BASEBALL.

During the past week the baseball schedule, after having been ratified by the athletic council and approved by the faculty, was made public. The schedule is the best arranged in recent years.

S. K. HYDE, Manager.

It includes in all fourteen games, eight of which are to be played on the Campus.

As usual the season is opened with West Point on their diamond. The only entirely unfamiliar name on the schedule is Niagara University. The other teams Union has met for a number of years back. Manager Hyde is to be congratulated upon the excellent schedule arranged. The large number of home games is especially appreciated by the students.

H. P. STEWART, Captain.

The schedule is as follows:

April 13—West Point at West Point.

April 16—Pratt Institute at Schenectady.

April 23—Rutgers at New Brunswick.

April 27—New York University at Schenectady.

April 30—Niagara University at Schenectady.

May 5—Colgate at Hamilton.

May 6—Hamilton at Clinton.

May 14—Hobart at Schenectady.

May 20—Hobart at Geneva.

May 21—Rochester at Rochester.

May 27—Rochester at Schenectady.

May 30—Hamilton at Schenectady.

June 4—Rutgers at Schenectady.

June 7—Colgate at Schenectady.

BIGELOW FOR HONORARY CHANCELLOR.

Announcement Made at Meeting of Board of Governors.

At the meeting of the Board of Governors of the University, which was also held in Albany on Tuesday, it was announced that John Bigelow, '35, had been secured as Honorary Chancellor for the commencement exercises next June. Mr. Bigelow, who is now in his ninety-second year, is one of the oldest and most famous of Union's alumni.

Reports of Different Departments.

Satisfactory reports were made to the Board of Governors by representatives from all the different departments.

Prof. Benjamin W. Arnold of the Dudley Observatory reported that a map of the stars of the Northern Hemisphere is to be presently completed and issued. A similar map of the Southern Hemisphere is being prepared by its station established in Argentina.

"Prom" and Soiree—the best dances of the year. Don't fail to attend.

BASKETBALL.

 Rochester, 28; Union, 10.

In the fastest game, seen here thus far, Rochester defeated Union by the decisive score of twenty-eight to ten.

Rochester has a better team this year than last; and has been invincible up to this time. After defeating Colgate by thirty-two to seventeen the previous night, they came here Saturday, and had another hard battle before they were victorious.

The attendance was very satisfactory to the management. All the available bleachers were crowded, and many stood; the balcony was also well filled.

A preliminary game between the Sophomores and Freshmen was called at eight o'clock. Nineteen hundred and twelve had the better team; and, though the Freshmen fought hard, they were defeated, sixteen to five. Smith, for 1912, played an exceptionally good game. Webb captained the "Sophs," and Dewey the "Frosh."

The whistle for the regular game blew at 8:45. For about five minutes no score was made, though Union missed two good chances. Then Rochester's team-work began to tell. By rapid pass-work and daring throws, Rochester netted five baskets and these, with three fouls, gave them thirteen points to Union's one, a foul throw by Anderson. At this point, Hequembourg collided with a Rochester guard, and Johnson took his place. Union took a brace, and held Rochester to two baskets in the remainder of the half, Coward meanwhile shooting a foul. Here the half ended, with the score of seventeen to two.

In the second half, the Garnet five put up a decidedly better game than in the first. They started off with a rush; and, before the middle of the half, had secured seven points to Rochester's four. Then Rochester made several long "dribbles" and took the lead. Captain Harmon was injured but resumed play shortly after. Though Union fought pluckily, Rochester secured three more baskets and a foul, which, with Anderson's foul throw, ended the scoring, the game thus resulting twenty-eight to ten.

The game was very rough, and, at some stages, closely resembled football. In the rough playing, Rochester took the lead, with several plays that bordered on interference.

Union's team-work was a great improvement over that showing in the previous games, and a better game than that played in the second half is seldom seen.

The line-up follows:

Harmon, (Capt.) ..... Coward
Right Forward.

W. Edwards, Kaiser ..... Hequembourg, Johnson
Left Forward.

Ramaker ..... Anderson Center.

H. Edwards ..... Charest, (Capt.)
Left Guard.

Carey ..... Fairbairn
Right Guard.

Basket, from court—Coward 1, Anderson 1, Charest 1; Ramaker 7, Carey 2, Kaiser 1, Harmon 1, H. Edwards 1. Foul throws—Harmon 4, Coward 3, Anderson 1. Referee—Grout, of Union. Scorers—Hill and Kaiser. Timers—Grover and Whittams.

