PROFESSOR WILLIAM WELLS.

[The picture of Professor Wells is the second on the right hand side of the balcony, looking from the pulpit. This seems an especially fitting time for an article on Prof. Wells, as his death occurred three years ago next Tuesday.]

To record the life of Professor William Wells is to record the life of an old Union College professor, who, through his activities as an educator, brought fame not only to himself, but to the college which he represented, for so many years.

Professor Wells was born in New York City in the year 1820. His boyhood and youth were passed in the city of Philadelphia, where he acquired his academic education and made good progress toward that mastery of foreign tongues which made him famous in later years. When twenty-six years old, he made his first visit to Europe, going to Vienna as an unofficial attache of the American legation, and as a student at the University.

At this time he had the honor of riding on the first steam railway train that ever crossed the steppes of Hungary. From Vienna he went to Berlin, where he matriculated at the University, and entered upon a course of study which led in due time to the degree of Ph. D.

Interested in Revolutions.

These were the days when the revolutions in Europe were agitating the world,—when Louis Philippe was driven from the throne of France, when the Crown Prince of Prussia, afterwards William I., Emperor of Germany, was compelled by popular hatred to flee from his country, when Hungary was in open revolt against Austria, and when the Chartist agitation threatened revolution even in England. Professor Wells was deeply interested in the great events that were taking place, and the story of his personal participation in the history of the day is an interesting one. After an exciting experience in the Berlin riots, he went as secretary to the American embassy to the German Parliament at Frankfort-on-the-Main. He also served as correspondent on the New York Herald, being the first regular foreign correspondent on any American newspaper.

From Berlin he went to Paris, where he continued his university studies at the Sorbonne and the College de France. Afterwards he travelled over a large part of Europe, returning home in 1851.

Work as a Professor.

In 1852 he accepted a position as professor of modern languages at Genesee College, from which grew Syracuse University. Here he remained twelve years, until in 1865 he was called to the chair of Modern Languages and Literature at Union College. A few years later his duties as professor were increased by the addition of a lectureship on current history. In the interest of this work, he made an extensive study not only of the conditions in all parts of the United States, Alaska, Mexico, and Central America, but visited nearly every country of Europe, Asia Minor, Egypt and other parts of Africa. During his life he made four visits to the Old World and rarely found a place where he could not speak the native language. The results of his observations on these tours were embodied in a course of lectures which he delivered annually to the senior class and the general public.

PROFESSOR WILLIAM WELLS.

Other Educational Activities.

His activities as an educator were by no means confined to his classroom work, for by voice and pen he was for a long time known throughout the country as one of the foremost men of culture. He lectured in all of the large cities of the United States from Boston to San Francisco, and besides being at different times the foreign correspondent for many leading New York papers, he was a frequent contributor to the Independent, Scribner's Monthly, and other leading periodicals. He was always interested in religious work and was for many years superintendent of the Sunday School in the State Street Methodist Church. For over twenty years he was, also, in charge of the foreign department of the Methodist Review.

Called "Uncle Billy."

He was always of a kind, genial disposition and showed such an interest in the welfare of the students that he early acquired the title of "Uncle Billy," and by the Union alumni and all who knew him he is still remembered by that name. The following anecdote well illustrates his disposition: While professor here he always lived in the section of North College, now occupied by Professor Bennett. One evening the students in the room above his study became engaged in a wrestling match and made so much noise that they disturbed the professor's studies. Suddenly a sharp rap was heard on the door of the room where the disturbance was going on. The students opened it, and on seeing "Uncle Billy" thought that they were to be severely reprimanded. The old professor, however, with a twinkle in his eye, merely said, "I would be glad to have you come and see me, boys, but I would prefer to have you come down the stairs instead of through the ceiling."

Retired in 1902.

In 1902 he retired from active work, and remained at the college as professor emeritus. At the alumni banquet that year he was presented by the students with a silver loving cup containing the inscription: "To Uncle Billy; from Some of the Boys." From that time until his death on December 12, 1907, he remained quietly at home. Probably many of the students in the present senior class can remember seeing him walking up and down the path in front of North College, or taking short strolls about the campus.

Professor Wells lived a long, useful, and honored life, and was loved and respected not only by the faculty, students, and alumni of Union, but far more widely, for his sympathy, and interests had brought him into connection with many persons and many institutions, and he undertook no work or occupation where he did not attain the affection and esteem of those with whom he was associated.

