Junior Week

Junior Week has passed and it is safe to say that no week of the social history of the college has been enjoyed by more persons. Everything was better than anything had ever been before, and better in such a degree as to leave no doubt on the score of superiority.

The guests of the week began to arrive as early as Wednesday afternoon, and from that time till the official closing of college on Thursday at 4 o'clock, there was a diminishing ratio of students present at the various classes. As the number of students diminished the number of guests increased, until soon all over the campus were to be seen collegians, their sisters, mothers and friends.

Studies were banished for good and all Thursday afternoon and from that time till Sunday the usually strenuous student was changed into a gay society man.

The festivities of a general nature opened Thursday evening with the sophomore soiree. Friday afternoon the college musical clubs gave their first concert of the season before a large audience in the Second Reformed Church. The same evening the Junior Prom was held at the Ten Eyck Hotel in Albany. Saturday the various fraternities entertained their guests at their houses. Parties, teas, receptions and dances passed away the afternoon and evening.

The reluctant guests started to depart on Sunday, and by Monday morning the campus had again taken on its usual classic and studious appearance.

Syracuse University is to have a new $300,000 gymnasium, which is to be the largest in the world. It will be a three-story structure, 210 by 100 feet.

THE SOPHOMORE SOIREE

Last Thursday evening witnessed one of the most successful dances ever held in the Boat-house. There were fully seventy-five couples who started at 9 to dance the first dance, and the enthusiasm seemed to hold everyone to the joyous spirit of the occasion. The decorations, in lavender and the college colors, added beauty to the hall.

The music was furnished by Reuben's Orchestra. The two barn dances were quite pretty and enjoyed as being something out of the ordinary. In all there were eighteen regular and six extra dances. There was a light lunch served about midnight.

The patronesses of the dance were Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Von Voightlander, Mrs. Garrison, Mrs. W. C. Yates, Mrs. Cool, Mrs. Featherstonhaugh, Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. Weyrauch, Mrs. Landon, Mrs. Cullings, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Buck, Mrs. Carmichael, Mrs. Clowe, Mrs. VanOlinda, Mrs. Walton, Mrs. Vedder, Mrs. J. A. Van Voast, Mrs. W. B. Landreth, Mrs. Furnside, Mrs. Ripley, Mrs. Rohrer, Mrs. Wert.

The committee in charge were Ferguson, chairman; Conklin, Grover, Kelley, Whitcomb, Nimmo, Shepard, Slutter, Zimmer, Landscheff.

JUNIOR PROMENADE

The first Junior "Prom" in the history of the college, the first social event in which all the departments of the university conjointly participated, was held last Friday evening with a brilliancy and style that far surpassed any similar social function hitherto given by the college.

The affair was held in Albany, at the Ten Eyck Hotel. The main ball room was tastefully adorned with Southern smilax and palms, while numerous college banners and pennants added a characteristic air to the occasion. The mezzanine hall, a favorite resting place for the dancers, was likewise decorated with smilax and palms.

The dance was opened with a general promenade, led by President Chapman of the Junior Class. A full program of twenty-four regular and four class dances then followed. The music, a feature of the evening, was rendered by Zita's orchestra of eight pieces.

At intermission a light buffet lunch was served, consisting of sweetbread croquets, finger rolls, bisque glacé, fancy cakes and coffee. The programs were decidedly novel, being covered with garnet colored silk, and bearing on the inside the university seal incrustated in gold.

A full list of the patronesses follows:

The Mesdames Hughes, Van Voast, Ripton, Landreth, Ashmore, Wright, Hoffman, Stoller, Hale, Jr., Ellery, Barnes, McKean, Ferguson, Young, Hutchinson, Von Voightlander, Garrison, Buttrick, Hughes, Linn, Lawsing, Cool, King, Featherstonhaugh, Gibbs, Cullings, Moore, MacMurray, Buck, Clowe, Carmichael, Landon, Swart, Oppenheim, Kreigsman, Frost, Clements, Jr., Yelverton, Van Voast, Hanson, Jr., Rankin, Starbuck, Landreth, Van Aernam, Seamans, Pettit, Briggs, Rice, Jr., Rohrer, Corcoran, Lawyer, Classen, Briggs, Thornton, Wellman and Phillips.