 DR. CADY TO VISIT ORIENT NEXT YEAR.

Rev. Dr. Putnam Cady, pastor of the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church of Amsterdam, who has for the past two winters given lectures in the college chapel on recent archaeological discoveries in Egypt and other countries, has been engaged by the White Star Line Steamship Company as lecturer on its seventh annual winter cruise of the Mediterranean and Orient in 1911.

As lecturer it will be Dr. Cady's work to give formal addresses on shipboard, covering each point to be visited, on the evening before landing. During the long ocean voyage, the history of each country will be taken up in detail and lectures on art and archaeology will be given.

Of course you are going to the Soiree.

JUNIOR WEEK.

With the annual Junior festivities but a week off final plans are being rushed to completion. Pre-Junior Week enthusiasm is apparent throughout the college and it is with anticipatory impatience that each fellow is counting the days and hours that must be lived before the arrival of "his girl." Junior Week this year is expected to surpass all previous occasions of the kind. Tris Coffin and Phil Wescott, chairmen of the "Prom" and Soiree committees respectively, have left nothing undone that will in any way add to the success of the dances.

As usual there will be several house parties among the fraternities and these will enjoy dances Saturday night. An added feature for Junior Week will be a basketball game in the Armory at seven o'clock. The game is with New York University and is expected to be one of the best home games. Among the fraternities that will have house parties or other forms of entertainment are Chi Psi, Psi Upsilon, Phi Delta Theta, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Phi, Alpha Delta Phi, Phi Gamma Delta. The musical clubs will give a concert in the High School Auditorium Friday afternoon.

Through the efforts of the Junior Week committees it has been decided to abolish the custom of keeping the girls supplied with flowers during the week. This has been done by several other colleges and is looked upon by the students as an excellent decision.

The dance programs for the "Prom" and the Soiree have been received. The former are made of heavy brown leather, with attractive embossing including the university seal. The Soiree programmes are heavy white leather with the university seal in gold on the cover.

The program for the week is as follows:

Thursday, Feb. 3—Sophomore Soiree, Golf Club.

Friday, Feb. 4, 2:30 p. m.—Concert by Musical clubs, High School.

Friday Evening, Feb. 4—Junior "Prom," Hotel Ten Eyck, Albany.

Saturday Afternoon, Feb. 5—Theatre parties.

Saturday, 7 p. m.—Basketball game, N. Y. U. vs. Union, Armory.

Saturday Evening—Fraternity dances and theatre parties.

Are you going to the "Prom?"

ALUMNI TO MEET AT TEN EYCK.

Unusually Large Attendance Expected.

The executive committee of the Union College Alumni Association of North-eastern New York has announced that the twenty-second annual meeting and banquet will be held at the Ten Eyck Hotel in Albany on February 10. The usual preliminary meeting for the election of officers will be held in the Corinthian parlor of the Ten Eyck at 7:45 o'clock, and the banquet will begin at 8:00.

As this is the first meeting since the inauguration of Dr. Richmond, a large attendance is expected. He is to be the guest of honor on the occasion, and Gov. Hughes will also be invited. For the banquet a toast list will be prepared which will contain not only the names of distinguished speakers from our own alumni but also the names of other prominent business and professional men.

In the official announcements of the re-union which have lately been published, the executive committee makes the following statement:

"The officers and the executive committee hope to make this the most successful and enjoyable college dinner of the year and all that is needed is the presence in goodly numbers of their fellow alumni of the several departments of the University and of those conducting the very efficient work therein, which we believe is being done."

After a term and a half of college work
JUNIOR the festivities of Junior Week are com-WEEK ing to free the mind from all other activities and cast studies for the time into oblivion. For three days the student is expected to lay aside his other pursuits and get his share of social enjoyment.

Every live student should take some part in the festivities of the week, for Union men are always noted for the energy with which they back every movement worthy of their support.
And Junior Week is worthy of hearty support; it is an annual occurrence; is observed in the majority of other colleges, and is recognized by the faculties of the different institutions who suspend all college work during that time.

