SUNDAY VESPER: Dean Ripton will speak on "Teaching" as a life work.

TUESDAY EVENING: Subject, "Prayer"; Leader, Parsons, '08.

The series of "Life Work Talks" which have been arranged for the Sunday vesper services during this term should prove of exceptional interest, not only to the Seniors who are thinking particularly of their life occupations at this time, but to every man in college. The first of the series was delivered by Doctor Towne on April 8th, his subject being, "Medicine." The talk was a most interesting one. Tomorrow Dean Ripton will speak on some of the opportunities that are offered to teachers.

On April 8, three Union men took charge of the regular Sunday afternoon meeting of the Troy Central Y. M. C. A., in their new building. The meeting was attended by about 150 of the men of Troy. Nutt, '06, and H. W. Bell, '08, each delivered a short address, and Bell also acted in the capacity of soloist. The meeting was a great success.

Mr. Vernon M. McCombs, a travelling secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement, visited the college for a couple of days this week. While here he spoke at the Tuesday night meeting in Silliman Hall, and also delivered a short but very interesting talk in the college chapel, on the foreign mission field and some of its needs. Mr. McCombs also had personal conferences with a number of the students as to the possibility of their volunteering as missionaries. Mr. McCombs himself goes to Peru as a teacher and missionary in July.

My Weather Bureau

How do I know that the Spring time has come?
Because I'm forever a-thinking of One;
And so is the robin and so is the squirrel—
But my One (perhaps you have guessed) is a girl.

At chapel the soft morning light entering there
Is blended with shadows that play in Her hair;
I sit in the classroom, my hand taking notes,
My tho't-train, an aeroplane—how it floats
Away and away in a world-circling whirl,
But sooner or later arrives at—the Girl.
And study—how can I? The words are a blur,
A mingling of symbols—and visions of Her.
And in the old Lab. I'm the worst blunderer;
Not always so stupid—but thinking of Her
And what tho' there might be some traces of snow
And what this cold wind should continue to blow;

Without any calendar using nothing
But my Heart Weather Bureau, I know that it's Spring.

Marriage of Dr. Potter's Daughter

The Rev. P. F. Sturges of the Church of St. Peter, Morristown, N. J., performed the ceremony. Only the immediate families and a few friends of Dr. Barclay and Miss Potter were present. Immediately after the ceremony Dr. and Mrs. Barclay left town on their honeymoon. Dr. Barclay is a member of the Union Club. He was graduated from Harvard with the class of 1897. He spent several years at Bellevue Hospital as an interne."—N. Y. Sun, April 15, 1906.

The Rutgers Debate

Interest in the annual Rutgers-Union debate has taken a decided form this year, and candidates for position on the team are of a quality to promise a sturdy fight against our rivals. The subject "Resolved that municipal control of Public Utilities is for the Welfare of the Community" will be argued by the Union team on the affirmative. If former years are any criterion the Rutgers men will be up to the top notch and will put up a strong defence. Candidates for the Union team are Putnam '06, Lewis '06, Reed '06, Parsons '07 and Wachter '09.

Andrew Carnegie has offered Colgate University a gift of twenty thousand dollars for the enlargement and improvement of the chemical laboratory on condition that the University raise an equal amount. President Merrill is now in New York attending a meeting of the Executive Committee of the University Corporation called to formulate plans for raising the twenty thousand dollars. Dr. Merrill is much gratified at the promised gift and feels confident that the University's share can be raised.—Ex.

For time immemorial we have endeavored to create a college spirit against making a thoroughfare of the campus. Ridicule, gentle irony and bitter sarcasm have accomplished nothing nor has reason appealed to our phlegmatic temperaments.

We now have a diamond that demands care and attention. Any path made across it will necessarily defeat the object for which it was made. In order to preserve its usefulness in the highest degree, Capt. Rider asks that this long-continued practice be stopped, once and forever. If the students can not or will not eliminate this evil, then it were better for us that we had no diamond on which to imprint disregard for the man whom we have chosen to marshal the team to victory. Once more we ask all students to stand by Captain Rider, not only for his sake but also for the sake of our loyalty to Old Union.