New York University requires every student to attend daily prayer, except those who elect as an alternative the duty of writing an essay every two weeks on some moral or religious subject.

There has been some discussion at Cornell to the effect that during Junior week the number of Freshmen attending the various functions may have to be reduced in order to prevent overcrowding.

The head of the Athletic Executive Committee of Princeton University has made the following statement: "Cornell and Princeton will not meet in football this year. The three-year agreement expired last October, and Princeton wished a new agreement for two years, both games to be played in New York. Cornell refused this and insisted upon a home-and-home game, which was rejected by the Princeton management."

BASKETBALL DIFFICULTIES

Rochester Decries Injustice of N. Y. S. I. C. A. A. Rules.

Owing to the failure of Rochester and Colgate to arrange games with each other, it is probable that a pennant will not be awarded this year in basketball. This will be a serious injustice to Rochester because the splendid record the team is making leaves no doubt in the minds of Rochester men that the pennant belongs by right to us. The situation emphasizes the desirability of some change in the rule that no pennant be awarded unless contests have been arranged between all the members of the league. If this rule is to hold, some way should be devised compelling all the colleges to arrange games with all the others. If this cannot be done, the comparative records of different teams should be considered a sufficient basis for the awarding of pennants, whenever this method shows clearly the right of any team to be granted the pennant. The failure to award a pennant is not only disappointing to the college which feels itself cheated out of its due right, but also cannot fail to lessen the interest felt in the league by all its members, since it is equivalent to the suspension of the league as far as that sport is concerned. Rochester might well bring this matter up at the next meeting of the N. Y. S. I. A. U, which will be held in this city probably on Memorial Day, and see if some satisfactory remedy cannot be found, for what is a real and important defect in the organization of the league.—Rochester Campus.

The Oxford University Athletic Club has declined the challenge of the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America for an international track and field meeting between teams representing that organization and the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge in London, following the Olympic games. The only reason given is "insuperable difficulties."

RELAY TEAM DEFEATED

Finishes Second to Hamilton--R. P. I.
Third.

In the match one-mile relay race, the twenty-eighth of the series of track events in the meet held last Wednesday under the auspices of the Troy Y. M. C. A. at the State Armory, Hamilton, finished first, Union second and Rensselaer Poly. Inst. third. This event proved the most popular and interesting of the evening. Dwyer, '08, the first runner for the Garnet, ran a pretty race, and at the end of the second lap the contestants were evenly bunched. Captain Parsons, who then took up the race for Union, was in excellent form and led the field from the start. At the completion of the second lap he was twenty yards ahead of his nearest opponent, and for moment it looked like an easy victory for the Garnet. Parsons passed the race up to Ayer, Medic, '10, who ran strong, maintaining the lead secured by Parson until near the end, where he weakened perceptibly. He managed, however, to give Streibert, '09, the last runner, a lead of ten yards. The Hamilton runner quickly took away this advantage and securing the lead was never headed. The mile was run in 3 minutes and 42 seconds.

In the two-mile relay between Cornell and the University of Pennsylvania, Cornell easily defeated her opponent, the time being 8 minutes 13-5 seconds. Brown, after a hard struggle, defeated Williams in a mile relay. The time for this event was 3 minutes and 34 seconds. Wesleyan was defeated by Colgate in an interesting mile relay, the time being 3 minutes and 34 seconds.

Huthsteiner, '11, and Anderson, '10, represented the Garnet in the high jump, the former clearing the bar at 5 ft. 4 in. and the latter at 5 ft. This event, however, was won by Robertson of the Irish-American A. C., who cleared 5 ft. 10 in. Dr. MacComber officiated as one of the judges of the finish.

Wisconsin won the western basketball championship by defeating Chicago last week. Minnesota, Chicago, Illinois and Iowa rank in order named.

D. M. C. A.

Last Tuesday evening at the college prayer meeting the usual time was devoted to the Dean's Bible Class. The Sunday afternoon vesper service was omitted on account of the Junior Week festivities. From henceforth to the end of the term the usual time set apart for the prayer meetings on Tuesday nights will be combined with the Bible Class, which has hitherto followed the meeting. Special attention should be paid to this by the students. It only lasts an hour (from 7 to 8 p. m.) every Tuesday evening and those who attend will find themselves amply repaid for the time thus spent.