In spite of this there is a certain class of students who, although they willingly support the athletic teams and other student activities, consider that they have neither the time nor the money to spend in the enjoyment of the social functions. While knowing that when an athletic season is a failure the report works harm to the college, they fail to realize that the failure or success of the Junior Week festivities will have a great influence on many people not directly connected with the college. For how can it be otherwise when so many families of wealth and prominence in Schenectady and other cities will be represented to them?

Of course, there is necessarily considerable expense connected with attending the "Prom" or Soiree, but this year flowers have been abolished and expenses have been cut down in other ways as much as possible. The committees in charge of the different dances have made careful preparation, and the only thing needed to make them among the most successful dances ever held is the hearty support of the students of every class.
Everyone should endeavor to attend at least one of these functions, have his share of enjoyment from the annual festivities, and help along the success of a custom which has been observed at
"Old Union" for so many years.

The "Prom" is the best ever this year.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETS.

Two New Trustees Elected and Important Matters Considered.

At the meeting of the trustees which was held at the Albany Medical College on Tuesday two new trustees were elected and other important matters were considered. The persons who were chosen as trustees to fill the present vacancies are Mr. Courtland V. Anable of New York City and Mr. Willis T. Hanson of Schenectady. Mr. Anable is a Union graduate in the Class of '81 and is at present a prominent lawyer in New York.

The meeting was an enthusiastic one and was well attended, the only trustees who were absent being Hon. Warner Miller of Herkimer, Charles E. Sprague of New York, Thomas Weir of Salt Lake City, and William F. Havermyer of New York, Clark Williams, State Comptroller, an ex-officio member of the Board was also present.

It was decided by the Board that there should be a formal opening of the new engineering building some time next spring, the date not being settled as yet. Although it is not known whether he will come Mr. Carnegie will be invited and urged to be present. The sending out of the invitations was left to Dr. Richmond.

Provision was also made for the repairing of the part of South College recently destroyed by fire. The architectural features of the building are to remain the same as far as possible. An architect is soon to be engaged to prepare the plans and have charge of the work.

The question of a site for the new "gym" was discussed but little, the trustees having already assured the "gymn" committee that a site will be forthcoming as soon as the funds are raised. The trustees are still all heartily in favor the movement.

The erecting of a memorial for John Howard Payne was discussed and met with general approval. The committee in charge of the movement will now proceed to raise the money by popular subscriptions ranging from $1.00 up. The movement of the business men of the city for beautifying the Campus was also heartily approved of, and it is expected that the committee will at once take steps to raise the money.

The College Press Club was recognized by the committee as doing a good work in spreading news of "Old Union." It was thought that the movement should be financially supported and the matter was referred to its committee on finance.

COLLEGE MEETING.

The meeting was opened by the singing of "Alma Mater," and the "Terrace Song." Hutchens led a long yell for Zimmer, who responded by speaking about the next basketball game to be played in Schenectady, with New York University on February 5.

Potter spoke about the Freshmen remaining in place until "Alma Mater" was finished. He said that their action in coming down from the gallery during the last verse showed lack of college spirit and appreciation of what the song means.

Coffin made a motion, which was voted on and carried, that the use of flowers during Junior Week should be abolished.

President Cavert, speaking of the addresses to be given by Dr. Potter, said that attendance was by no means compulsory. The talks were not arranged by the faculty, but were entirely a student affair. As all tests and student activities had been arranged so as not to conflict with the addresses, everyone would have a chance to attend.

The first Soiree of the year. Don't miss it.

DR. POTTER'S MEETINGS.

For the first three days of this week Dr. Rockwell Harmon Potter, Union, '95, now of Hartford, Conn., gave a series of "straight from the shoulder talks" to the students. The talks were given as a sort of an introductory course to the day of prayer which occurs to-day. A large number of students took advantage of the opportunity to hear Dr. Potter and were more than repaid by attending.

Don't miss the "Prom."

SUNDAY VESPERS.

The Sunday afternoon vesper service, held in the chapel last Sunday, was addressed by William Jay Schieffelin, of New York City, on the subject of "A Business Man's Religion."

In opening his talk Mr. Schieffelin said that although his subject was "A Business Man's Religion," he preferred to talk on the "Business of a Religious Man." He said that during the last few years a number of things had occurred which showed that the conscience of the nation is awakening, among which are the insurance investigations, the higher standards of politics and the passing of the pure food law. In talking of the pure food and drug act, in which he was personally interested, he told somewhat about his business, saying that the drug firm with which he was now connected had been in existence over 115 years, five generations of the Schieffelin family having been interested in it.