Toward the end of last term we were quite delighted to hear sundry rumors of a calculus cremation to take place during the spring term. To one who has witnessed such a ceremony the idea is altogether pleasing. Would that some literary aspirant with a bent toward the illustrious past might present an accurate account of this time-honored custom! The campus meeting resounding with the good old cheers and songs; the long procession of students solemnly marching three times around the campus headed by a body of chief mourners clad in black robes, bearing the coffin; the glowing torches finally leading the way past the idol to the tennis courts; the funeral pyre heaped high with a dozen barrels; the wild frolic as the flames crept up and cast grotesque shadows round about the revellers—all this seems good, for it recalls a ceremony apparently doomed to forgetfulness. Let us cherish these customs. Let us add to our present enthusiasm by coming into contact with that rare spirit of the past. This, once done, will lead to the revival of other dormant customs which cannot but add to the joy of these few years with Alma Mater.

With these pleasant spring days, our thoughts naturally turn toward the rapidly approaching end of the college year and for the seniors, of the college course. With these come other thoughts of that cap of the whole year, commencement time, with its exercises and farewell good times. To many of us the time of the week is the Senior Ball, towards the making of which the best of its kind every Senior class bends all its energies.

It is of the Ball that we wish to speak particularly here. While given by the Seniors, it is as much a general college function as are the Hops and the Soiree. It reflects more or less directly upon the college itself if this affair is not one of the most brilliant social events that the city affords. This can only be accomplished by the active co-operation of all in college, irrespective of class. For some time the committee has been actively at work to make this year's Ball successful, as far as their work is concerned, they promise the best ever. The music will be the best that can be secured about here. The catering will be of the best. For the decorations those who can remember are referred to the '06 Soiree, which they hope to surpass. In the line of dance orders, a novelty is promised.

But the best news of all is the absolute assurance that the dance can be held on the campus, for the first time since the '06 Soiree. The committee has secured the new electrical laboratory, which will be formally opened at that time. From this it will be seen that the committee is doing its best. The rest is up to the men in college, most particularly, of course, to the Seniors, whose annual tax helps carry the affair through financially. Let's get together and welcome the college dances back on the Hill. It is not too early to begin to make plans and to lay aside the pennies.

BASKETBALL

Juniors 22—Freshmen 31.

The Juniors met the Freshmen for the first time in the High School gymnasium on Wednesday night, April 11th.

The Freshmen played excellent ball during the first half, the score at its end being 16 to 4 in their favor. At the beginning of the second half the Juniors got together, and it looked as if they were determined to win, but owing to bad passes and numerous fumbles they only brought their score up to 22.

Although the Freshmen seemed to lose spirit they succeeded in gaining 15 more points.

Osborne threw most of the baskets for the Juniors; Perry and Brown for the Freshmen.

The line-up was as follows:

Juniors.	Freshmen.
Cantwell	Perry
Davis	Starbuck
	forwards.
Osborne	Brown-Potter
	centre.
Norwood-Weller	Huntington-Brown
Harvey	Armstrong
	guards.

Referee—Russ, Schenectady High School.

Baseball

The work of "skinning" the diamond is progressing rapidly. The contractor, C. T. Gridley, will have it in perfect condition early next week and the contract is so worded that it is entirely to his interest to have it so. Moreover he is to see that it is kept in this condition for the first two weeks proving the success of the work. This gives the team several days of practice on the new diamond which will of course be much faster than the old one, and get in good shape for the Colgate game.

The team leaves for Williamstown this morning, accompanied by the managers and "Doc" Towne. The following men will be taken: Davis p., Vogt c., Rider lb., Harvey 2b., Perry 3b., Hildreth s. s., Bergan l. f., Hagar c. f., Osborne r. f., with Van Der Bosch, Huntington and Bayless, substitutes.

