UNION COLLEGE, OCTOBER 21, 1898.

No. 5.

Union, 11; Stevens, o.

Union, to her three previous victories in football, added another on Saturday by defeating the eleven representing Stevens Institute in a well contested game. The day was damp, chilly and by reason of a cold wind blowing over the campus most disagreeable, but everyone present was amply repaid by seeing a very good exhibition of football. The elevens were much better matched in this than in the other two games which have been played upon the campus, and consequently the game could not but be interesting. Snappy playing was the rule upon both sides. Splendid team work there was also in abundance, for neither side was able to make a gain at any time of more than 30 yards. Both lines stood the test well, the garnet's especially so. Not a few times did the Stevens backs, without effect, hurl themselves at our men who stood together in splendid shape. Our line bucking was not as fierce as in the Williams game but still was very good.

For Stevens, an excellent game was played by their quarter back, Myers, their right half, Appleton and their full back, Scammell.

Keogh played a splendid game for Union. His running and dodging were much better than usual. Thebo did the best work on the line. Clever tackling and two well blocked kicks are to his credit.

The score of 11 to 0 indicates two touchdowns and one goal. Another touchdown would probably have been made had it not been for an unfortunate play at a critical point. The first touchdown was made in the first half a few minutes after the game began, by Keogh, who made a pretty run of over thirty yards by doing some clever dodging. The second one was made toward the latter part of the second half by Gulnac. Union had hard work in making this touchdown and it was only the result of the hardest kind of hammering upon the Stevens line that it was at all accomplished. The good work of Mallery, Keogh, Carver and Fenton helped gain these last five points. The goal, which had been missed in the former touchdown, was very prettily kicked in this case.

Union has thus far been meet successful in her football contests and it is hoped by those in charge that the coming games may be likewise. The team is undoubtedly the best one in several years so that Union stands an excellent chance of winning the pennant this fall. She has some strong teams to meet, however, and consequently nothing at all certain may be said.

The line up was as follows:

STEVENS INSTITUTE.	UNION.

Referee, Mr. Pollard, Dartmouth; umpire, Mr. Barlow, Stevens; linesmen, Mr. Brooks, Stevens, Mr. Bookhout, Union; touchdowns, Keogh and Gulnac; goal, Keogh; time of halves, 15 minutes.

Juniors Elect Officers.

A meeting of the junior class was held Friday afternoon, Oct. 7, in the chapel, and the following officers for the junior year were chosen: President, Howard P. Dunham, Schenectady; vice president, William C. Campbell, Chicago; secretary, Leslie N. Broughton, Delhi; treasurer, Douglas W. Paige, Schenectady; toastmaster, Clinton Jones, Schenectady; football manager, Archibald N. Anderson, Ballston; baseball manager, Charles E. Palmer, Schenectady; track manager, F. M. Davis, New York.

The class expect to hold a banquet sometime during the winter term.

John van Schaick, jr., '94.

Union college has contributed far more than its share to the number of college graduates in New York city who have achieved eminence in professional and business life. This fact has so long been recognized that the friends of the college have become proud of the prestige of their institution and are greatly gratified over any indications that this prestige is not to be diminished. One of the most recent instances of a younger alumnus of the college who has got his feet on the ladder and begun to climb is that of Mr. John van Schaick, jr., who has just been appointed assistant pastor of the Church of the Divine Paternity, Universalist, at the corner of Central Park West and 76th street. Mr. van Schaick graduated in the class of '94, completing his course in three years, and spent the next two years as principal of the Sharon Springs High school. During the year 1895-96, he resided several months in Boston, where he engaged in University Settlement work. The past year he has served as professor of English and history in the College of Emporia, Kansas. Mr. van Schaick comes to the Church of the Divine Paternity just at a time when it seems to be entering on a career marked with unusual promise of success. A new building has recently been erected, and everything seems to indicate that the future of the church under Dr. Eaton will more than rival its illustrious past when the congregation sat under the well-known Dr. Chapin. Mr. van Schaick preached his first sermon last Sunday night, and those who listened to him then and those who know of his record in college and since graduation will agree equally that his share in the making of the new history of this church is to be an important and an honorable one.