SOPHOMORE BASKETBALL TEAM DEFEATS SARATOGA HIGH SCHOOL

Under the leadership of Davis as captain and Dewey as manager, the Sophomore basketball team has begun a most auspicious year. The first game was played last Saturday with the Saratoga High School, and ended with a victory of 25 to 12 for the Sophomore team. Stern, Davis, Lent, Dewey and Braman were the players and the form shown at this game gives promise of a successful season.

The schedule for the rest of the season has not, as yet, been fully decided upon, but a three-day trip during the Christmas vacation is probable. The nearby high schools, including Albany and Schenectady, will also be given games and the freshmen, if they organize a team. So far, 1914 has done nothing to organize one, but they expect to have one out for practice in the near future.

BASKETBALL TEAM FAST ROUNDING INTO SHAPE

With an average of twenty men out for practice every night, basketball prospects are the brightest that Union has ever seen. Coach Kuolt is sending the men through stiff practice every night and getting them in the very best of condition for the coming season. New material has strengthened the team and there are many men back from the last year's five. Micks will be back at center. For the forwards, Coward, Hequembourg and McKinstry from the Pharmacy School are doing fine work and are gaging the baskets. The guards are well represented by Brumm, Fairbairn and Noble, '14. With this aggregation Union has little to fear from lack of good material. Micks is a good defensive player and the forwards are all very aggressive. Passwork and basket shooting, which have received special attention from the coach, are excellent.

Coach Kuolt is instilling in the men the idea that every game this season means a victory, and to aid the men in their plays, a special study of the rules is being made. The men are drilled in the new clause that gives the out-of-bounds ball to the first man that touches it. Strict training is being adhered to and the men are all now in good condition.

Manager Atkin has not yet completed the schedule sufficiently for publication, but as soon as it has received the sanction of the Athletic Board it will be published. The first game will be with the Army at West Point on January 7. The home games this year will be held in the Armory in the afternoon instead of the evening.

PHI GAMMA DELTA BANQUET.

The members of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity from Schenectady and surrounding cities held their annual banquet on Thursday night in Albany at the Hotel Hampton.

Woodard and Wend represented the active Union chapter. Dr. Steinmetz was present as a member of the Union chapter and gave an informal address. Dr. Hoffman was also present.

CORNELL AND TRI-LEAGUE DEBATE QUESTIONS CHOSEN

Allison-Foote Debate Held on Cornell Subject.

The questions have now been chosen for both the Cornell debate and the tri-league with Colgate and Hamilton. The subject submitted by Cornell for the debate in Schenectady on January 20 is: "Resolved, That the ownership of the forest and mineral lands, now belonging to the United States in the several states, should be retained by the federal government." At the meeting on Monday, the Debating Council will carefully consider the question, and decide which side it would be best for the Union team to defend.

The Allison-Foote Debate.

The Allison-Foote debate, between the Philomathean and Adelpic Societies, will be held on the same subject, probably on January 9. Both societies are now working on the question, and the Philomatheans have already chosen as the members of their team, Gordon, W. D. Cavert, and Potter, with A. B. Mann as alternate. The Adelpics will choose their team early next week. It is probable that the Cornell team will be picked from those who make the best showing in the Allison-Foote.

Tri-League Subject.

The subject which has been finally chosen for the triangular debate between Union, Colgate, and Hamilton, is "For and against the initiative and referendum for New York State." This debate will be held on Friday evening, February 24. One Union team will remain in Schenectady to defend the negative against Colgate, and the other will uphold the affirmative against Hamilton at Clinton.

THE MUSICAL CLUBS.

Owing to the fact that the trips to Amsterdam and Johnstown have been postponed, there will be no more concerts this term. At present the clubs are working to get ready for the trip to Hudson. The first concert here will be on January 7, and there will also be one during Junior Week.

A UNIVERSITY PAPER.

For many years passed the Concordiensis has been called a paper "published by the students of Union University," although none of the Albany departments have been represented on the board of editors. A movement is now on foot to make the Concordy a truly University paper.

Several Albany students are showing an active interest in the idea, and it is probable that after the holidays one page or a certain portion of the paper each week will be devoted to news from our other departments. Not only should this improve the Concordiensis and make it more interesting, but it should prove a valuable factor in keeping the college proper in closer touch with the Albany students.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB.

The Concordiensis believes that a successful Dramatic Club has at last been organized at Union. For several years in the past the Dramatic Club has been considered a standing joke, but the prospects are now bright for a club which will not only live down its past reputation, but will put dramatics on a firm basis for years to come.

A Dramatic Club is an organization which can advertise the college in a very efficient manner, and should therefore be heartily supported by the whole student body. A trip such as the club intends to take during the Christmas vacation will do far more to advertise our institution than any other organization could possibly do in the same time, as plays will be given in seven cities, which are to be thoroughly posted for the play in advance. This vacation is an unusually good time for the staging of the play and large houses are expected in all of the cities where "What Happened to Jones" is presented.