Williams has lost several stars from her last year's team and is not in the best condition, so though Union is not too hopeful, yet she expects at least to give Williams a hard game. If some of the men can go over and help the team on with rooting, we have a very good chance.

Baseball

The first baseball game of the year was played on the campus, Wednesday afternoon, when the Varsity lined up against a strong scrub for a five inning battle. The teams were pretty evenly matched as the score, three to two, indicates. Davis pitched well for the regulars allowing but two hits, one of which was the scratch order and would have been captured by anything but "ice-wagon" work. Norwood did well and while not seeming to exert himself, held the hard hitters down to four safeties, one a two-sacker by Hildreth.

The field work of the regulars was far from encouraging. Both scrub runs were due to rank Varsity errors. There was a general looseness about the play which will probably be remedied by more outdoor work. It is necessary, if we are win today's game.

Line-up:

Varsity.	Scrub.
Vogt	Huntington catch.
Davis	Norwood pitch.
Rider	Osborne 1st base.
Harvey	King 2d base.
Perry	Hafley 3d base.
Hildreth	Potter (Hendricks) short stop.
Bergan	Richardson left field.
Hagar	Bayless centre field.
Van Der Bosch	Pettit right field.

Score:

Varsity	1	0	2	0	0—3
Scrub	0	0	0	1	1—2

A PIPE DREAM

On Baseball

Where is the college man who has not at one time in his long life had high aspirations for future baseball greatness? That fellow? Oh—he's just a grind.

Remember how you used to sneak off from school to the back lot? (It was hookey then instead of a mere bolt). The rest of the crowd would be there. If you were chosen captain how happy you felt, and selected your men with the eye of a connoisseur. You lined up—little matter if you got a black eye or a smashed finger, or lost a front tooth. You were happy just to be playing baseball, and you were developing rapidly.

Then you came to college and found that there were fellows who could play as well as you, or better. They didn't make you captain as you thought they might; and they actually had the nerve to put you in as sub. on the scrub team. After you had an average of .001 in the field and .002 at the bat for a month you decided that you might better give the other fellows a chance at your position. Then you joined the mere men on the side lines, ponied up for a skin diamond, and on practice days criticized everything from the captain to the embryo manager with the water pail.

After weeks, it seems, a rival college team appears on the campus "play ball!" and they're off. How you grip the bleacher seat as your classmate pitcher's arm rises, cool, collected, his man perfectly sized up! How you swallow that lump in your throat when the batter locates the ball—and what a yelp of joy when a snappy field play kills him on first! Nervous tension is at its height, when in the ninth inning the score is tie, and you have three bases full and a poor man at bat. Two strikes! a perfect bunt brings home the winning run. Its over! and as you give your old college yell, don't you feel proud that you're a son of Alma Mater?

Kenyon College seems to have resolved to prove the maxim "Misfortunes never come singly." Recently most of the buildings of the Kenyon Military Academy burned down, causing a loss of about $50,000. This was the smallest part of the catastrophe, though. Three cadets, James J. Fuller, of Warren, Ohio, J. Everett Henderson, of Ridge Farm, Ill., and W. S. Kunkle, of Ashtabula, Ohio, were burned to death. Ten others were badly injured and all the students who inhabited Delano, Milnor and the annex halls lost all.

There is something distinctive about the clothing we sell, that feature which marks it as decidedly different and gives each garment individuality. A few years has wrought wonderful changes in the clothing trade, a change that makes possible buying clothing, ready to wear, excelling in every way the handiwork of the ordinary tailor.

The "K. B." shoulder and coat front is the lasting foundation upon which our clothing is built. Over this foundation is carefully marked by hand the perfect fitting, shape retaining garment we sell.

just for your sake. Nothing conservative about these suits. They're togs like the merchant tailors create in college towns, —as extreme, as graceful, as boldly original, as well setting, and very much less in cost—as much less indeed as the, "ordinary common garden variety" of ready-made clothes.
