If you do not know this, send for our Illustrated Booklet and learn what we can do for you.

We have been especially successful in finding positions for inexperienced teachers, and we are always glad to enroll the names of young men or women who are just about to graduate from college. No agency in the country has done more for such teachers than ours and we can undoubtedly be of service to you if you are qualified to do good work. We shall be glad to hear from you and will use our best efforts in your behalf if you give us the opportunity. opportunity.

Tis pretty hard to keep well informed on political news, the scientific news, the literary news, the educational movements, the great business developments, the hundreds of interesting and valuable articles in the hundreds of excellent magazines. About the only way it can be done by the average busy man and woman is to read a magazine like the "Review of Reviews," and, as it is the only magazine of the sort, it is a good thing to send $2.50 for a year's subscription.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT says:

"I know that through its columns views have been pre sented to me that I could not otherwise have had access to; because all earnest and thoughtful men, no matter how widely their ideas diverge, are given free utterance in its columns."

UNION COLLEGE, APRIL 13, 1904.

No. 24.

WEST POINT, 5: UNION, 0.

The Garnet's base ball season was opened last Saturday with the West Point game. Only six innings were played on account of rain and the fielding of both teams was very good considering the condition of the ball. The cadets tallied three runs in the first inning but Union steadied down after that and but two soldiers crossed the home plate during the remaining five innings.

Union was beginning to strike a dangerous pace when the play stopped in the sixth, and it would not have been at all extraordinary if there had been something else than a cypher under the run column for Union had the game continued for nine innings.

Ferns, who did the twirling for Union, showed upremarkably well, striking out eleven men and allowing but five scratch hits. Mahar was steady at short. Sawyer and Robinson, in left and right did promisingly. Easton was put behind the bat without any training and naturally was a little wild. Odwell on first was the same Odwell of two years ago—nothing went by him.

The game was without any brilliant plays and the steady rain rendered star features impossible. Union's team was cordially entertained by the Cadet Corps.

NU SIGMA NU DANCE.

Never did Graduates' hall look prettier or more inviting than on Friday evening, when the Omicron chapter of the Nu Sigma Nu fraternity entertained its friends in a most pleasing way. College and fraternity pennants and flags graced the walls. Cosy corners, appropriately and temptingly arranged with sofa pillows of college and fraternity significance, adorned opposite corners of the hall. Potted plants, palms and flowers were prettily banked in a third corner, presenting a most delightful retreat for a specially selected orchestra, which dispensed the latest harmonies for the entrancing waltze's and two-steps that occupied the evening. At the intermission Caterer McElveney served light refreshments, and the Medics certainly sustained their reputation as hospitable and entertaining hosts.

The patronesses were: Mrs Samuel B. Ward, Mrs Henry Hun, Mrs Frederick C. Curtis, Mrs Edgar VanderVeer, Mrs Alvah H. Traver, of Albany; Mrs John H. Cotter, of Poughkeepsie; Mrs Thomas E. Carney, Mrs Frederick C. Reed and Mrs MacDonald. of Schenectady.

PRIZES FOR ECONOMIC ESSAYS.

In order to arouse an interest in the study of topics relating to commerce and industry, and to stimulate an examination of the value of college training for business men, a committee composed of Professor J. Laurence Laughlin, University of Chicago, Chairman; Professor J. B. Clark, Columbia University; Professor Henry C. Adams, University of Michigan; Horace White, Esq., New York city, and Hon. Carroll D. Wright, National Commissioner of Labor, have been enabled, through the generosity of Messrs. Hart, Schaffner and Marx, of Chicago, to offer four prizes for the best studies on any one of the following subjects:

- 1. The causes and extent of the recent industrial progress of Germany.
- 2. To what is the recent growth of American competition in the markets of Europe to be attributed?
- 3. The influence of industrial combinations upon the condition of the American laborer.
- 4. 'The economic advantages and disadvantages of present colonial possessions to the mother country.
 - 5. The causes of the panic of 1893.
- 6. What forms of education should be advised for the elevation of wage-earners from a lower to a higher industrial status in the United States?
- 7. What method of education is best suited for men entering upon trade and commerce?

