Rochester quarterback got in under McNab and, in some manner, probably not moral suasion, obtained possession of it. Mr. Ward permitted Rochester to retain possession in center of field. From this point, by a series of powerful line bucks, Rochester scored. No goal. Score, Rochester 10, Union 0.

Shortly after, time was called for the first half.

The second half opened, the officials changing places and Mr. Ward becoming umpire. At this point he brought out a new method of umpiring. Usually, the umpire stands on a line with the two lines of forwards. Mr. Ward took up his position, however, behind the half backs.

Moore kicked off for Union. Rochester was forced to punt, Union getting the ball near the center of the field. By short end runs and line bucks the ball was carried to Rochester's 30-yard line where it was fumbled and recovered by Rochester. After carrying the ball to Union's 40-yard line, Rochester was held for downs. Union's ball. Hildreth ran 15 yards but was brought back as Union was holding. Penalized 15 yards. Moore punted. Rochester worked the ball, by the same steady line pounding, up for another touchdown. The goal was kicked. Score, Rochester 16, Union 0.

Rochester kicked off to Union. Runs by McNab and good gains by other backs carried the ball to Rochester's 15-yard line. Moore went 4 yards but the inevitable holding was discovered, resulting in another 15-yard penalty by Mr. Ward. On next down Wright gained 10 yards on the delayed pass, but again there was holding and again Union lost 15 yards. This forced Moore to punt. The Rochester quarterback returned the ball 15 yards. Union held and Rochester punted.

Hildreth caught the ball and returned it 65 yards, getting through the whole Rochester team, but being tackled from behind on the 10-yard line. But Mr. Ward ruled that he ran out of bounds and brought him back to the 50-yard line.

At this point Armstrong was substituted for Hildreth. On the next play Union was again penalized 15 yards. Shortly after Merrill was discovered slugging and was taken out, Nutt being substituted. The rest of the half alternated with short gains by Union and penalties by Mr. Ward. Final score, Rochester 16, Union 0.

The line-up was as follows:

Rochester.	Positions.	Union.
Jordan	left guard.	Von Dannenberg
Reynolds	centre.	Peck
Slater	right guard.	Lent

Union vs. Hobart

Today the team lines up against Hobart for the last home game of the season. This is the first time in years that these old-time rivals have met and a good game is looked for. Hobart's ability is at present unknown, the only team on which to base comparison being Rochester, which, earlier in the season, defeated Hobart by exactly the same score as it defeated us last Saturday. The management expects a good attendance.

The week's work has been stiff. Several new plays have been tried with great success against the scrub, which, it is expected, will count against Hobart, especially if their line does not outweigh ours. If possible, the regulars will be saved for N. Y. U.

Harvey, for the first time in several weeks, is out again and in his old position. He will not be used today unless necessary and will probably be in prime shape for next week's game, as is hoped of the rest of the hospital list.

Let Us Smile

A local daily disgorged the following bit of editorial humor over Saturday's game:

Union, more radical than the supporters of the free silver doctrines of 16 to 1, has returned from Rochester knowing that 16 to 0 is not merely a theory, but a fact.

It is a pleasure to see our efforts appreciated in the line of economics if not athletics.

Success

No Magic—Just Fair Dealing—Newman.
Clothing and Haberdashery for College Men.

It is our belief that no store, not even excepting stores in New York City, can show more complete and comprehensive lines of Men's and Young Men's Clothing.

The range of prices: Suits $10.00 to $35.00; with full dress and Tuxedo, at $22.00 to $40.00; Overcoats to $45 doesn't mean at Newman's a great many suits or overcoats at one price and a few suits at the other prices.

It means that each and every price there will be a variety of styles for slim men, stout men, long slim men, short stout men, men of regular proportions, and for men of unusual proportions.

In fact, we know that we have made provision for men whose wants have never before been supplied by reputable makers of high grade ready for service clothing.

THE course covering four years begins during the first week in October and continues until June. A preliminary training in natural science is of great advantage. All the classes are divided in small sections for recitation, laboratory and clinical bedside instruction. Students are admitted to advance standing after passing the requisite examinations. The successful completion of the first year in any College or University recognized by the Regents of the State of New York as maintaining a satisfactory standard is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for admission which have lately been raised. The annual announcement giving full particulars will be mailed on application.