The Literary Societies.

For the past few years there has been a general decline in the interest taken in the debating societies. Instead of the full number in the annual extemporaneous debate, there have been but three or four anxious to compete, and this lack of interest is no doubt due to the rapid increase of fraternity spirit.

The literary societies are an important factor in college life. They are a legacy from the first sons of Old Union. The past few years have shown the vast power that has developed from training in these organizations. The pulpit and the bar have each its representatives who show the influence that their connection with these societies has produced.

There is a special duty resting upon all the students of Union to join either the Adelphic or Philomathean society, and do all that they can to promote their work. Lack of time is no excuse. An hour or two a week can easily be found among the many hours of "poling" or of wandering listlessly about the campus. If the few prizes offered form no inducement for indulgence in this work, then let the noble standing which Union has held in the literary world, claim hearty co-operation and support of every man in college.

A weekly opportunity is offered in which to join in this work. The Adelphics hold their meetings in North College, and the Philomatheans in South College. The attention of freshmen is earnestly called to this branch of college work, and the renewed effort of all the students is earnestly solicited.

At a meeting of the Adelphics last Thursday night, the following officers were elected: President, W. F. H. Breeze, '99; vice president, John M. Tuggey, 1900; secretary, H. S. Bahler, 1901; executive committee, Doran, '99, Schmitter, '99, and Dalton, 1900.

Alumni Notes.

Walter S. McEwan, '95, of Albany, visited Beta Theta Pi-friends last Saturday.

Theodore F. Bayles, '95, is pastor of the Reformed church at Gardiner, Ulster Co., N. Y.

Howard Conant, Union '92, who has been teaching at Waverly, N. Y., is now principal of the high school at Penn Yan, N. Y.

Douglas Campbell, Union '94, one of the Roosevelt Rough Riders, who was severely ill as the result of his army service, is slowly recovering and is at present visiting relatives in town.

The Sophomore-Freshman game was played Wednesday and resulted in a victory for 1901 by a score of 6—o. A drizzling rain fell all the afternoon so that the campus was very muddy, but even with a wet ball comparatively few fumbles were made.

During the first half the ball changed sides several times and when time was called was in the possession of 1901 in the freshmen's territory.

Near the close of the second half Brown made an excellent punt and Griffith touched the ball but failed to catch it. Weed meanwhile had broken through the line and getting the ball made a touchdown. Robinson kicked an easy goal.

The ball was put in play again and Weed and Brown each made good gains, but time was called soon after with the ball near the middle of the field.

Political.

Paige, 1900; time of halves, 10 minutes each.

James W. Ferguson, '91, has accepted the Democratic nomination for Member of Assembly in Montgomery county.

George C. Stewart, '90, is the Democratic candidate for District Attorney for the same county.

At the election of the first year class of the Albany Medical college held last week, Willis E. Merriman, jr., '98, was elected president and John H. Gutmann, '98, was chosen vice-president.

Chas. Burrows, Printer, 414 State Street, Schenectady, N. Y.

It is to be hoped that the football management will be able to schedule a game this fall with Dartmouth. Our men might be beaten, but they would enjoy meeting another of the New England teams. It is equally to be hoped that next year we may have another game with Williams. The good feeling that exists between the two colleges was only strenghtened by the courteous treatment given and received by both sides on the field at Williamstown.

ON OCTOBER 15, another victory was added to the series of uninterrupted successes of the 'varsity. This is the best game that has been played on the campus this season, for the teams were more evenly matched. Stevens put up an excellent game, but frequently fumbled, and several times lost the ball on downs, although the average weight of the 'varsity was much lighter. Union is certainly playing in great luck, but the excellent practice and training that the team has received and the spirit with which the players have entered into the game have made success possible more than any chance plays that have been made. An unfortunate play or a fumble may lose or win a game, but such accidents are as liable to happen to one side as to the other.