A patron of a Colorado college has endowed the institution with a hundred pedigree cats. This doubtful benefaction is the gift of an enthusiastic advocate of cat culture.

The faculty at Yale are publishing each week in the Bulletin a list of the freshmen who stand highest in their class.

Another Junior Week has passed
Work into history. Success marked Again. every feature of the three days given over to its festivities. This shows what united college support can do for college functions. The spirit shown was most commendable.

Now, however, we turn once more to the more routine and ordinary duties of our college work. Studies confront us.

Last term Union College established a record for studiousness that equals any set by previous groups of students. Some of the professors say that the record is the best ever made here.

We know from experience that it is not the easiest thing in the world to get through examinations here. The standard set is high, for it is the aim of the institution to turn out men well grounded in the work they have covered.

Yet in spite of this there were less freshmen conditioned last term than at any time in the recent history of the college. The upperclassmen maintained the same standard. Think of it!

If you think that there is any danger
of your spoiling the showing this term remember that there is still the saving grace of a few weeks' reviews to get back into line.

It's a good way to show your college spirit.

At a recent dinner given by the Dean alumni of Syracuse University
Ripton. in this city, Chancellor Day brought out the fact that our Dean Ripton had been offered the position of Dean of the Syracuse College of Liberal Arts a few years ago.

Dean Ripton refused the offer, although strongly urged to accept it by the Syracuse board of trustees. The matter has not been generally known until recently, and it seems fitting at this time to make note of the strong devotion shown by the Dean to his Alma Mater in refusing a position so obviously more lucrative than the one he holds here.

But in the meantime he has become ingrained into the structure of Union College. Without him we would feel lost.

So, in spite of the advantages alleged to accrue to the larger institutions of learning, we can still offer our sympathy to Syracuse at being unable to take from us Dean Ripton.

With this number of The Concordiensis there goes into effect Order, the change of editors recommended for such a long time by the present board. After this year there will be but two senior members, two juniors, and three sophomores.

It is expected that the competition that will be thus stimulated will keep the men up to a standard of efficiency heretofore lacking.

Arrangements have been made so that men who fail signally to keep up the required work will be dropped as occasion requires.

Along the same lines, it might be well to call attention to the fact that the freshmen who have registered for the board seem to consider their work completed with the act of registering.

But a few weeks remain before the new board comes in. At that time only such men will be appointed as have done good, consistent work. So all freshmen who have a desire to be on the sophomore reportorial staff would do well to get assignments from the present time on.

There seems to be a falling off in the greetings granted by the freshmen to the upperclassmen lately. Don't try to be snobbish. A good hearty "hello" never yet injured any man who uttered it.

The faculty building committee met Saturday. No news was issued for publication. What kind of a surprise awaits us?

Too bad, but the only kind of skate connected with our rink this winter seems to be a short skate.

GOV. HUGHES, CHANCELLOR

Will Deliver the Commencement Address.

It has been the custom at Old Union for the trustees each year to elect an honorary Chancellor of the University. At the banquet in Albany at the Ten Eyck Hotel last year in connection with the University Day Exercises, Governor Hughes was the main speaker and in his address he said that one of the desires of his life was to see "the grand old seat of stone." At that time, through the efforts of Dr. Raymond and Dr. Alexander, he consented to consider the appointment as Chancellor. Last Wednesday Dean Ripton, in chapel, read an extract from a letter which he had received from Dr. Alexander, president ad interim of Union. The extract was as follows: "It may interest the college community to know that Governor Hughes has accepted the appointment as Honorary Chancellor and consented to deliver the Chancellor's address at Commencement." The address comes the 10th of June and we are all very glad to know that such a prominent statesman will address the class of 1908.

Alumni Notes

1838—In the recent death of William H. Burr, Union has lost one of her oldest living alumni, and one whose never failing love for his Alma Mater endeared him to the hearts of all Union men.

Mr. Burr was one of the first official stenographers in the United States Senate and reported the famous speeches of Webster, Clay and Calhoun.

Mr. Burr was present at the recent alumni reunion in Washington and at this time gave an interesting account of our early American orators.

1881—County Judge A. M. Vedder is seriously ill at his home with a general breakdown of his health as the result of a severe attack of grip. His physician advised him to go South some time ago, but with his usual desire to attend to his work, he did not follow this advice until last Monday. He left for Southern Pines, North Carolina, but his condition was such that when he reached there he suffered a relapse, fainted a number of times from the strain of the journey, and had to return to this city.