A first prize of one thousand dollars, and a second prize of five hundred dollars, in cash, are offered for the best studies presented by Class A, composed exclusively of all persons who have received the bachelor's degree from an American college since 1893; and a first prize of three hundred dollars, and a second prize of one hundred and fifty dollars, in cash, are offered for the best studies presented by Class B, composed of persons who, at the time the papers are sent in, are undergraduates of any American college. No one in Class A may compete in Class B; but anyone in Class B may compete in Class A. The committee reserves to itself the right to award the two prizes of $1,000 and $500 to undergraduates, if the merits of the papers demand it.

The ownership of the copyright of successful studies will vest in the donors, and it is expected that, without precluding the use of these papers as thesis for higher degrees, they will cause them to be issued in some permanent form.

Competitors are advised that the studies should be thorough, expressed in good English, and not needlessly expanded. They should be inscribed with an assumed name, the year when the bachelor's degree was received, and the institution which conferred the degree, or in which he is studying, and accompanied by a sealed envelope giving the real name and address of the competitor. The papers should be sent on or before June 1, 1905, to J. Laurence Laughlin, Esq., University of Chicago, Box 145, Faculty Exchange, Chicago, Ill.

AT THE MEDIC.

The usual let-up in work at the Medic is beginning preparatory to the final examinations. This year will end two or three days earlier than last. The commencement exercises will take place on Tuesday, May 3rd, at the Odd Fellows' Hall.

The new University Catalogue has received most favorable comment from the local papers and the students who have seen it. A still better comparative showing might be made for the professional departments, especially the Medical, by securing a list of the respective colleges attended by the academicians who have entered from literary colleges.

The Y. M. C. A. Bible Class which has been meeting Sunday afternoons at five o'clock with Bosworth's "Teachings of Jesus and His Apostles" as its study and the most able Dr.

W. L. Allen as its teacher, has discontinued for the year.

Dr. Thomas Wilson, '74, of Hudson, as a result of an infection in his arm, was obliged to undergo an operation at the Albany hospital. He is now almost convalescent.

Harold Hoyt, '04, has returned to Albany after having substituted for a physician in Poughkeepsie during the past week.

CAMPUS NOTES.

Junior Hop this Friday in Yates' Boat House.

Rider, 'o6, injured his knee last week in baseball practice, and will probably be out of the game for a short while.

A good many "fellowes" attended the annual dance of the Theta Sigma fraternity, held last Wednesday evening in the Boat House.

On Thursday last, some of the Senior Historians tarried awhile outside the classroom to toss nickels, and were rudely awakened when they found the door locked from within. A tableau followed their rendering of "Out in the Rain."

The 1905 Garnet will be out on or about April 15th.

Season tickets for baseball may be had from Mgr. Olmsted.

JUNIOR HOP THIS FRIDAY: YATES' BOAT HOUSE.

The track team Coach will be on the Oval next week.

In less than two months' time this college year will be over. They are the shortest of all the months, too, for there is so much going on, athletics for some, and then again, "In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns t o thoughts of love." We do not think there are any students here who would wilfully neglect their studying, their nearest duty, to go calling on girls or anything like that. Oh, no! In fact the majority can scarcely tear themselves from their books to see a baseball game or to replete their systems with a modicum of digestible matter, much less leave their one real joy in life for the Vampire.

Perhaps the preceding may sound unprecocious. It is all laid at the door of the Springtime. It is hard to be serious at this seductive season, but still, we must not forget that for some of us, at least, the tents must soon be struck, and not for many a long year will there be a "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground." For others, the summer's vacation will be found quite long enough and they will welcome the fall again, tho' we hardly think they will embrace the Incidental Fee with tears of joy.

This term, that is any Spring term, proves many a man's worth. If there is any laziness in him, this is the time of year it harvests a hundred fold. It is one crop that it pays not to give a chance. We will not be so tragic as to advise anyone to say "I will pluck it from my bosom tho' my heart be at its root," but suggest that it be remembered that Spring fever is fatal to work and to ambition.

"We doe then advyse ye" to work this term, either because it is your last or your last for a while, so that when you have occasion to look backwards you will not be saddened by the reproachful gaze of an N. S. or a 4th: a 1st that Might Have Been.

SENIOR CLASS SONG.

Union, thy name forever dear

Memory shall keep within each breast.

Ever thy tender voice will hear

Calling us back from year to year,

Safe in thine arms to rest,

Safe in thine arms to rest.