PROBABLY the students do not appreciate the fact that it is through the patronage of the business men of Schenectady and Albany, who advertise in the Concordiensis, that the paper can be published. It is the duty of every student to reciprocate this patronage, and let our advertisers see that the college boys appreciate the fact that they advertise in the college paper. We hope that our readers will glance at the advertisements in each issue and trade with the business men who are interested enough in the college to pay for space in the paper although they realize that the profit will be small. Call on our advertisers, mention the fact that you are trading with them because they advertise in the Concordiensis, and you will be doing part of your duty to the college and the college publications.

Who should be subscribers to the college paper? Surely the Concordiensis exists for all the students and should receive their support just the same as any other college organization. Because a dozen copies go into one fraternity house, or two copies to each room, is no reason why half the members of any fraternity or one occupant of a room should desire to discontinue his subscription.

Much good could be done for the college if the students would forward copies of the paper to friends at home. The primary object of the paper is to satisfy the needs of the students and the alumni, but it can also be used as an advertiser for the college. If the students who are so anxious to discontinue the paper would only forward their copies to some friend in the "Prep." school at home, who is contemplating a college course, this might be the means of bringing him to Union. Or the paper might be sent to some alumnus and a subscription obtained from him. There may be some alumni whom the paper has not reached and they would be only too glad to subscribe if they were only put in mind of it. Again the paper might be sent to parents and relatives, who would like to know something about the college, and what part their boys are taking in college life.

Nor is that all. The paper may be of more value to the student than may now appear. Ten or twenty years hence some of the students who are now in college may regret that they have not in their possession the paper that was published during their college days, which contains the accounts of games and sports in which they took part, and the records of college life.

Psi U. Dance.

Psi Upsilon gave its annual fall dance at its chapter house Friday evening, October the seventh. As usual, it was a most delightful affair and everyone present enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Not only a few of Dorp's fairest girls, but also several young ladies from out of town were in attendance while the playing of Gioscia lent a decided charm to the evening. Light refreshments were served and at an early hour the merry party broke up. Those present were: Mrs. Price; Misses, Mason of Baltimore; Stover of Amsterdam; Beecher of Ballston; Gibson of Brooklyn; Essylstyne of Hudson; Abrams of New York; Backus of Brooklyn; Beattie, Strain, Paige, Schoolcrast, Horstmann, Price, Miller, Lewis, Ostrom, Kingsbury, Veeder, Susan Yates, Rachel Yates, Dora Yates, Campbell, DeForest, Brown, Clute, Schuyler, Ripton and Whitlock of Schenectady, and Messrs. Parsons, Lawrence, Opdyke, Jones, Bradford and Pollard from the college.

Married.

Announcement has been received of the marriage of Walter Luman Lawton, Union '94, and Miss Elizabeth Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Boyd of Glens Falls. Mr. Lawton is assistant division engineer of this division of the Erie canal.

Albany Caw School.

On September 21st the Albany Law School began the 48th year of its existence. The opening of the school was marked by two events—the entrance of the largest number of students known to its history, and the beginning of a two year course in connection with the previous one year course which is continued. Students completing the two year course will be entitled to the degree of LL. B.

Beginning with the fall of '99, men desiring to enter the Senior class will be required to pass up the work of the Junior year.

The exercises of the day were opened by Amasa J. Parker, President of the Trustees, followed by a prayer by the Rev. Mr. Selden. Mr. Parker then introduced Dr. Raymond, who gave a humorous and instructive talk of his experiences when studying law, prior to taking up the ministry. Dean Fiero spoke concerning the work of the school, the prizes offered, and mentioned particularly that the fellows were not to "flirt" (in the library) with the state library girls.