He then went on to speak of the work of the Layman's Missionary Movement, with which he is connected, considering this one of the things that should enter into the business of a religious man. He said that if the organization succeeded in giving everybody a chance to hear the gospel in this generation, it would mean our times as much work as is being done at present. He also said that funds enough for the movement could be obtained if every Christian would give merely five cents or the price of a car fare each week.

HAMLIN CONCERT.

On the evening of February fourth, George Hamlin, the noted tenor is to sing in the chapel. This is the second of the series of concerts which Prexy has planned to have take place here during the winter. The chance to hear such a well known singer is seldom offered to all of us and every one should attend if he possibly can. Students are given reduced prices.

Prof. in Logic:—"What is the universal negative."

Junior (arousing himself) "Not prepared."

THE PRESS CLUB.

A great many fellows in college have no idea what this organization is or what it does. It would do them good to step around to Silliman Hall some Wednesday evening and hear the reports of committees at the meeting. They would find out that there are about a score of fellows who work hard but silently for the benefit of their Alma Mater. These men get little credit for a great deal of trouble outside of their knowing that they are doing something for "Old Union."

A new constitution has been drawn up and after being revised, will be adopted. It is thought that election to the club will be by competition in the near future.

As usual, the wire committee telegraphs reports of games to the Associated Press which sends them from coast to coast. Thus all our alumni can see our scores. The post card committee has sent basketball schedules to alumni in all places in and about Schenectady. The articles about teams seen in newspapers and magazines are sent by the advance work committee. Prep. school papers will be full of "Union" news. Articles about men who have made their mark here are sent to their respective school papers and papers in two well known New York Prep. schools have promised to publish our articles.

Besides this, special work is being done. The calendar committee has not been able to make a report as to the success of the College calendars yet. Some fellows who subscribed have not paid up and it is time that they woke up and got some college spirit in them. We can not afford to "go in the hole" on account of them.

HOCKEY TEAM.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather hockey practice has been rather intermittent. We are certain that we have here in college material for a most successful team. As yet no captain has been elected. Manager Walser has arranged a schedule of fast games and if the weather permits the team should render a good account of itself.

DEBATING.

Union has, this year, entered the intercollegiate competition in another branch; that of debating. Previous to this time there has been very little interest shown in this branch of college activities. The arrangements for a triangular debate between Hamilton, Colgate and Union have, however, aroused considerable interest. Each of the three colleges is to pick two teams of three men and an alternate, and defend both sides of the question. The affirmative team to represent Union is composed of J. H. Potter, T. W. Hanigan, R. M. Bartlett with W. H. Cavert, alternate. This team will meet the negative team from Colgate. The Union negative team is composed of H. A. Cohen, A. C. Potter, S. M. Cavert and H. G. Coplen, alternate. Colgate and Hamilton also meet each other on the same evening, March fourth. By this arrangement each college will have one team away and one at home on the evening of March fourth. The question for debate is, "Resolved, That a graduated income tax should be part of our Federal system." Union's chances of winning are of the best and with the time which the team has to get into shape they should make a good effort for first choice.

PREPARING FOR N. Y. U. GAME.

During Junior week, on Saturday evening, Feb. 5, the Union basketball team will have for its opponents the New York University five. N. Y. U. has a very fast team this year and so a very stiff game is promised. Coach Tilden, however, is working hard to put the Union team in good shape for the struggle. Also great efforts are being made to have the game turn out a success in every respect.

A very snappy contest is expected and a large audience will probably be present; therefore, those who intend to see the game should purchase their tickets early in order to get the best seats. Block seats may be obtained until Feb. 1 from Atkin at the Beta Theta Pi House.

The Soiree this year surpasses all others.

DR. HOFFMAN AT MEETING

Of "Short Ballot" Movement—Banquet Held at Hotel Astor.

Last Friday night Dr. Hoffman attended a banquet at the Hotel Astor held by several prominent men who are interested in the so-called "Short Ballot" movement, or an attempt to simplify the present method of voting. The gathering was, indeed, a notable one, being composed of such men as Lyman Abbot and Woodrow Wilson.