Only to bid a last good bye.

Loyal to thee is 1904;

Loyal to thee as those of yore,

We lift thy praises high,

We lift thy praises high.

Like as the day fades into night, Swiftly the happy years have flown. Even when time has dimmed our sight, Still may thy love our hearts unite, And faithful be thine own, And faithful be thine own.

Fair 1904, thy name we praise;
Ever we'll keep thy friendship true.
Here's to thy health in future days;
Here's to thy sons though wide their ways.
A last farewell to you.
A last farewell to you.

CARL E. McCOMBS.

THE DIFFERENCE.

I saw the house and the clambering vines
Of roses wreathed the pillars tall,
And the ancient, changeless, murmering pines
Gave me their old time welcoming call.

The scene the same tho' years and years

Had drifted by since I saw it last,

The grass still cool with the night dew's tears

And the sighing oaks as the wind went past.

The trees, the flowers, the house and lawn,
Were all just as they had ever stood,
Yet desolate I, for you were gone,
Leaving my heart in solitude.

S. C. '04.

TO YOU.

If you were here, where now the ways seem dark,
All would be beautiful and crowned with light;
And lovely have in sorrow's thrall would mark
Stars, in the darker night.

If you were here the weeping spring would know
Unclouded skies; while all her grieving streams,
Singing, unto a single sea, would go,
Past valleys, sweet with dreams.

If you were here! Life is but a little space—
A sigh, a song—the falling of a tear!
But all its beauty, tenderness and grace
Were mine, if you were here!—Georgia Tech.

THE WESTERN WAY.

Down the declivity into twilight lands
With quiet songs and tender farewell air,
Down with the Autumn of life's little year,
With hushing hearts and worn and weary hands:
Down to seashore with its sloping sands,
All doubt behind—it is too late to fear
We are too tired now to know or care
Yet the still soul at evening understands.
On thro' the darkness deepening before
As night behind us gathers on the way,
We must press on whatever is in store,
For there is no escape; day's dying ray
Kindles the Hills of Heaven far away,
And Faith stands sentry by the Shadowy-Door-

INTER-COLLEGIATE.

The Students of the University of Missouri have petitioned the faculty to serve them only two meals. Experiments recently conducted by six dormitory students seemed to show that a student was in better health and spirit to do hard mental work when eating only two meals a day. It was requested that the noon meal be eliminated.

At present, there are about 500 Peruvians attending American universities. No other South American republic is so largely represented in our colleges.

New York University has set apart a site adjoining the Hall of Fame upon which is to be built a similar hall for women. There will be room in this building for sixty tablets, fifty for American women of native birth, and ten for American women of foreign birth.

The University of Pennsylvania has some new rules regarding chapel attendance which are being strenuously opposed by the students on the ground that the faculty do not attend chapel.

A number of Universities are establishing departments of music. McGill University, for example, is to create two degrees in connection with their new music department.

The President has announced the following chairmen of committees for the coming year:

Devotional—Karl West, '05.

Bible Study—Byron Reed, '06.

Missionary—Walter Nutt, '06.

The speaker at the Vesper service this Sunday afternoon, April 17, will be Paul L. Corbin, traveling secretary of the Student Volunteer movement for foreign missions. This Student movement was organized at the Students' Conference, held at Mt. Hermon, Mass. in 1886. Since then five thousand student volunteers have enrolled, of whom nineteen hundred have entered active work in foreign countries. Mr. Corbin's talk will be in regard to this student work, and anyone wishing to have a personal talk with Mr. Corbin, will be given the opportunity.

The regular monthly meeting of the Cabinet was held Wednesday evening.

The student conference at Northfield this year, will be held July 1-10.

SPICE AND VARIETY.

There is a monument in London to mark the spot where the great fire started. The inscription on it reads: "Here, by the grace of God, hell broke loose on this Protestant city."

A NEW VERSION.

A soldier of the Russians Lay japanned at Tschrtzvkjskivitch, There was lack of woman's nursing And other comforts which Might add to his last moments And smooth the final way; But a comrade stood beside him To hear what he might say. The japanned Russian faltered As he took that comrade's hand, And he said: "I never more shall see My own, my native land; Take a message and a token To some distant friends of mine, For I was born at Smnixzrskgqrxzski, Fair Smnixzrskgqrxzski on the Irktrvzzkimnov."—New York Sun.