The majority of the entering class matriculated under regents and preparatory school certificates, but there is a large sprinkling of college men in attendance from Princeton, Yale, Tufts, Cornell, Syracuse, Brown, Hobart and six men from "Old Union." Following is a list of students:

W. E. VanWert, Albany; W. W. Eaton, Fonda; Benj. L. Wells, Bangor; P. B. Berry, Malone; J. W. Cornaire, Rochester; Creighton S. Andrews, Franklinville; Ernest C. Witbeck, Rochester; Dennis T. Shehan, Troy; Foster Pruyn, Albany; John S. Smith, Short Track; Hugh Whalen, Ballston; Wm. A. Hoffman, Oxford; James E. Carroll, Poughkeepsie; M. F. Deignan, Troy; Lewis G. Carpenter, Hancock; Walter A. Chambers, Glens Falls; Henry S. Kahn, Cohoes; Jene Olney, Catskill; Sidney K. Newburger, Troy; Edwin C. Tharp, Bath; Arthur Hitchcock, Albany; Wm. L. Terry, Waterford; Mason M. Swan, Watertown; Wm. A. Campbell, Schenectady; Abel Merchant, jr., Nassau; D. M. Westfall, jr., Cambridge; Murray M. Shoemaker, Saratoga Springs; Hubbell Robinson, Delmar; S. Miles Boughton, Jamestown; Wm. E. Van Der Moor, Schenectady; S. Ward B. Jackson, Genesee; James C. Cooper, Schenectady; Anson Gettman, Johnstown; Henry W. Showers, Tannersville; John F. Higgins, Albany; George E. McAllister, Antwerp; John H. Rea, Albany; Oliver A. Woolcott, Keeseville; Furman G. Anderson, Westfall; Roland B. Sanford, Albany; Andrew Spencer, Milford; Ambrose P. Fitzjames, Amsterdam; Frank Whicher, Mayville; Fred. B. McNish, Cambridge; Winson B. French, Saratoga Springs; Frances A. Van Santford, Albany.

JUNIORS.

Wm. Wisscher, Albany; Wm. J. Maier, Seneca Falls; Myron D. Carr, Swanton, Vt.; Fred M. La Duke, Keesville; Wm. R. Whitfred, Albany; Walter P. Herrick, Albany; P. J. Rooney, Albany; Charles D. Phillips, Albany; Elmer Blair, Albany; Silas B. Lyman, Pulaski; Homer L. Hunter, Cooperstown; Charles R. Wilber, Albany; James F. Hanlon, Albany; Ed. C. Stnrgers, Altamont; Carl F. Churchill, St. Johnsville; T. Harry Keogh, Albany; Charles Mornel, Accord; C. H. T. Reilly, Albany; John H. Cummings, Middletown.

Personals.

Streeter, '95, was on the hill last week.

Pemberton, '95, has been visiting friends in college.

A. H. Robinson, 1901, has returned home on account of illness.

Slack, 1901, who was injured recently in football practice is improving.

H. E. Mereness, jr., 1901, has entered the Albany Medical college.

Francis E. Cullen, '98, is on the stump in the interests of Tammany Hall.

Morris J. Holmes, 1902, of Troy, has left college owing to ill health.

Ripley, 1900, has had charge of the department of mathematics at U. C. I. for the past week.

Champion, '99, is convalescing and expects to return to college at the opening of the winter term.

E. E. Draper, '97, of Lansingburgh, and R. S. Greenman, '96, of Frankfort, were guests at the Chi Psi lodge last week.

A class in Hebrew has been organized for those juniors and seniors who intend to enter the ministry. Rabbi Schaumberg of the Jewish synagogue has again kindly donated his services. The work may be taken as an elective study.

During the game at Williamstown, Pike, 1900, was taken ill and had to be conveyed to the depot. When the train reached Troy, a doctor was summoned who pronounced his condition critical, and ordered him brought to the hospital. From last reports his condition is somewhat improved.