For over three years, Judge Vedder has been such a slave to his work that he has not taken a day's vacation and this illness is the result of overwork. As soon as he recovers strength enough to attempt another journey he will probably leave for the Bermudas or other points in the South. Judge Vedder has always thought of his health as a secondary consideration where his work is concerned and is known as a public official with the good of the city and country truly at heart.

1882—A bill providing for an addition to the Cabinet in the person of a Secretary of Transportation and Public Works is being prepared by Representative Joseph E. Ransdell of Louisiana, a member of the Rivers and Harbors Committee.

"I am firmly of the belief," said Mr. Ransdell to-night, "that it is the part of wisdom for us to create a new executive department to care for all matters relating to highways, railways and waterways. It should also have in its jurisdiction questions pertaining to the reclamation service, public buildings, and grounds which should include navy yards and docks, the forest service, the Bureau of Soils, and the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

Mr. Ransdell says all these bureaus are engaged in work associated with transportation.

Congressman Ransdell is a graduate of Union College, class of 1882. He delivered the Chancellor's address last June, and was honored with the LL. D. degree.

1882—Dr. Hinds gave a stereopticon lecture on "Temperance" before the Frances Willard W. C. T. U. at the State Street Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Dr. Hinds delivered an address on Friday evening, February 21, at St. George's Lodge, the event being a lodge celebration of Washington's Birthday.

1882—The funeral of Rt. Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, Protestant Episcopal bishop of Washington, was held Tuesday afternoon, February 25th, at the Pro-Cathedral Church of the Ascension, after which the body was taken to the cathedral close and laid to rest in the little sanctuary there. The service was conducted by Bishops Potter of New York, Gaylor of Tennessee and Mackay-Smith of Pennsylvania, and consisted of the reading of the Episcopal ritual and singing by choir boys. Among the distinguished mourners was President Roosevelt.

The late Bishop Satterlee of Washington was an LL. D., of Union College, the degree having been conferred in 1882. He was a descendant, on the maternal side, of Joseph C. Yates, a graduate of Union, Supreme Court Justice and eventually Governor of this State.

1886—State Senator W. W. Wemple was chairman of the general committee of the Charity Ball held in Schenectady's new depot on Friday evening, February 21.

MUSICAL CLUBS' CONCERT

Last Friday afternoon was a notable event in the history of the Musical Association, as being the first public appearance in Schenectady for two years. It excelled anything that has been done by the clubs in years. Under the supervision of Prof. Maussert they have reached a wonderful perfection, not only as soloists, but also in quartet and club work. The orchestra is of comparatively new origin, but really played like an orchestra of long standing. Especial credit is due to the leaders, Mr. Kline of the Glee Club, Mr. Stewart of the Mandolin Club and Mr. Keith of the orchestra for the excellency of the concert.

The program rendered at the Second Reformed Church was as follows:

(a) Song to Old Union Ludlow, '56

(b) War Song Glee Club

His Honor, the Mayor..... Edwards, Aarons
Mandolin Club.

Quartet, Mammy Loo..... Cortwright

Messrs. Fuller, '08; Corbin, '09; Bell, '08;

The Winter Song Bullard

There was a fine showing made by the house-parties and a great number of townspeople enjoyed the music also. It will be a great pleasure to hear another such concert any time the clubs are willing to render it.

Much comment is arising concerning the appointment of a negro student to the Rhodes scholarship at Oxford. The officials of the Rhodes trust have a stereotyped response to all inquiries arriving from America in regard to the subject. With the authority of the full bench of trustees, Secretary Charles W. Boyd says: "Alain Loraine Locke has been appointed by the selection committee of Pennsylvania Rhodes trustees, and their agents in England have the greatest respect for American opinion and never interfere on principle with the decision of American selections."

President Eliot of Harvard will take a trip through the cities and towns of the Middle West in April, lecturing on "Municipal Government by Commission" at Indianapolis, Urbana, Chicago, Evanston, St. Louis, Des Moines, Columbus, Dayton and Cleveland. He will be entertained by college presidents in the places visited and by Harvard clubs. Mrs. Eliot will accompany him.

The total enrollment at Columbia University for this year is almost 5,200. About 1,100 are summer school students.