SCHERMERHORN RESIGNS

FROM CONCORDIENSIS BOARD

It is with deep regret that the editor announces that Henry Schermerhorn, '12, has resigned his position as associate editor of the Concordiensis. He will be greatly missed by the board as he is a capable literary man and thoroughly understands the work of the Concordiensis.

STUDENT VOLUNTEER CON- VENTION NOW IN SESSION

Eighth Annual Convention Held at Union.

The Student Volunteer Movement of Central New York is now holding its eighth convention in Schenectady at the invitation of the Union College Christian Association. The opening meeting was held last evening in the Union Presbyterian Church and the farewell session will be on Sunday evening.

There are 128 delegates from New York colleges, exclusive of the 32 regularly accredited delegates from Union. The delegates represent twenty New York institutions, the largest delegations coming from Cornell, Syracuse, Hamilton, Colgate, Elmira, Vassar, and Rochester.

R. B. COLSON

Ralph B. Colson, Hamilton '11, is president of the organization and the presiding officer at the sessions of the convention.

On Saturday afternoon the Union College Association will give an informal reception at Silliman Hall to all the delegates and speakers.

FRATERNITY DANCES.

The Delta Upsilon fraternity held its regular fall dance on Friday evening. The house was prettily decorated and a pleasant dance was enjoyed by all present.

A dance was held at the Boat Club on Wednesday night by the members of the Pyramid Club, about thirty couples being present. The patronesses were Mrs. Eastman, Mrs. Schutt and Mrs. McCormack.

The first fraternity dance of the year was given on last week Friday night by Alpha Delta Phi.

Townsend, '11, has left college for this term, at least. He does not expect to graduate but will begin with the winter term and take up special branches of study until the end of the year.

DR. STEINER SPEAKS IN CHAPEL

On the Subject, "What Shall We Do With the Immigrant."

On Monday at 11:30 a. m., Dr. Edward A. Steiner of Grinnell College spoke in the college chapel to the entire student body and faculty on "What Shall We Do With the Immigrant." Dr. Steiner came to Union at the request of the Christian Association, and it was upon their petition that the faculty closed the recitation schedule at 11:30 in order to give an opportunity of hearing the eminent author and sociologist.

DR EDWARD A. STEINER.

Dr. Steiner spoke for forty-five minutes in a very humorous but forceful manner of the duty of college men toward the foreigners who throng to our shores. So strongly did he appeal for the immigrant that in the college meeting following his address forty-five men of the student body expressed their desire to assist this winter in work among the great immigrant population in Schenectady in teaching them the English language and the principles of our government.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB.

Extended Trip to Be Taken During Holidays.

The Dramatic Club has been holding rehearsals three times a week, and the majority of those who are to take part now have their parts down in good shape. The final rehearsal of the club will be held on Thursday, December 21, before leaving college for the vacation.

The club will make its first appearance on Christmas Day in Rutland, Vt., where the play will be presented both in the afternoon and evening. On Wednesday night of vacation week the play will be presented at Saratoga. Every evening during the week will be filled, and the last performance will be given at Port Jervis on New Year's Day. After the performance it is expected that the club will be taken to New York for a banquet.

Cast of Characters.

The permanent cast of characters as chosen by Mr. Mott is as follows:

Professor Goodly	Spaulding
Mrs. Goodly	Goodsell
The Bishop of Ballarat	Coffin
Marjorie	Simmonds
Cissy	Torry

IDOL BOARD BUSY.

It is now being asked when the Idol is to make its first appearance. At present the Idol board is hard at work and will get the publication out as soon as possible. Owing to numerous delays which are naturally caused by difficulties in getting out an entirely new paper, it has not appeared as soon as expected.

Subscription blanks have been distributed at the different fraternity houses on the hill and an effort will be made to reach all students not living on the campus.

It now remains to be seen how much such a publication is desired. The present board has taken the responsibility of starting a humorous paper for Union and they trust that it will be well received and become one of the regular college papers.

The field of the Idol is wide and the editor has expressed his desire to receive any contributions, large or small, including anything that is at all witty or humorous, or a serious suggestion concerning the doings in and about college. It is not its purpose to compete with the other publications, but to do all it can in its own line. Any communication will be answered if addressed to the Idol, P. O. Box 259.