It is felt that at present the method of voting is so complicated that no one can vote satisfactorily. The ballot is so large and complicated that the average voter pays little attention to the people running for the more unimportant offices. In a noted speech which Woodrow Wilson made at this banquet, he gave it as his deliberate conviction that our constitution is not equal to the present situation, being formed under the notion that the government must rise against tyranny. All who were present felt that the two following changes would simplify the manner of voting and completely remedy the present evils.

First—Only those offices should be elected that are important enough to command popular attention.

Secondly—Very few offices should be elected at one time so as not confuse the voter at the election.

This would not be a new or untried plan as it is now in vogue in many of the most prominent European cities noted for their good government. According to this scheme only three or perhaps five of the most important officials would be elected by the people, and all the other offices would be filled by appointment by the persons elected.

To fly, to fly, to fly with me."

CAMPUS CHAT.

Items of Interest Discussed on the Hill.

During Junior Week a concert is to be given in the High School Auditorium by the Glee Club. All students and friends of the College are invited.

This number of the Concordy is issued by Gray, '11, and Cavert, '11.

Prof. Hale and his family moved into a house on Brandywine Avenue last week.

Coffin has been distributing "Prom" programs among the professors.

Dudley T. Hill, '07, is now editor-in-chief of the Evening Star.

Several of the students have applied for appointments as census enumerators.

It is rumored that Dr. Adams will be asked to resign as pastor of the State Street Methodist Church. In that case his pulpit will be filled by Potter, '12; Faust, '11; and S. M. Cavert, '10.

George W. Roosa, '09, has returned to take a post-graduate course. He has been superintendent of a large power plant in Batavia for the past six months. "Baldy" is making a specialty of electric illumination and expects to receive the degree of M. E. E. next June.

McCullough, '11, has been elected leader of the college banjo club.

The Zeta Beta Tau fraternity recently held a smoker at the Mohawk Baths Hotel. Several students from the law and medical departments attended.

- Feb. 3—
12:15—College closes for Junior Week festivities.

An absent-minded professor was busily engaged in solving a scientific problem. A servant hastily opened the door of the laboratory and announced a great family event: "A little stranger has just arrived."

"Eh?"

"It is a little boy."

"A little boy; well ask him what he wants."

There's a gladness in her gladness
When she's glad.
There's a sadness in her sadness
When she's sad.
But the gladness in her gladness,
Nor the sadness in her sadness
"Ain't" a marker to her madness,
When she's mad.—Exchange.

THOSE EVENING BELLES.

Those evening belles! those evening belles!
A Sophomore the story tells
Into the Freshman's eager ear,
Of "mashes" made in Freshman year.
The Frosh with emulation swells
Of "picking up" those evening belles.

Those evening belles! those evening belles!
And soon the Frosh his story tells
Of stolen smiles, and glances sweet,
On a pleasant eve adown State Street,
And with what pride the story tells
Of "picking up" those evening belles.

Those evening belles! those evening belles!
But soon a different tale he tells;
Why do the ladies "cut" him so?
He asks a Junior in his woe.
The cause the Junior straightway tells.
'Twas "picking up" those evening belles.

BETWEEN THE LINES.

When a fellow gets a letter
From a maiden, he divines
Many a precious little secret,
Written 'n between the lines.

Funny, too, in Greek and Latin,
How we meet with like designs:
Strange how many happy meanings
Oft are read between the lines.—Exchange.

A Freshman once to Hades went
That something he might learn;
They sent him back to earth again,
He was too green to burn.—Exchange.

If an S and I and an O and U
With an X at the end spells su,
And an E and a Y and an E spell i,
Pray, with is a speller to do?
Then, also, if an S and I and a G
And H E D spell side.
There's nothing much left for a speller to do,
But to go and commit siouxeyesighed.—Adapted.

"Adieu," she said sweetly as he kissed her good night.

"He's adieu'd, ain't he?" called out her little brother as he vanished upstairs.

Real Oak Leather In
REGAL
SHOES

—Through the "Window of the Sole"

There's a little circular slip of paper pasted on the sole of every Regal Shoe. By lifting up this "Window of the Sole" you can see the white, Live-Oak-tanned leather underneath—the finest sole leather in the world. The cheap, red, Hemlock-tanned leather in other shoes is blackened over to hide its tell-tale color. Hemlock leather is brittle and stiff, but Regal Live-Oak-tanned leather is flexible and wears like iron.

If you want honest sole leather—if you want shoes that will last—get Regal Shoes at our exclusive Regal agency.