Oh, Russia, pause before you start
To write a bloody story;
Be sure you have no Austinvitch
To celebrate the glory.

And fair Japan, before you war,
Within your land of beauty,
Take care no Kiplingura lurks
To point you out your duty.—Ex.

The shades of night had fallen fast,
When o'er the stage there proudly passed,
A chorus girl in tights arrayed,
Of what was she then mostly made?

A Pqliar Problem: What is the difference between a gardener, a billiard marker, a gentleman and a verger?

A gardener minds his peas.

A billiard marker minds his cues.

A gentleman minds his p's and q's.

A verger minds his keys and pews.

—Woman's Home Companion.

Hamilton Wright Mabie, at the end of an address before the League for Political Culture of New York, quoted verbatim a child's essay that had come into his hands through his relations with the New York Kindergarten Association. The essay, which was on Henry VIII., follows:

"Kinghenry 8 was the greatest widower that ever lived. He was born at Anno Domini in 1686 he had 435 wives besides The first was beheaded and children. executed. The second was revoked. She never smiled again but she said the word calais would be found on her hart after her death. The greatest man in the rain was Lord Duke Sir Garret Wolsey. He was sir named the boy batchlor. He was born at the age of 17 unmarried."

An Oriental Pun: "Is your name Hi Li?" asked the foreigner brusquely.

"Yes, sir," answered the Korean Emperor. "I am 'Hi Li' by name, but by nature I am 'Lie Low.'"-Washington Star.

One of the good stories told of Sir Henry Hawkins, now Lord Brampton, the famous English Judge, is this: He was presiding over a very long, tedious and uninteresting trial, and was listening apparently with absorbed attention to a protracted and wearying speech from an eminent counsel learned in law. Presently Sir Henry made a pencil memorandum, folded it and sent it by the usher to the lawyer in question. This gentleman on unfolding the paper found these words | tape.

written thereon: "Patience Competition-Gold medal, Sir Henry Hawkins. Honorable mention, Job." Counsel's display of oratory came to an abrupt end.

The Executive Committee of the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America has decided to introduce an innovation in the coming intercollegiate track and field meeting to be held on Franklin Field May 27 and 28. This will be a raised platform for the exclusive use of the judges of the game. For this reason the judges will not be allowed to cluster around the finish as they have done in the past, but will be stationed about twenty-five feet from the finish line and on an elevated stand. This is the method of judging races in England, and has been chosen for the intercollegiate contest because of the dissatisfaction over the work of the judges in the 100-yard race at New York last year. In that race there was a discussion as to whether Schick of Harvard or Moulton of Yale finished second. The new plan will have its first trial at the relays April 23. Another innovation for judging the finishes will be the use of a white line on the ground at the finish, instead of the tape at the breast. This has been chosen because of the tendency of so many athletes to throw themselves across the line in a close finish, instead of breasting the

How Can! Keep Up with the Times?

T is pretty hard to keep well informed on the political news, the scientific news, the literary news, the educational movements, the great business developments, the hundreds of interesting and valuable articles in the hundreds of excellent magazines. About the only way it can be done by the average busy man and woman is to read a magazine like "The Review of Reviews," and, as it is the only magazine of the sort, it is a good thing to send $2.50 for a year's subscription.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT says:

"I know that through its columns views have been presented to me that I could not otherwise have had access to; because all earnest and thoughtful men, no matter how widely their ideas diverge, are given free utterance in its columns."

EX-PRESIDENT GROVER CLEVELAND says:
"I consider it a very valuable addition to my library."

School Days

are sometimes filled with suffering. The strenuous life of the average student brings its series of mishaps. Pond's Extract—the old family doctor—offers quick relief and cure for all such ills. The student who has a bottle of Pond's Extract at hand is well provided to relieve pain and suffering. It cures cuts, bruises, burns; stops bleeding; relieves earache, toothache, rheumatism and all pains as if by magic. Soothes and freshens the face after shaving. For over 60 years it has been the one family remedy that has never disappointed. Watered Witch Hazel, a weak solution—sometimes offered in place of Pond's Extract—has no medicinal value—is positively worthless. Pond's Extract CURES—therefore is priceless.

Sold only in sealed bottles under buff wrapper.