DR. STEINMETZ DELIVERS

LECTURE ON THE CORONA

Dr. Steinmetz delivered a lecture on Tuesday night to about five hundred members of the Schenectady Section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, in Red Men's Hall, on the high voltage phenomenon known as corona, or the blue luminous glow which surrounds the conductors of electric power transmission systems, operated at the higher potentials.

He clearly demonstrated that the formation of corona occurs at a definite critical voltage for fixed conditions as to size and spacing of conductors, and that an appreciable power loss results, which increases with great rapidity beyond this critical point.

WORK ON GARNET PROGRESSING.

Work on the Garnet is progressing rapidly. Although none of the plans have been made known, it is understood that it is going to be one of the most complete Union annuals published in years. The cover is to be of the best quality of binding leather obtainable and this will be backed by pasteboard, covered with silk.

The majority of the Juniors have had their pictures taken and numerous sketches have been handed in. Meetings are being held at frequent intervals and every detail of the work is being carefully considered by the board.

Kissing BugTorry

The club has selected as its meeting place the room called Bughouse, or that part of the red building dedicated to the use of the Graduate Council and Dr. Hale. In return for the privilege of holding the meetings in this place, Chuck and Spike have been elected honorary members of the Bug Club.

What's the matter, Frosh? Don't get discouraged so easily. Because Troy isn't capable of holding you, it is no sign that all other cities will turn you down. There is always an innocent hotel somewhere which is willing to take the risk for the sake of your filthy lucre. The class of 1911 found a Johnstown. Why can't the class of 1914 do the same.

Awake to action. Tempus fugit and delays are dangerous. Hope long deferred maketh the heart sick, and if this important affair is delayed many weeks longer, the Sophs will get disgusted with the affair, and go home for Christmas vacation sick at heart. Daily Frosh class meetings and unfulfilled expectations will soon succeed in turning the stomachs of the Sophs and then there would be no reason for holding a banquet.

THE "IDLE."

The editors of Union's new fun paper chose better than they knew, when they labelled their prospective publication, "The Idle."

For many long weary days, for many tedious weeks, the students have anxiously waited for the "Idle" fun paper's first appearance. Even a change in the sign on the bulletin board might be calculated to relieve the monotony of the affair to some extent.

OPTORIAL.

Christmas is now approaching and it is the time of the year when everybody, especially the faculty, should be filled with the Yule-tide spirit.

The members of the faculty have undoubtedly been taught that Christmas presents should be given, not that a gift may be received in return, but that some less fortunate individual may be made happy. Enlightened persons like the faculty are undoubtedly filled with this Christmas spirit (for they are all honorable men), and for this reason THE OPTIC thinks that it might not be too strenuously meddling in the business of its superiors, if it should undertake to point out to the members of that honorable and august body how that spirit can best be shown at this time.

Naturally, the students are the less fortunate individuals who should be the recipients of kindness from the faculty. Kindness shown to the students will, in all probability, never be repaid, and it would be true Christian giving if the dear professors and esteemed doctors, would add ten per cent. to each student's grade in every subject.

The students have long been filled with this true spirit of giving. Many of them give the best that they have to basketball and other forms of athletics and get in return no reward, but ignoble defeat. Are the faculty at this time of the year to be outdone by the students in the subject of real Christmas giving?

EDITED BY GRADUATE COUNCIL

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETS.

On Tuesday afternoon a meeting of the Executive Committee was held in the office of the secretary in Washburn Hall. The election of a new Treasurer, apportionment of the terms of office among the members at large, and certain minor changes in the committees formed the chief business of the meeting.

Dr. William L. Wilson, '95, was elected treasurer to succeed Mr. Joseph H. Clements, Jr. This position while the most difficult in the Council, is a vital one and the extent of the work done by the different committees depends largely upon the efforts of this officer.

Dr. Wilson has proved a most successful class secretary and by dint of hard and continued work got a record breaking attendance at his class reunion last June. With such effort on the part of half the members of the Council, it would prove a greater source of good to the college than its best friends have ever expected.

The members-at-large were arranged in the following order:

Term expiring September, 1910—

John Ash,
James Bothwell,
John K. Paige.

Term expiring September, 1911—

S. T. Benedict,
Chester Holcombe,
George Genung.

Term expiring September, 1912—

E. C. Lawrence,
A. P. Strong,
C. O. Yates.

Term expiring September, 1913—

J. Newton Fiero,
C. H. Mills,
W. H. McElroy.

Term expiring September, 1914—

D. M. Dunning,
T. H. Fearey,
W. P. Rudd.

Term expiring September, 1915—

Andrew Buchanan,
B. H. Ripton,
Wagner Van Vlack.

The idea of a Graduate Council is new at Union and it is taking time to get a foothold. The Council offers the advantage of giving the alumni an efficient means of helping in all lines where alumni aid is necessary, and will serve the other great function of keeping the college in real touch with the graduates. This first year is proving a hard one, but as the purpose of the Council becomes better known and its members better organized the great value of this new asset on the side of progress will be felt.

NOTES.

1881. Frank B. Gary, recently United States Senator from South Carolina, is practicing law in Abbeville, S. C.

1882. Sheldon M. Griswold, Bishop of Kansas, is on a trip East, visiting Schenectady, Albany, Hudson, and New York.

1895. Edgar Brown is seed expert in the Department of Agriculture at Washington. A. E. Barnes is Superintendent of Schools at Freeport, N. Y. R. C. Paul of last year's class is teaching under him.

1899. Harold J. Hinman recently won an important law suit before the Appellate Division. The case was given to him by Attorney General O'Malley and was the first of a large number of similar cases involving a franchise tax on railroad bridges. The decision secured by Mr. Hinman makes the disposal of the remaining cases a simple matter.

1900. George W. Featherstonhaugh, Jr., has been appointed by District Attorney Blessing of Schenectady County as his assistant.

1908. Edwin L. LaCrosse is teaching Latin and mathematics in the New York Institute for the Blind. Mr. LaCrosse is also studying law in the Brooklyn Law School.

1910. George A. Dillinger is in railway work in New York City.

1864. Selah Howell died at Boston, Mass., on November 7, 1910. Prof. Howell was at one time a non-resident professor of the college and had been actively engaged in teaching for forty-three years. For the past eighteen years he held the chair of Ancient History in the Boston Public Latin School.

1868. Joseph Fletcher died at his home in Jefferson on Tuesday, November 22, 1910. For many years Mr. Fletcher had been engaged in the drug business, but during the past two years was a great invalid.

1873. Henry A. Powell, well known in Brooklyn for more than thirty years as a minister, lawyer, and politician, died in the Long Island College Hospital, November 28, 1910. In 1891 he resigned his pastorate and took up the practice of law. In politics Mr. Powell was a Republican until the formation of the Independence League, whose leader he became in Kings County.

1903. Arthur Guy Pickens met a tragic death in an automobile accident near Leavenworth, Kan., on November 19th. After graduating in the electrical course Mr. Pickens accepted a position in South Bend, Ind. Last year he resigned to come to the Susquehanna Light and Power Company of New York. It was while going to the station in an automobile to meet the vice-president of his company that Mr. Pickens was struck by a train and killed.

NEW CATALOG DISTRIBUTED.

The annual fall edition of the Union College bulletin has appeared and is now being distributed. As usual, there are several new things to attract attention, the most prominent, perhaps, being an increase of tuition which affects only those classes that are to enter in the future. This increase, in the engineering courses, amounts to ten dollars per term. In the classical and science courses the tuition is now thirty dollars per term, an increase of five dollars.

The catalog this year appears in a neat brown cover and is rather thicker than those published before, this edition containing 210 pages. It contains, as the previous catalogs have done, the records of the college for the past year, the list of students and many other things. According to this book, the students in Union College number 338, divided as follows: Candidates for masters degrees and graduate students, 18; seniors, 56; juniors, 77; sophomores, 81; freshmen, 107. In the Albany departments are 452 more students, bringing the grand total up to 790. 206 are in the Medical College, 145 are attending the Law School, and 103 are registered at the College of Pharmacy. Two of these are counted twice, making the total 452.

Taken as a whole the catalog is one of the best that has yet appeared and may justly be called a work of art. Dr. Frank Coe Barnes did most of the work connected with the publishing of the book, and to him is due much of the credit for its success.

THE SOPHOMORE SOIREE.

The first Sophomore Soiree of the year was held at the Schenectady Boat Club on Thursday evening. The dance was well attended, especially by the students of the Albany departments.

The committee carried out its intention of making this event an occasion for bringing together the various branches of the University and for getting the students on the "Hill" better acquainted with the men in the professional schools.

The Boat Club was prettily decorated, the Garnet colors being especially prominent in the college banners and pennants hung in large numbers on the dance floor.

DECEASED.

It was with deep sorrow that the class of 1912 learned of the death of one of its former members, Arthur Schuyler, at his home in Pattersonville. Mr. Schuyler had been obliged to give up his course in college at the close of the fall term last year owing to poor health.

The president of the Junior class appointed a committee to send flowers and a committee to draw up resolutions expressing the sorrow of Schuyler's classmates, a copy of the resolutions to be sent to the family of the deceased.
